The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

RAMBLES ABOUT PORTSMOUTH.

It is gratifying to find the favorable reception this volume has met with at home and abroad. Although it has been issued but a week, a large part of the edition has already been disposed of,—and as there is no intention of issuing a second edition, those who do not at once secure copies will not be likely to obtain them. We are indebted to several of the Boston papers, among them the Transcript, Journal and Traveller, for flattering notices of the Rambles. From the Boston Traveller we take the following:

Town histories are among the most useful works we can have, but, as a rule, they are not often very lively reading. This happens from the manner in which they are written, or compiled. There are exceptions, and the most marked of these is a volume entitled Rambles about Portsmouth, by CHARLES W. BREWSTER, Esq., just published by C. W. Brewster & Son, Portsmouth, N. H., and for sale in Boston by Ticknor & Fields. The work, which is a handsome octavo of 376 pages, does not profess to be a history of Portsmouth, but such in fact it is, from the amplitude and variety of its facts, the method and clearness of the arrangements throughout, the philosophic spirit which characterizes it, and its luminous style. Mr. Brewster's object was to write a series of articles for the paper which he conducts with so much ability, the Portsmouth Journal. These papers attracted much notice, and were read with pleasure and edification in many parts of the country. New Hampshire having contributed numerous citizens to most of the other States of the Union, who cherish a strong regard for the land of their birth. A desire was felt, and expressed, that writings so pleasant and useful should be made to assume some other form than that assigned to them by their author. Mr. Brewster was induced to comply with the wishes he found expressed from so many quarters, and hence the volume before us, which is among the most important and readable contributions to American historical literature at a time when such contributions are common, and proceed from the best men of the nation. "In complying with a request to give these sketches in a book form," the author says, in the Preface, "a revision has been made, and new incidents and several new Rambles have been added. While historical accuracy has been aimed at, it would not be surprising if we have made some error or been misled by some wrong traditions." We believe Mr. Brewster has as little to reproach himself with, on the score of errors, as any writer in American annals. So far as our reading extends, we have uniformly found that the ablest writers are also the most accurate writers, and Mr. Brewster's example helps strengthen the rule. Pleasing as the Rambles are, as reading, they are doubly acceptable because of the confidence we feel in the author's industry, diligence, and conscientious fidelity. They are eighty-three (83) in number, and, commencing with the visit of Martin Pring to Portsmouth harbor that now is, in 1603, they close with our own time, thus covering a period of two centuries and a-half; though it was not until something after Pring's visit that Portsmouth was founded, that town dating from 1622, seven years before Boston was founded, and a couple of years or so before there was a white settler on this peninsula. The number of facts that Mr. Brewster has gathered, and the historical material he has brought together, can be appreciated only from a perusal of his volume. He has the condensing faculty in prodigious power, and has used it critically. His book is full of remarkable and authentic incidents of the revolutionary age, and of those old colonial times that form, as it were, our mythical age, and which Hawthorne has turned to so admirable account. There are a hundred incidents in Mr. Brewster's volume which clever romance writers might work up into capital stories, and they ought to study it, as so much addition to their business capital. The strange story of the disappearance of James McDonough on his wedding night that was to have been; the terrible tragic one of Ruth Blay, which reminds us of "The Heart of Mid Lothian," and the mysterious duel of the French officers, in 1782, so like one of the most thrilling of the Tales of the Etrick Shepherd,—these, and others that might be cited, are the raw material from which the brain-working artisan could evolve books that would be sure to have readers. Meanime, we cordially commend these Rambles about one of the most venerable and beautiful of American towns to the attention of all readers, hoping and believing that they will afford them as much pleasure and instruction as they have afforded us.

Morning Chronicle.

CONFESSIONS & PROTESTATIONS.

As a general thing, little reliance can be placed on the protestations of innocence, made by condemned criminals,—and their so called confessions are often mixed in the proportion of three lies to one truth. The Charlestown Advertiser offers the following remarks on this subject.

Executions for capital crimes present a painful subject for contemplation to all right-minded men. Live as we may, there are few men who when brought face to face with Death, will not turn their thoughts to making such peace with God as they can, before entering the invisible world. A full and hearty confession and sincere repentance of their sins is universally taught and considered an indispensable preliminary to that forgiveness which is sought from God, and most men, believing that they would, in view of an inevitable death, make a full confession of their crimes, argue that the last words of a culprit on the gallows have a peculiar solemnity and are worthy of the most serious consideration. It is difficult for honest law-abiding men to comprehend how any man of sufficient intelligence to understand his relations to his Creator, after an apparently diligent preparation for the change awaiting him, and aided by the affectionate labors of christian ministers, can yet die with a lie on his lips. But we must believe that nearly if not quite half of all our criminals do so, or else that they die innocent of the crimes imputed to them. In either view of the case the thought is a terrible one.

That felons after professing to be forgiven of God, will yet with their last breath lie to men, we have conclusive proof in three recent executions, if not before. Cropp, aided by Corrie, shot officer Rigdon. After many weeks of devotional exercises aided by the daily counsel and prayers of devoted clergymen; after the strongest professions of belief that their sins were forgiven; after singing psalms, reading the Bible, praying by the hour, and exhorting their grief-stricken friends and relatives to meet them in that Heaven to which they expressed their firm conviction that they were hastening; and during all this time and up to the last moment of their earthly existence uniformly and solemnly protesting their innocence, Cropp, on the morning of his execution, writes and seals a note to be opened after he is dead, confessing that he did the deed, as proved, but declaring that God had forgiven him! He thus posthumously reveals the lie with which he left the world, and at the moment when his soul is in its Author's presence with that lie upon it, impiously publishes to men his assurance of God's forgiveness!

Clergymen ought to understand the human heart better than all other men, but do they? How is it possible that they can be so often deceived, for deceived they must be, since they lead us to believe that in most cases they have, with God's help, fitted their charges for companionship with the third who repented on the cross. They should first extract a full and public confession of the crime before allowing the condemned to indulge the slightest hope of forgiveness, and should be less easily deceived by pretences of innocence than other men. Are their failures to elicit such confessions to be attributed to their sympathy and tenderness for the wretch before them, and their eager and well-meant desire to develope as speedily as possible, regardless of preliminaries, a hope of final forgiveness? Verily, I fear so. I have not a doubt that these repeated dying declarations by criminals, of their innocence, seriously affect the execution of our laws. It is well known that many men in every community have conscientious scruples against taking life for life, and there is much reason to believe that many a jury have preferred to bring in a verdict of acquittal by considering some circumstance which seemed to them a palliation of the crime, rather than to convict, with the gallows and a dying declaration of innocence to follow. Men do not like to send a fellow creature into eternity even according to the forms of law, and have his assertion of innocence sounding in their ears ever after. And this fact clergymen should not forget in their intercourse with the condemned. If a conviction is just, it is due alike to the consciences of the twelve men upon whom the painful duty of that conviction fell, and the public sentiment which sustains them in the discharge of that duty, that the criminal should acknowledge it, and I think no one is so fit nor has any one so good an opportunity, and I might add that on no one does the duty so manifestly devolve, as upon the minister called by the condemned to point out to him the way of forgiveness, to procure that acknowledgement.

The Lord Chief Justice of England lately introduced into the House of Lords a bill for the abolition, so far as relates to civil causes, of the law, which requires that the verdict of a jury shall be unanimous. The majority of the House agreed with Lord Lyndhurst that a law which had existed for five hundred years, should not be altered without some weighty reasons, and refused their assent to the bill.

The antiquity of the practice is probably about all that can be said in its favor. The increasing disposition of juries to disagree leads many to believe that substantial justice could be best attained by requiring a majority only for a verdict.—Dover Eng.

Nothing can be more unjust or ridiculous than to be angry with another because he is not of your opinion.

Jackson, the fugitive slave, was on Wednesday, at Zanesville, Ohio, delivered to his master, to be taken back to Virginia. A large crowd followed the parties to the depot, but there was no attempt at a rescue.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certifiy to the world, that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above was I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasant or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing good to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal, will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonful will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated, cures Cholera Morbus and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

Dr. SANFORD Proprietor. 345 Broadway, N. Y.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of DR. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 1ly

JUDGE VONDERSMITH, just convicted in Philadelphia of the forgery of land warrants, was for many years one of the Associate Judges of Lancaster County, Pa.—reputed to be a man of wealth and high standing in the community. He had, however, for some ten or fifteen years prior to 1854, when his crimes were first discovered, been engaged in forging pension papers, on which large sums of money were drawn from Washington City. He ran off in 1854 and was absent for some years, until as was supposed, the statute of limitation was a defence—but on his return to Pennsylvania, was arrested and brought to trial. Among the witnesses called for the prosecution were several of the Prothonotaries of Lancaster County, who explained how they came to attach the seal of the Court to scores of fraudulent papers—his position as Judge made them careless. They certified without knowing anything of the handwriting of the Justices before whom the declarations purported to have been made. The Judge formerly exercised considerable political influence. He was an intimate friend of President Buchanan. His return from his European tour was effected so cautiously that, he resided for some weeks among his old neighbors before the officers of the law discovered his whereabouts.—The Judge was a prominent church member, and the influence of his friends was exerted in his behalf. He was convicted of forgery on Thursday. Sentence has not been passed.

HOW THE BEAN CLIMBS THE POLE.—Prof. Brewer, of Washington College, Pa., communicates to the American Journal of Science and Arts the result of some experiments made by him on climbing vines—the hop, the Lima bean and the morning glory. He finds that they will climb around a transparent glass pipe just as well as anything else, and that they are most ardent in their embraces when the pole is warmer than the surrounding air. During the day the vine is attracted towards the light, but at night, and especially on cool nights, it turns to the pole. He learned, also, that the color of the pole makes no difference, the caressing instinct of the vine has no prejudice against any shade. The element of constancy is very largely developed; the vine, after it has reached its pole, showing a much stronger tendency to wind around it than it did before to reach it.

☞ The following, from a late Liverpool paper, illustrates a danger from the English Railway system, from which our own is happily free. The English cars are divided into small compartments, into which the passengers are locked; and as the English have not adopted the simple expedient, universal in this country, of communicating with the engineer by means of a cord running through all the cars, passengers are completely isolated:

A Railway Train on Fire.—An accident, which might have been attended with fearful consequences, occurred to the express train which ought to have arrived at Liverpool at 8:20 last night. Shortly after leaving Warrington the surrounding country was illuminated. Above the din of the train and the roar of the engine were heard the cries and shrieks of the passengers. On dashed the engine—there were not any means of communication with the guard or engineer—and the roots of the two carriages next to the engine, and all the luggage, were in a fierce flame.

Most providentially the engineer's attention was attracted by the brilliant light and loud cries, and the engine was brought to a stand just in time to enable the passengers to escape unhurt. The flaming carriages were detached and sent to a place of safety, though it is believed that the upper parts of them were totally destroyed. Such an accident as this brings the necessity of communication between passengers, guard and engineer forcibly before the public, and directors cannot too soon establish a system which will secure passengers against the awful position those in the burning carriages were in last night.

☞ May Day in New York is highly hygenic in its nature. It leads to more cleanliness than all the other days in the year.—No woman can tolerate "another woman's dirt." For this reason, Mrs. Smith no sooner takes possession of the house just vacated by Mrs. Johnson, than she puts Mrs. Johnson's dirty floors, walls and back stoops through a course of mops, buckets and scrubbing brushes, which increases the salubrity of the neighborhood seventy-five per cent. in twelve hours. Mrs. Johnson uses Mrs. Day's house in the same manner. The result is, that the whole city becomes purified.

Indian Physician.
Dr. B. S. GOODWIN
Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.
ADVICE FREE.
Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.
THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN.
Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.
No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!
Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MAY 9, 1859.

MORE ERRORS.—The Dover Gazette of May 7 says, in speaking of the North American and South American Tract Societies:

We say success to the main body of the American Tract Society so long as it maintains its present high standing. It presents a proud and a holy attitude before the world—proud in the position of manifest right, and holy in the influence it exerts upon the moral well being of the country; while on the other hand this abolition branch are in a position absolutely disgraceful and cowardly. They have not the moral courage to rebuke the sins of drunkenness, fornication, lying, Sabbath-breaking and all the multitude of sins at their own doors, but they can publish with all the gusto in the world their fulminations against slavery, which they cannot affect, and with which they have no business to meddle.

We might ask, why the Tract Society has not just as much business to meddle with slavery, as with drunkenness. But our purpose now is to say that the abolition branch, as the Dover Gazette calls it, really rebukes all the sins referred to, as distinctly and as fully as the slavery branch does—for each society sells and gives away the same kinds of books exactly.

We do not see that this kind of rebuke requires much moral courage in any body.

The only difference between the two societies is, that the North American Society is willing to issue tracts against slavery, while the other is not willing.—or was not, last year.

One is just as evangelical or orthodox as the other,—but the South American Society has lately enlisted some papers on its side in this controversy, whose editors are not aware of the character of most of the tracts, and have no idea what they are recommending.

A few extracts from Atlein's Alarm or Baxter's Call, would rather lessen their admiration of the old fogyism which tries to padlock the doors of discussion.

☞ The National Musical Convention at Washington, D. C., under direction of Profs. Bradbury and Perkins, closed its sessions at the Smithsonian Institute with a concert that was pronounced by competent judges to be the finest ever given in Washington—according to a correspondent of the Musical Pioneer, who continues:

The feature of the concert most interesting to some of us, at least, was the chorus singing. The solos, duets, trios and quartettes, sung by different members of the Convention, were indeed beautiful, and justly merited the hearty applause they received from the audience; while such choruses as Rossini's "God of Israel," or Handel's great opening chorus to the Messiah, "And the glory of the Lord," performed as these were, exceeded by far the expectations of all. They were truly grand. Such majestic choruses are the strong meat of a musical festival.

The Association were invited to call upon the President at the White House, and sing a few pieces for him, but were prevented by rain.

☞ The American fillibusters who went from New York in the brig African, Capt. Britton, to revolutionize Cuba, having been frightened by a Spanish ship-of-war, have arrived at Port au Prince. They are 36 in number.

The Spanish Consul at Port au Prince had communicated the fact of their arrival to Gen. Concha. The fillibusters are young men between the ages of sixteen and thirty, and hard-looking customers. They express themselves anxious to get back to this country.

The brig had $1000 in advance for taking them out. They carried 240 muskets, and attempted a landing at Nuevitas, Grandis, on the 7th ult., but when they had placed a quantity of powder in the boats, they leaked—some reports say swamped—and the men had to remain on the brig.—Capt. Britton then steered for Port au Prince, where the fillibusters were put ashore, and remained at the last dates, without money, food, or employment, except as given them by the charitable.

They are said to be fugitives from justice, negro traders, murderers, thieves, deserters, &c.

NOT QUITE. — The Union Democrat, speaking of the Rockport Nuisance Case, says, it "went to the Supreme Court, which has declared the Nuisance Act to be unconstitutional—set aside the former verdict, and ordered a new trial. This takes the high-pressure 'reformers' somewhat aback."

The Nuisance Act was not declared unconstitutional,—but it was decided that officers only must enforce it, and that private citizens could do no more than make complaint, i. e. they must not take the law into their own hands.

☞ The boats on Lake Erie owned by the Michigan railways will not be run between Buffalo and Detroit this summer.

Every true friend of Liberty (says the Milford Republican,) will regret that Hon. Charles Sumner, whose health is worse, has been compelled to go to Rome to recuperate it.

What has Charles Sumner, his health, or his going to Rome, to do with Liberty?—Exchange.

Charles Sumner's life and health, and his going to Rome, has a very close connection with liberty, for he was struck down in the Senate Chamber by a half drunken minion of the slave power, for daring to speak the truth of slavery and its abettors. And the assassin was aided and guarded by a set of scoundrels, some of whom are now opposing liberty with all their might.

It will be hard work to dissociate Mr. Sumner's name from Liberty, whether he lives on, or dies of the wounds inflicted for words spoken in debate.

☞ Rev. Benjamin Sawyer of Salisbury, will preach his fiftieth anniversary sermon, next Sunday, at the Rocky Hill Meeting House in Salisbury. It is expected the different religious societies in town will so arrange their services as to attend. The antiquarian singers are to meet, as of old, in the long galleries of the ancient church, and attune their voices in singing "The good old tunes our fathers loved."

ROMPING.—Never punish a girl for being a romp, but thank Heaven who has given her health to be so. It is better than a distorted spine or hectic cheek. Little girls ought to be great rompes—better than paying the doctors' bills for them. Where is the gymnasium that should be attached to every school? That's coming too, like other improvements.—Life Illustrated.

☞ The manufacture of Paraffine candles has been commenced in New Bedford.—Paraffine is an article, in appearance like spermaceti,—which is obtained from coal in the manufacture of Kerosene Oil, and bids fare to become an important article for the purpose to which it has been applied. It gives a brilliant light.

SENTENCE OF JUDGE VONDERSMITH.—Philadelphia, May 5.—Ex-Judge Vondersmith, convicted of forgery, has been sentenced to twenty years imprisonment and a fine of $5000, and ordered to make restitution to the government to the amount of $26,000. Vondersmith is 60 years of age.

☞ Daniel Davis, engineer of the steamer Ocean Spray, has been convicted at St. Louis on an indictment for manslaughter, growing out of the destruction of that vessel by fire, whereby 10 lives were lost. This is the first conviction ever had under the law of Congress providing for the protection of life and property on board of steamboats, and it is hoped will have a salutary effect.

A contemporary calls upon the party to ignore the "humbug of popular sovereignty," and stand on the "Dred Scott Decision" and the "Silliman Letter?" Isn't it about time to urge the Sickles verdict as a plank in the platform? Or would there be danger that, in the Empire City, Keys would be more numerous than Sickles?—Bath Times.

☞ Late advices from the Ground Nut districts on the coast of Africa report a great deficiency in the yield of this crop in Gorhe and Sinegal, and at Gambia it is supposed the crop will not exceed 8,000 tons, or 600,000 bushels, against 14,000 tons, or 1,050,000 bushels, last year.—Prices had advanced.

Enter Bridget with the mistress's favorite poodle wringing wet. "How is this Bridget? How came Fido to get so wet?"—"An' faith, mem, an' it was little Tommy that had the tinny baste lashed to the end of a powl, and was washing the windows wi' him."

At Cincinnati a few days since, a lad stumbled and fell with much violence upon his face. When he arose he complained of a pain in his eyes, and that he could not see clearly, and it was discovered that both his optics were badly crossed, so so that the retina received a double impression of every object.

ANOTHER WILL GONE.—The Will of the late J. Brooks of Athol, in Worcester county, has been set aside by a jury, on the ground that the testator was insane. This decision changed the direction of thirty-five thousand dollars.

☞ At Concord, last week, in the Police Court, Abraham Burgess, who dwells in a house in rear of the South Church, was complained of for selling liquor, and was bound over in the sum of $200.

☞ There are now said to be one hundred Divisions of the Sons of Temperance in the State of Maine, embracing thirty-five hundred members.

☞ The steamers "Lady of the Lake," and "Dover," have commenced their regular trips on Lake Winnepiseogee.

☞ A. J. Wood, of Alstead, N. H., has been arrested for offering forged notes for discount at the Cheshire County Bank, in Keene.

☞ Charles C. Adams, Esq., keeper of the jail in Portland, died in that city on Wednesday, of consumption.

☞ In Boston, says a letter writer, some little astonishment exists among the Baptist churches, in consequence of the announcement by three of the most prominent clergymen of that denomination, that they are in favor of "open communion," and from their pulpits invited all those who professed christianity, of whatever denomination, to stay and partake with them of the holy communion.

COOPER'S NOVELS,
ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,

FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY. The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of an entirely new edition of COOPER'S NOVELS, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.

Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood, all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The spirited and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.

Published by subscription.—Price, $1 per volume, each volume containing a novel complete.—The publication commenced February 1st, 1859, and a volume will be issued on the 1st day of each month. The entire series will be completed in 32 volumes, uniform, embracing all the author's tales and romances, and containing his latest revisions and corrections.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Grover & Baker are always preferred when coming in competition with any other machines.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of our families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair. We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividends in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

ALLEN & PAINE.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Brights Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the grand disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.

POISONOUS INNOGULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and effectual. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RESOLVING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident. We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its superior efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it the opinion of some of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from all other Gins, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER AND AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., which the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to the changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NOTE ORZA is IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., Cornhill; S E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; Dearborn & Co., 51 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st.; Deland & Snow, 34 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. V. Adams and C. C. Bickwell & Son.

Health and Strength secured by the use of THE SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE,

Dr. Langley's Root & Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all of which are so compounded as to act in concert with Nature in eradicating disease. The effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and blood, by removing all obstructions from the intestines, and purifying them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, cleansing it from all humors, and giving it its course anew through every part of the body; restoring the invalid to health and usefulness. They cure and eradicate from the system, Liver Complaint, that main-wheel of so many others; Jaundice in its worst forms, all Bilious diseases and Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, all kinds of Humors, Inflammation, Rheumatism, Piles, Heartburn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid or diseased Liver, Weak Disordered Stomach, or bad Blood, to which all are more or less subject in Spring and Summer.

More than 1,000,000 persons have been cured by this medicine. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it, and you will never regret it.

Only 25 cts. for a pint, and 38 cts. for a large bottle. Sold by Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., BOSTON.

SMITH'S CURATIVE CLEANSING COMPOUND

HAS readily cured or effectually relieved, in numerous cases in Northern parts of New England, the following complaints, viz: Neuralgia, Sore Throat, Croup, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Burns, Scalds, Spider Bites, Sore Breasts, Erysipelas, Frost Bites, Dysentery, Colic, Cramp in the Stomach, or Limbs, Rheumatism, Ague, Toothache, &c. The above complaints may either be relieved or cured in a few minutes.

The Proprietor is well known in this city, and has in numerous cases been entrusted his Compound by actual experiment, thereby securing the confidence of all who have patronized him.

For sale in Portsmouth by Dr. Preston, Dr Hutchings, Dr. Thacher, O. F. Gerrish, J. Harvey & Son, T. S. Gammon, C. E. Laighton, A. A. Paine, Jenkins & Goodrich and.

LOCAL.

☞ As is already pretty generally known, Prof. Williams is to commence a free public Musical Convention at Mercantile Hall in this city, on Tuesday morning. Preparatory and preliminary to this, a free Lecture or talk on Music generally, and this Convention in particular, is to be given at the Temple this (Monday) evening, at half-past 7, to which all interested are invited. Books will be distributed to those wishing to join in singing familiar music; and all who know the attractions of such Conventions, will not willingly be absent. Those who are not acquainted, will be both entertained and instructed by Prof. W.

RUTH BLAY.—The editor of the Boston Traveller says that the Rambles about Portsmouth contain many incidents for the imagination of the novelist to enlarge upon. One of them pointed out, the execution of Ruth Blay, since we published the circumstances in our Rambles, has been wrought up into a well written novel, by Dr. Frank Fuller of this city. If the chapters we have listened to are a specimen of the work, it will make a volume of deeply thrilling interest. It will occupy between three and four hundred pages.—Journal.

THE WRECK ON THE EASTERN RAILROAD, at Parker river, has been cleared away. The engine was raised on Thursday and carried to the repair shop in Boston. It was badly damaged. The tender was brought to town on the same evening in a bad condition.

We are glad to learn that the corporation have appointed a watchman for that bridge, whose duty it is to pass over the track after the passing of each train to see that all is safe. Wooden bridges are very liable to take fire; and not only the bridges but every rod of a railroad, ought to be kept under close inspection.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ The Statesman, Patriot, and Independent Democrat will issue daily papers, during the coming session of the Legislature at Concord.

The fallen potentate Soulouque, is still living in Kingston. He passes his time in playing cards with Vil Lubin, the "Bloodthirsty," as the Haytiens called him. Soulouque had lately been expelled from a merchant's mansion which he had rented, because his daughters, the princesses, were found washing clothes in a tub elevated on a barrel in the drawing-room, thereby greatly disfiguring the walls and carpet, which were magnificent.

☞ It is not a good indication, when, as at present, we are importing into New York five times the value of our exports—a considerable portion of the imports being fancy articles and luxuries; and to make up the balance are sending abroad two or three million dollars a week.

"Pa, I don't like Mr. Grimes," said a curly headed urchin the other day.—"May'nt I go to Mr. Experience—people say that he's the best teacher."

A drone says that when he went to school, experience taught him that many of the school-masters were better tanners than teachers.

☞ The bell swinging in the tower of St. Stephen's Church, East Haddam, is over a thousand years old. It bears the date of A. D. 815, and there is no reason to doubt the correctness of that date.

A NOVEL USE FOR FLOUR.—Several hundred barrels of unsound flour have been purchased in this market within a few days, at a price not exceeding $2.50 per barrel, which are to be used in distilling for the manufacture of whiskey, an article, the importance of which, commercially, few but those directly interested, will understand.—New York Courier.

☞ The following were the last words of Bishop Doane:

I die in the faith of the Son of God, and of the confidence of his One Catholic Church. I have no merits—no man has; but my trust is in the mercy of Jesus."

On Queen Victoria's visit to Lancaster Castle, the debtors confined in that strong hold had a commemorative dinner, at which they feelingly drank the following toast:—"May the tree of liberty be planted in the castle yard, and every one confined within its walls cut his stick from it."

☞ Thirteen thousand sailors have deserted the service of Queen Victoria during the past three years, leaving $150,000 due them.

☞ Hon. Willis Allen, a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of Southern Illinois, and an ex-member of Congress, died in Williamson county on the 15th ult.

☞ Mrs. Anna Pope, of Spencer, Mass., reached her 105th year in December last. She is still lively and vigorous.

☞ Polly Boston, colored, aged 109 years, died in Baltimore, a few days since.

☞ Hon. Charles Hudson, of Lexington, is writing a history of the town of Lexington, and a genealogy of all the families.

☞ Admiral Bruey's widow has bequeathed 1,100,000f. to the hospitals of Paris, and 500,000f. to the poor of Urez.

WASHINGTON, May 6, — Ex-Congressman, Wm. B. Bishop, of Connecticut, was to-day appointed Commissioner of Patents.

Utah affairs still occupy the attention of the government. Judge Cradlebongh has not, as reported, been removed, although the probability is that he will be.

Twenty-six third assistant engineers of the Navy having passed the usual examination, have been warranted. These will supply the deficiency of such officers, which has for nine months existed.

THE OBERLIN RESCUERS.—Cleveland, May 6.—Six of the Oberlin rescuers pleaded guilty this morning, and were sentenced each to a fine of $25 and twenty-four hours imprisonment. Bushnell is not yet sentenced.

A SLAVER.—Savannah, May 6.—The jury in the case of Selvis and Mores, charged with fitting out the bark Angelita for the slave trade, rendered a verdict of not guilty.

☞ The population of Detroit is seventy-five thousand; of St. Louis one hundred and ninety thousand; and of Cincinnati two hundred thousand.

☞ The Republic of Hayti has commissioned two colored gentlemen, Touissant and Merdon, as Ministers to London, where they have been received officially.

☞ The Dahlia is of Chinese origin.—It was first brought from China by Professor Dahl—hence its name.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

P R I C E $ 5 0 !

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

From the N. H. Gazette.

The President's Organ.

"The Constitution," the new organ of the Administration, is constructed out of the ruins of the defunct Washington Union, upon the principle proclaimed many years ago by a distinguished Federal poet, in the following emphatic lines,

"If we cannot change the thing,
By —— we'll change the name, sir!"

This new organ, we observe, goes it strong in the footsteps of its illustrious predecessor. Two-thirds of its political articles are devoted to the most fulsome and disgusting panegyric of the illustrious fossil of Federalism who controls, and if rumor speaks truly, writes its leading editorials.

We learn from our perusal of its brilliant columns, that never since the days of Jefferson have we had so beautiful a Democratic Administration as the present, nor one which will go down to posterity encircled with so bright a halo of glory. Webster's Unabridged is completely exhausted in search of epithets to express the "Constution's" appreciation of the "admirable," "excellent," "honest," "exquisite," "transcendant," &c., Administration of James Buchanan, so "faithful to the party platform," so "true to the Constitution," so "careful of the party interests," so "zealous in vindication of the national honor," and so "considerate in the use of the people's money"—ah, never was its like heard of in the history of this Republic, and we doubt if the toughest of the children born last night, lives long enough to see another such!

We are gratified to learn from the "Constitution," that all the differences which so lately existed in the party are now happily adjusted, that perfect harmony prevails from Maine to California upon all points of party faith, that Kansas will no more obtrude its hateful head, that all is peace and prosperity, present and prospective. Here is what it says in relation to the Territorial nigger question, which, possibly some of us recollect, was once a troublesome subject:

There is no longer any intestine dissension of the least importance in the Democratic party on the slavery question. The principles emblazoned on its banner are, non-intervention, by Congress or by Territorial Legislatures, either to establish or prohibit slavery within the Territories, and the protection of slave property therein, as long as the Territorial condition shall remain, by the judiciary under the Constitution of the United States. "When the people of any such Territory (as the President stated in his Silliman letter of August 15, 1857, to the Connecticut clergymen) proceed to frame a State constitution, then it is their right to decide the important question for themselves, whether they will continue, modify, or abolish slavery." In the mean time, what the constitution has recognized to be property, the constitution can protect as property through the instrumentality of the judiciary. The Dred Scott decision, recognising the right of the people of any State to take their slaves into the Territories of the United States, will stand as a landmark whilst the Union shall endure.

The Democracy is a unit according to the organ, which must of course know, in favor of the protection of slave property in the Territories by the judiciary. How by the judiciary? Suppose the people of a Territory, by their Legislature, pronounce against slavery, and refuse to protect it with local laws, how can the judiciary protect it? To be sure, the judiciary may, and, possibly, might pronounce any direct Territorial legislative enactments against slavery unconstitutional and void, but what can the judiciary do to remedy non-action, as fatal to the institution, according to all Southern authority, as direct and positive prohibition? And what can it do to remedy positive legislative modifications of slavery? Suppose it pronounces them void, what then? Will the people of the Territories mould their political notions to suit the views of a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court? Will they repeal their laws and give a friendly encouragement to an institution which they believe a nuisance and a curse? Not if they are made of the stuff that animated the Democrats to overthrow the Alien and Sedition Laws, the United States Bank and other monstrosities which in their day received the sanction of the Supreme Court. How then, will this decision be made of value to those who wish to force slavery at all hazards into new territory? Any worshipper of James Buchanan, or the cringing, lick-spittle, dough faced treachery, of which his minions are guilty, may have a column of the next Gazette, wherein to explain how niggers can be forced upon a people who desire to be niggerless. And we would like to be informed, how, and by virtue of what provision, the Constitution "carries slavery into the Territories," and whether the Constitution is any more the supreme law of the Territories than of the States. And if the whole intent and meaning of Popular Sovereignty is, as interpreted by Buchanan & Co., "that when the people of a Territory proceed to form a State Constitution, then it is their right to decide the question of slavery for themselves," we would like some one to tell us by what party, and in what age of the Republic that doctrine was ever doubted?

☞ The Allentown (Pa.) Democrat copies our article in relation to James Guthrie, as a probable candidate for nomination at Charleston, and says:

All right, Mr. Gazette. But you have within your own borders, among the unflinching Democracy of the "old Granite State," a gentleman whom the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and we doubt not, of the Union, would delight to honor, by placing in the Presidential chair. In the person of Hon. JOHN S. WELLS, of New Hampshire, the Democracy of the country recognize a pure, patriotic National statesman—one whose high character and shining talents command universal admiration, and whose record is also as clean as that of any public man in the Union. He is withal, in no wise identified with any of those issues which have distracted our councils in times past. When the proper time arrives, we are for JOHN S. WELLS as the nominee of the Charleston Convention.

THE GREAT WONDER
Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the virtues of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. Wood & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name stripped, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan. 19, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $1; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public. These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is, better prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and a dose cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Piles.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of mercury after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious treacles of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter post paid addressed to him.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

GOVERNOR WISE, of Virginia, has lately written a very long letter defining his position on the question of the power of Congress to legislate for slavery in the Territories. It occupies thirty closely printed columns of the Richmond Enquirer. Gov. Wise is most vehemently opposed to the Douglas doctrine of Congressional non-intervention with slavery in the Territories.—He holds that the Territories have no rights except those of a federal character. He says all the institutions which can exist in a Territory are federal institutions, "institutions of the United States, and therefore subject to the control of the federal government. He argues that what Col. Benton called the "stump speech" which was injected into the Kansas-Nebraska bill, that the people of a Territory should "be left perfectly free to form and regulate their domestic institutions in their own way," means exactly the opposite—that they should not be left free to do anything of the sort. He repudiates both squatter and popular sovereignty in the Territories, and advocates not only the right but the duty of Congress to legislate for the protection of domestic slavery in all the Territories.

This of course cuts him loose from the support of Douglas, and Douglas from him. During the anti-Lecompton struggle, it was supposed that he took sides with the Illinois Senator against the administration.—The supposition was correct. He explains his course on that question in his thirty-column letter. He was opposed to the Lecompton Constitution on the ground that it had been fraudulently made, and upon no other.

It is clear that the South in a body intend to repudiate the Douglas doctrines contained in the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and reaffirmed by the Cincinnati Convention.—The South now advocates Congressional intervention, and disavows the law of the squatters. Gov. Wise is a candidate for the Charleston nomination; perhaps this letter will advance his claims.

ORNAMENTS AND TRINKETS.—After a Siamese woman marries, she gives up the wearing of ornaments and trinkets. These are set aside and reserved for her children in their turn. "We believe, in very many cases, the contrary rule obtains among us. Here, it frequently happens that girls are no sooner married than they begin to display an unusual amount of jewelry and frilleries. We are inclined to think that the Siamese women have the better way.—Trinkets are naturally the playthings of children."

The following extract from Dicken's Household Words, conveys a moral which the other sex might profit by:

The occupations of the women are various and far less circumscribed than in any other parts of the East. In fact, the women in Siam occupy a moral position many degrees superior to that of their sisters in neighboring countries. The wife of a Siamese has no unimportant voice in the democratic arrangements of the family.—She is cash keeper, and seems to possess the right to claim all her husband's earnings.

A CATHOLIC BISHOP ON EDUCATION. The Roman Catholic archbishop of Cincinnati, Rev. Dr. Purcell, in a recent Pastoral letter, represents the common school system of this country as a failure and makes a demand for Catholic schools.

This, undoubtedly, is the view entertained by nine-tenths of the Catholic clergy in the United States, and it is made a pretext for the building up of Catholic schools, where the children of Catholic parents may not only pursue the same studies now taught in our common schools, but have the discipline of the church. This has already been done in several of the districts in New York city. In Brooklyn, N. Y., a catholic school is supported by the wealthy members of the church, and the church catechism is made as much of an exercise in the school as reading or writing. The Catholic believe that the religious tenets of the church should be made a part of school instruction, and no system of education, however free from the taint of (to them) heretical influences it may be, will satisfy them but a catholic system. A system they will establish just as soon as the influence of wealth and numbers will warrant.—Villager.

Democratic papers tell an anecdote connected with Senator Seward's attention to the ministers of the Oneida Methodist Conference, which is good, if not true. During the sitting of the Conference an elder noticed the devout attention of the Senator, and he asked the latter to what church he belonged. "Well" said Seward, after a moment's thought, "I will tell you; eclesiastically I am an Episcopalian, but politically I am a Methodist."

If "all the world's a stage," many a chap of our acquaintance would like mightily to be the stage-driver.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation continues to maintain an unrivaled and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving and restoring many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M.Beck.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1859.

☞ The Mobile Register contains the reply of ex-Minister Forsyth to the recent editorial in the Constitution, which assigned certain reasons why he was not sent back as our Minister. He says the records of the department show unequivocally false that he was the first foreign Minister to recognize the Zuloaga government, and that just the reverse of this is true. He was the last, and it was after this that the Juarez government was formed at Queretaro. He adds that it is the reverse of truth that he was obnoxious to the Liberal party, and it was to his notorious sympathy for it that he was indebted for the hostility and hatred of the Zuloaga government, resulting at last in forcing him to break off his relations with it. He severely criticises the course of the administration towards him.

☞ Hon. J. Clemens, formerly a democratic Senator from Alabama, now editor of the Memphis Enquirer, an American paper, having been a delegate to the Southern Convention which is shortly to assemble at Vicksburg, takes occasion to state that while fully appreciating the compliment, he has too vivid a recollection of the last one, which was held in Montgomery, to feel any disposition to take part in the deliberations of this migratory body.—"Called originally for the professed purpose of promoting the growth and prosperity of the South, it was almost immediately converted into a political machine, and then into an instrument of disunion."

☞ We learn from the Littleton (Grafton County) Journal, that petitions are in circulation in several of the towns in that vicinity, for the signatures of people desirous of a change in the laws of the State regarding the term of residence in New Hampshire preceding the exercise of the right of suffrage. These petitions, it seems by the Journal, will ask that the six months will be increased to a year and the 3 months to six.

☞ We have news four days later from Europe, by the Anglo-Saxon at Quebec.—There is no declaration of war yet. Austria hangs fire. The nations are in commotion and warlike preparations still continue on all sides. An alliance between Russia and France has been formed. There is a decline in consols and cotton, and breadstuffs and provisions tend upward.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—New Orleans, May 7.—The steamship Coatzacoalcos brings San Francisco dates of the 20th ult.

The steamer Sonora left San Francisco on that day with $1,700,000 in treasure, and 300 passengers, for Panama.

The mining news was favorable.

Business was improving at San Francisco.

The bill forming the six lower counties of California into a new territory, called Colorado, had passed the State Senate, and had been sent to the Governor for approval.

The steamer Brother Jonathan had brought Victoria dates of the 9th, and $100,000 in gold dust.

The news from the Frazer River mines is encouraging. The lower country was nearly deserted, and laborers not to be had at any price.

Major Vaughan, agent of the Blackfeet Indians, arrived from Fort Benton, head waters of the Missouri river, and reports universal peace among the Indians. Mayor V. is on his way to Washington.

FOR LIFE.—In the Norfolk County Court of Common Pleas, at Dedham, Judge Aiken has sentenced a young man named Albert Brown to one day solitary confinement, and the residue of his natural life in the State Prison. Brown, who lived in West Roxbury, was convicted of burning the church of the First Baptist Society in that town, on the night of Sept. 5th, 1856. He was also convicted of setting fire to Engine House No. 1, on the 28th of December last. Henry Phillips, for setting fire to a building in East Foxboro', was also sentenced to the State Prison for life.

FROM UTAH.—A despatch from Washington says advices just received from Utah, indicate a better state of feeling in that territory, and the probabilities are that all the difficulties will soon terminate. Instructions to Gov. Cumming and Gen. Johnston will be dispatched by a special messenger.

ARREST FOR ROBBERY.—N. Maroney, recently the agent of Adams Express Company, at Montgomery, Ala., was arrested on Saturday night in New York, by U. S. Marshal, at the suit of the Express Co., brought by their counsel, C. A. Seward, Esq., and held to bail by Judge Nelson in the sum of $80,000. He is charged with having robbed the Company of $50,000, and is said to have been on his way to Europe.

REPORTS FROM THE WEST.—The New York Herald says—a recent traveller who has just come over the roads from Iowa to that city, reports that the crops never looked so well, and that farmers will very shortly decide to send forward the grain which they have been holding for higher prices. He estimates the amount of grain thus held back as much larger than is anticipated, and looks for better receipts on all the roads during May.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Liverpool Post of the 18th ult., says that efforts are making to have this monster steamship ready for sea the last of July or beginning of August. Several hundred workmen are engaged upon her, and the progress is rapid.

American & Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials herewith prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber; in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,
FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY.
The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of a new and entirely new edition of COOPER'S NOVELS, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.
Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood, all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The spirited and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.
Published by subscription.—Price $1.50 per volume, each volume containing a novel complete.—The publication commenced February 1st, 1859, and a volume will be issued on the 1st day of each month. The entire series will be completed in 32 volumes, uniform, embracing all the author's tales and romances, and containing his latest revisions and corrections.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
SEWING MACHINES.
The Grover & Baker are always preferred, when coming in competition with any other machines.
PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.
PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

ONLY A FEW WORDS
Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my
GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,
consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.
F. GREGORY.
N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.
POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find R. R. R. to be a Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect, improper diet, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

This court commenced a session in this city on Monday, Judge Clifford presiding; Judge Harvey, associate.

John Bird and Francis Murphy, minors, were found guilty of robbing the post office at Rollinsford, and remanded to jail for sentence.

These are boys of eleven or twelve years, of Irish parentage; their counsel plead for them the fact that they were drunk at the time, being wantonly made so by other parties. Judge Clifford's address to them was made with the feeling of a parent, and the scene was one which should have been witnessed by every person who favors such a nuisance as makes criminals of mere children.

These boys are proper subjects for the Reform School, and in this case, the United States must pay the bills.

The boys had no idea of the magnitude of the crime they were committing; and thought no more of stealing a letter from the post office than of stealing an egg from a barn.

The case of Parker v. Winnipiseogee Lake Company, a suit in equity concerning the rights of the complainant to certain water privileges on Lake Winnipiseogee, was argued on Monday by Benj. R. Carter of Portsmouth for the complainant, and W. H. Y. Hackett for the defendants.

☞ There is to be no child's play about the freighting over the Concord and Portsmouth Railroad this year. We understand that 800,000 tons of heavy articles through freight, are ordered to this port for this conveyance.

And while this is a demonstration of the cheaper rates at which freight can be carried over this road, as compared with those from Boston,—it is to be hoped that some wholesale dealers in corn, flour, fish, salt, molasses, &c. here, may see their way clear to sell these things by wholesale, at Boston prices, and so build up a trade of their own.

ALBERT LAIGHTON'S POEMS.—An appreciative daughter of Portsmouth, for whom we sent a copy of Laighton, to a distant city, writes us a charming note of acknowledgement, from which we venture to publish the following extracts:

"It is refreshing to read anything in the way of poetry so natural and unaffected.—In much that comes to us in these days, obscurity seems more particularly the point.

Emerson's 'Wood-notes Wild,' and 'Each and All,' I can appreciate and see great beauty in, because they are true heart utterances—'twas an overflow—he couldn't help writing them, and so they are good.—I find myself touched in the same way by Albert Laighton's 'Flowers,'—what a 'delicious bit' it is—a perfect gem; the 'Necropolis' is another, and 'The Tress of Hair'—what tender pathos,—and I particularly admire the Hymn—'tis so beautiful, and so fearfully true; indeed, it is no use trying to cull—the book is charming—admirably healthy and pure in tone, are all the Poems. 'In the Woods' is such a rich warble—how musically it flows along—this change from the minor to the major is so excellent.

'Ill Nature mourns, I said; November wild
Has torn the fairest pages from her book.
But suddenly a wild bird overhead
Poured forth a strain so strangely clear and sweet,
It seemed to bring me back the skies of May,
And wake the sleeping violets at my feet.'

Then, don't you hear the music—an exquisite song?"

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The bill of mortality in this city, for April, was small. Total number of deaths, 8.

Males 2—aged 51 years, and 69.

Females 6—aged 10 years, 22, 28, 35, 63, and 63.

☞ Joseph B. Marston, aged about 15 years, oldest son of the late Rev. James H. Marston, formerly of this city, came to his death in rather a singular manner on Friday last, on Exeter River. While swiftly sculling a boat, in which were also two other persons, he suddenly fell overboard; and though an excellent swimmer, and apparently unhurt, he made no effort to save himself, but sunk immediately—and when his body was recovered, on Saturday, his hands and arms remained in the same position as when holding the oar in propelling the boat. He had been subject to spells of great dizziness; and when his body was raised, large quantities of blood, ran from his nose—from which it is inferred that his violent exertion in sculling ruptured a blood vessel in his head, killing him almost instantly, or rendering him entirely helpless, so that he was drowned without a struggle. His funeral took place Sunday afternoon.

☞ The Boston papers mention a complimentary memorial given to Miss Abbie Plumer, by subscription, at Mercantile Hall on Thursday evening last. Miss Plumer's fine voice has been well cultivated, and she now ranks with Boston's best vocalists.

☞ The Musical Convention opens at Mercantile Hall, this (Monday) morning at 10 o'clock—afternoon at 2½, evening at half-past 7. All are invited.

School for Juveniles, at quarter before 8 A. M., and 5 P. M. For adult beginners, at 10—each day. For particulars see bills.

SINGING SCHOOL.

In connection with the above, a class for beginners—Adults—will be formed, to whom will be explained the principles of Music, by a system enabling all to become ready readers and singers. Terms 50 cents, each scholar.

Also, a class similar to the above, for Juveniles. Terms, including a book, (the Song Wreath) 63 cents.

N. H. METHODIST CONFERENCE

SATURDAY, May 7.

The forenoon was occupied with the transaction of the usual Conference business, embracing a variety of subjects.

In the afternoon, funeral services were performed, in memory of Rev. Brs. Eastman and Blake—two members of the Conference who have deceased the past year.—The addresses on the occasion were by Rev. Messrs. E. Adams, J. Sanborn, and J. F. Adams.

In the evening, the Annual Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. G. S. Dearborn.

SUNDAY, May 8.

The ordination services were attended in the Methodist Church by a crowded audience; and the churches in the city were supplied with preachers, agreeable to the list published in the Chronicle on Saturday.

MONDAY, May 9.

In the morning, the list of appointments was read, and the Conference adjourned.—[See list in another column.]

☞ It will be seen that Rev. J. Hall, for the past two years pastor of the State street Methodist Church here, is to remain in the city—being appointed to the charge of the new "Brodhead Methodist Society," which is to worship in Hanover street Chapel.—Mr. Hall has very many friends here, who will wish him and the new enterprise all success.

☞ The Portland Aldermen have appointed a committee to ascertain upon what terms the Portland Band will give out-door concerts semi-weekly, during the months of June, July and August.

That's what the Portsmouth Aldermen, or somebody else, ought to do with reference to our Band.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

FOREIGN PAUPERS.

In an article on the decrease of pauperism in Ireland, and its increase in New York, we find the following statements made by the Boston Atlas.

The excess of per centage of pauperism in New York over that of Ireland, is simply brought about by the transfer of Irish paupers from Ireland to the Empire State.—We have no data at hand for determining the facts, but judging by the facts of pauperism in Massachusetts, we have no doubt that more than half of all the 200,000 paupers of New York will be found to be of Irish nativity, and the major part of these immigrants within the last ten years; of the remaining half, probably one-half are foreigners of other nationalities, leaving a very small share of pauperism that legitimately belongs to the State of New York. It is in this way and by this means alone that the ratio of pauperism in this country is made to appear on the increase, and that of Ireland to be diminishing.

In the State of Massachusetts, as every man who has investigated the subject is aware, nearly the whole cost of our public charities is chargeable to the account of foreign born paupers. Massachusetts has expended within the last ten years ten times as much money to feed, clothe and shelter the paupers of Ireland alone, as she has for all the other departments of public expenditure.

The State alms-houses are regarded by the bulk of the migratory and poor foreigners, as the havens of refuge not only from hunger and cold, but from work. Ask any of the officers of these institutions, and they will corroborate what we state. While these are the facts, it is made plain, that to the foreign influx we are indebted almost wholly for the showing which is made of pauperism in this country. Let it not then be cast as any reproach upon American institutions or American society. The wonder is, rather, that our people bear this burden, illegitimately thrown upon them, so patiently, and it is one of our chiefest glories that the hand of public and private charity is so open and so ready to relieve this want, even though it generally turns out that we get but little beside ingratitude, stubborn ignorance, mischievous clannishness and superstition, in return for the good we bestow. Besides this balance to our credit on account of pauperism against the countries of Europe, there is one equally large on account of the free education we give the children of these immigrants, and still another on account of the cost of crime, the large share of which also accrues on account of this same foreign element of our population.

Yet in the face of all these facts, which no man doubts or denies, we are threatened that, unless we give to these foreigners the full privilege and right to make laws and rulers for us, they will break our banks, destroy our free schools, and vote for human slavery and the continuance of the rule of wrong. Put this and that together, and think about it.

☞ Messrs. J. E. Tilton & Co., 161 Washington St., Boston, send us, fresh from their press, "The Old South Chapel Prayer Meeting: its origin and history; with interesting narratives, and instances of remarkable conversions in answer to prayer." 16 mo. pp. 198, price 50c. This has been prepared by one who has been long familiar with the meeting from personal participation and interest, and whose knowledge of religious men and things in Boston—as well as other admirable qualities, fit him well for the labor. One meeting was—unconsciously to its participants—photographed for these pages, by a verbatim phonographic report, which will give strangers a more vivid idea of the actuality of such a meeting, than they could get in any other way, from type and paper.

We are well aware of the danger—a danger appertaining to such meetings themselves, and to all reports of them—of unconscious exaggeration in narrative, arising partly from imperfect data of knowledge, and partly from fervid emotion, begetting strong utterance. But we are persuaded that this volume will be found unobjectionable in this respect, and that its tendency will be greatly to stimulate the faith, and cheer the progress of believers. It has—aside from all other considerations—definite value in a historical point of view, as shedding light upon one of the prominent religious facts in our community. We hope it will secure the extended sale which it deserves.—Congregationalist.

The Washington Constitution, formerly the Union, will want another change of name. It should be called the "Dred Scott Advocate." In its estimation the superannuated folly of the dread Scott argument—not decision—is the only landmark for the democratic ship to be steered by. The Declaration of Independence needs amending, and we would suggest to crown the Washington monument with an ebony statue of the immotal negro—Dred. Times.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the health of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood [Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from fever and fever sores, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove almost all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving one and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the ignorance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the nature and location of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which the quacks had utterly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are indebted for their cure to his skill and care.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This invaluable medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superiority in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under the guise of genuine or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

VOL. 14. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1859. NO. 85.

A HOME SCENE.

In a costly furnished room of a neat house in East — Street, where a family group, consisting of father, mother, and three children, who were reading from a book in a low tone, but an occasional comment in a loud one, would startle their nervous mother, who, at last starting from her seat, exclaimed with impatience: "I can stand this no longer; I must have the children sent to bed." Ringing the bell, she summoned Jane to take them away, that she "might have a chance to breathe," as she expressed herself.

Mrs. Aston was not what would be called an impatient mother; but at the close of the day, wearied and worn, her work still unfinished, she felt that of the cares of this life she possessed a large share. Her husband sat with his newspaper reading; but the nervous manner of his wife arrested his attention, and he thought of the time when her brow was as serene as the summer sky, and her step buoyant and light. "It is plain," he soliloquized, "that Mary needs more company, more exercise in the open air, to restore her wonted calmness. I will give up my paper this evening and take her out." He said aloud, "I see there is a concert given at Niblo's to-night, Mary, suppose we attend. It will do you good."

Mary glanced at the work piled on the table, which at that particular moment, seemed to rise mountain high, and sighed as she replied,

"I would enjoy the music very much, but I am so much in arrears with my sewing, that I cannot afford the time. I must devote every moment to work, for the children must have new clothes. I find it difficult to get a seamstress in the house; besides, it is harder to give directions and make one understand what my wishes are, than to perform those duties myself."

A shade of disappointment passed over Mr. Aston's face, and his eyes followed the direction in which his wife's were fixed. To his dismay he saw the pile of unfinished garments she had spoken of. He hitched about uneasily in his chair, and finally resumed his paper, and came to the conclusion that sewing was a troublesome thing. How to get rid of it he could not tell. After attempting to read intently for some minutes, haunted all the while, however, by the work on the table at his elbow, the bright colors and cheerful patterns of which seemed changed into so many mischievous elves, who were trying to destroy his happiness and render him uncomfortable, a change at last passed over his countenance, as his eye rested on an advertisement, and he exclaimed half aloud.—"I have it now." He read:

"THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE COMPANY, having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their Celebrated Family Machines, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale a New Style Machine, price $50—Hemmers $5 extra.

And in a louder tone, so as to attract attention, he continued to read:

"It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing."

"But," interposed Mrs. A., "I don't think they will do my sewing well enough. I am very particular, as you know."

Mr. A. read further,

"They hem, fell, gather, and stitch in the most superior manner."

And then inquired, "What more can you have, Mary?"

"But," answered Mrs. A., "I am afraid I have not mechanical skill enough to manage a machine. It would be a failure in my hands."

"Well, listen again," said Mr. A., "to what I will read:"

"And are the only Machines in the market that are so well and simply made, that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each Machine, and from which a child of ten years may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order."

Mrs. A. paused awhile, and then inquired, "I wonder how fast they will sew? I feel that I am getting interested."

Mr. A. read,

"They make upwards of fifteen hundred stitches a minute."

"But it is so much money to give just for sewing," said Mrs. A.

"Not at all, Mary. I am told they last a life time," reading again,

"And will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of one cent an hour."

Mr. A. resumed his reading:

"Is there a husband, father or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand-sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?"

Throwing aside the paper, he started to his feet, and said, "I cannot withstand that appeal! I must go and see these Machines! I must have one! Mary, you shall have your evenings, aye, and your afternoons, too, for relaxation and mental culture. I must have been asleep not to have seen through all this before!"

DEATH FROM CAMPHENE.—Mrs. John Totten, of Coney Island Plank Road, Flatbush, was burned to death on Friday says the New York Evening Post, from incautiously throwing camphene on the fire—Her sufferings must have been intense, as none of the neighbors knew anything of the accident until all her clothes were consumed except her gaiters. The first person that approached her was her husband's brother, and in taking hold of her to carry her out of the room, the flesh came off her arms. The accident occurred at ten o'clock, A. M., and she died that night at nine o'clock. She was 22 years old and leaves one child. She was highly valued in the neigborhood, for her amiable qualities and kindness to the poor. She was sensible up to her death.

About the only person we ever heard of, that wasn't spoiled by being lionized, was a Jew named Daniel.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 1859.

AMERICAN AMENDMENT.—In the State of Massachusetts, on Monday, the vote was taken on the question of the two years' delay, after being naturalized, before the new made citizen is allowed to vote. The amendment is adopted. The Boston Post says the vote leaves no doubt whatever as to the result—for a majority of nearly seven thousand is presented as in favor of restricting the right of suffrage to the alien born citizen, adding two years after naturalization to the term now prescribed to all emigrants—whether Germans, Irish, Swedes, French, Italians, or Chinese. This is a Republican vote, and it has been obtained in the face of the strenuous exertions to the contrary, of Carl Schurtz and his 'German friends of the Northwest.'"

There was a majority of over 1000 for it in Boston. The amendment reads thus:

No person of foreign birth shall be entitled to vote, or shall be eligible to office unless he shall have resided within the jurisdiction of the United States for two years subsequent to his naturalization, and shall be otherwise qualified according to the Constitution and Laws of this Commonwealth; provided, that this amendment shall not affect the rights which any citizen of foreign birth possessed at the time of the adoption thereof; and provided, further, that it shall not affect the rights of any child of a citizen of the United States born during the temporary absence of the parent therefrom.

So the amendment does not disfranchise any person now a voter—but only keeps off new ones for the brief period of two years.

EUROPE remains unsettled—as we learn by steamer Adelaide, from Galway 30th ult., three days later than those by the Anglo-Saxon. She brings Liverpool dates by mail of the 29th, and telegraph of the 30th ult. It is rumored that the Austrians, 120,000 strong, had crossed the Ticino. No conflicts had taken place. The French troops were passing into Piedmont. Reports concerning the alliance between France and Russia were contradictory. The Times publishes the provisions of the compact, causing a great panic, and the London News and Paris Constitutionnel deny the statements. French troops were landing at Genoa. The King of Sardinia has joined his army at Alexandria. The Grand Duke of Tuscany fled, and the army declared a military dictatorship and in favor of Piedmont. The English press talks threateningly to France and Russia in regard to their alliance, and regards it as a menace to England. Warlike preparations were going on in England, and great activity prevailed.

Ship "Pama," supposed to be the Pomona, from New York for Liverpool, was wrecked off Wexford on the 17th. The crew and three passengers were saved. She had 400 passengers on board. The total loss of life is as yet unknown.

London, Saturday noon.—Consols 89.—The Austrian manifesto has been issued, and is tantamount to a declaration of war.

Paris, Saturday.—The Austrians have crossed the Ticino and commenced hostilities. This is official.

THE DEMOCRATIC UNION.—The correspondent of the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer, writing from Washington, says that "Senator Green, of Missouri, has suggested a compromise between the disagreeing factions of the Democracy, which meets the approval of President Buchanan and Secretary Cass, and which, it is expected, will unite the party. Mr. Green proposes to drop all opposition upon intervention and non-intervention, as non-essential, and proposes also the withdrawal of all opposition to the admission of Kansas, whether as a free or slave State, in the next Congress.—These bases of accommodation are accepted by the Administration, and the breach between the factions of the Democracy is regarded as healed."

☞ A great effort is making to render Cuba a cotton producing island. Planters in almost every section of the island have been led to devote attention to the cultivation of cotton, by the promises of aid—should it be required—of foreign (English) capital; and the Government has decreed that the Joint Stock Cotton-growing Company shall be allowed to import the gins and other machinery requisite for preparing cotton for market, free of duty.

☞ A letter from Gibsonville, Cal., dated March 14th, conveys the intelligence that the snow at that place is ten feet on a level. In several towns in the interior, the inhabitants go from house to house through passage-ways cut underneath the snow, fifteen feet below the surface.

☞ Horace Vernet, the French painter, is going to be married at 67 years of age.

POPULAR GEOLOGY.

The publishers, Messrs. Gould & Lincoln, of Boston, have sent us a copy of a valuable and interesting book, viz., Hugh Miller's Popular Geology, his very last work, left unfinished by him, and completed by his widow, Mrs. Lydia Miller, who writes a very neat and pleasant dedication, and a valuable appendix.

The preface to the American edition is by another hand, and gives a clear view of the book, which, as the last volume from the pen of Hugh Miller, is a legacy wholly unlooked for by the American public. It is true that it was known to many of his admirers on this side of the Atlantic that he had been laboring for years on a work designed to be the magnum opus of his life—"The Geology of Scotland." But his untimely death, it was supposed, had cut short his labors, and left the work in a state so fragmentary that his literary executors would not venture to publish it. The impression was a correct one, as related to the design of the author, in its magnitude and completeness.

But the present volume supplies, to general readers, what the proposed work would have done for the scientific world. It gives the geological history of Scotland—and, with Scotland, of the world—in language intelligible to all, and with an affluence of anecdote, and incident, and literary allusion, in which Hugh Miller was without an equal among the scientific writers of our century.

It gives precisely what a multitude of readers in this country have been longing to find—a rational account of the manner in which all the strata of the earth's crust have been formed, from the foundation of unstratified granite and gneiss to the alluvial deposits of its surface. Scotland is literally taken to pieces, like a house of many stories; and one looks on the processes of the Divine Architect, as he would on the work of a human builder.

The hypotheses (for they can only be regarded as such) are original, and curious, and plausible. Some readers may doubt their accuracy, but none will question the eminent ability with which they are developed. The volume will add to the reputation of the author, and the popularity of his writings; and will aid many, who have a slight acquaintance with geological science, to form habits of practical observation in their country rambles.

The American publishers have give the title of "Descriptive Sketches" to sundry papers which Mrs. Miller has selected from unpublished manuscripts of her husband, and to which, with characteristic modesty, she gave the simple name of "Appendix." They regarded these papers as an important part of the volume, and demanding from their intrinsic merits, a distinctive title.

NEW PAMPHLETS.—Thatcher & Hutchinson, of New York, have sent us Chapin's new Sermon on Shameful Life. It is full of terrible facts, awful truths, and touching appeals.

Some friend has sent us the Annual Report of City Schools at Portland, Me.

And we have received and read a political pamphlet from Dr. Senborn, entitled, "A few words relating to the present aspect of Republicanism in New Hampshire: being a letter to the Republican State Committee of that State. By Charles H. Sanborn."

HEAVY SUIT AGAINST COM. VANDERBILT.—A suit has been commenced in the Supreme Court of New York to recover two million dollars from Com. Vanderbilt, on the ground that he never accounted for large sums of money received by him as President of the Nicaragua Transit Company, and particularly of the $40,000 per month received from the Pacific Mail Company so long as no line should be run between San Francisco and New York by the Transit Company.

☞ A solemn and impressive event occurred recently in the Baptist church, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. After the sermon John Hilton arose and addressed the congregation, closing with the admonition, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh," when he sat down, and instantly fell from his seat—a corpse!

☞ On Saturday afternoon the freight train from Boston for Worcester ran off the track between Grantville and Needham, in consequence of the heat of the sun having warped the rails so that the wheels went inside of them. No person was hurt, though considerable damage was done to the train.

☞ The English papers record the death of the Right Rev. Dr. Bethell, Lord Bishop of Bangor, the oldest prelate on the Episcopal bench. The vacant see is worth £4500 per annum, with a patronage of eighty-one livings, the aggregate annual of which is £23,000, with other gifts.

COOPER'S NOVELS,

ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,
FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY.

The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of an entirely new edition of Cooper's NOVELS, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.

Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood, all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The spirited and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.

Published by subscription.—Price $1.50 per volume, each volume containing a novel complete.—The publication commenced February 1st, 1859, and a volume will be issued on the 1st day of each month. The entire series will be completed in 32 volumes, uniform, embracing all the author's tales and romances, and containing his latest revisions and corrections.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition among the natives so easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant was recently obtained from Skenan-do-ah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It is neatly put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours, which may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.

☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases; none other is worthy of confidence. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.

Circulars and references with pamphlet on diseases of women and private maladies generally.—Sent free on receipt of stamp—addressed to Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston, Mass.

POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find that R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill treatment, or innoculated through indigestion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most excruciating pains for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

THE SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE,
Dr. Langley's Root & Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all of which are compounded as to act in concert, and assist Nature in eradicating disease. The effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and BLOOD, by removing all obstructions from the internal organs, stimulating them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, cleansing it from all humors, and causing it to course anew through every part of the body; restoring the invalid to health and usefulness. They cure and eradicate from the system, Liver Complaint, that main-wheel of so many diseases; Jaundice in its worst forms, all Bilious diseases and Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, all kinds of Humors, Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Piles, Heartburn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid or diseased Liver, a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood, to which all are more or less subject in Spring and Summer.

More than 1,000,000 persons have been cured by this medicine. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it, and you will never regret it.

Only 25 cts. for a pint, and 38 cts. for a large bottle. Sold by Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston.

LOCAL.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

TUESDAY, May 10.

John Bird and Francis Murphy, minors, for breaking open a post office and stealing letters, were fined $1 each, and sentenced to be imprisoned 6 months in the common jail.

Mr. W. H. Y. Hackett, counsel for the Winnipiseogee Lake Co., argued for the defense, against the suit of Parker for certain water privileges.

CORRECTION.—The suit in chancery, John A. Parker vs. Winnipiseogee Lake Co., was argued on Monday by B. R. Curtis of Boston (late Judge) for the complainant, and by W. H. Y. Hackett of this city for the defendants.

☞ The late warm weather has caused a great change in the trees and grass. A week ago green spots of grass were almost non est; trees wore a sombre aspect, and spring seemed either to have forgotten her mission, or was unable to perform it, when summer stepped in and lent her a helping hand,bringing out the blossoms on the cherry and peach trees in great profusion, and beautiful green leaves on all other kinds of trees, making nature smile in her beauty. Even poor unthankful man, who thinks this a most dreary world, was disposed to stop grumbling and thank Heaven for summer; but soon the weather became too hot, everything was drying up, streets were too dusty, drought in prospect, heat oppressive, &c.; but at last down came a refreshing shower which settled all our troubles, together with the dust. It remains to be seen what the next grievance will be. *

☞ The Musical meeting at the Temple, Monday evening, was largely attended, considering the storm, and was very successful. After remarks on music, and preliminary to the Convention, Prof. Williams distributed music books among the audience, and a grand congregational sing ensued.

On Tuesday morning Mr. W. commenced juvenile and adult classes, at Mercantile Hall; and in the afternoon and evening, the Convention assembled at the same place. A large chorus was present, and matters progressed finely. Besides the best of our home musicians, there is valuable vocal and instrumental aid from neighboring towns. The concerts for Thursday and Friday evenings, will be among the best of the kind we have had for years.

The order of exercises for to-day is:

Class for juveniles, at quarter before 8 A. M., and 5 P. M. For adult beginners at 10 A. M. Terms for juveniles, 63 cts. including book—for adults, 50 cts.

The Convention meets this afternoon at half-past 2,—evening, at half-past 7. All are invited.

☞ It will be seen that Maurice Parker's celebrated Concert Troupe are to give an Ethiopian entertainment at the Temple this (Wednesday) evening. Tickets only 15 cents—at which price, they ought to have a house full to pay them for their concert, if the performances are as good as represented. The more music, the better, say we.

THE SAGAMORE HOUSE.—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of the Sagamore House. It is upon one of the most beautiful locations on the coast; indeed, we can imagine nothing more lovely than the varied scenery in view from this place. The House itself is large, well arranged, and in good order, and is at just the most desirable distance from Portsmouth. In the hands of a man who understands his business, it cannot fail to be liberally patronized at all seasons of the year, and during the summer season would be crowded with guests. We hope the right man will soon come forward and re-open this favorite resort. The terms upon which it may be purchased or rented are so moderate, that the investment must be a paying one.

THE LEGISLATURE begins its session on the first day of June. A legislature like ours, with its multifarious duties and formalities, its reception and examination of reports of state institutions, Banks, Insurance Companies, Schools &c., must necessarily occupy about so much time. The session will necessarily occupy three weeks. The House has now become so numerous a body that each day of the session costs about $700. A long speech cost from $200 to $300.

☞ James Clapp, a young man not over 20 years of age, is now in Dedham jail as an incendiary, being caught in the act of setting fire to a block of houses in which he was a private watchman, in the city of Roxbury. Two other young men, George Bowdlear and James B. Moore, are under arrest for being concerned with him, in these and other fires. They are likely candidates for the state prison.

☞ It has been decided at Washington that the Water Witch and Fulton are the only vessels that can be sent to the Gulf of Mexico, at present, and they are unfit for immediate service. They are to be overhauled and repaired previous to their departure.

The Departments have finally made up their insructions for the governmen of Utah. Gen. Johnston is hereafter to act only as a posse comitatus to assist the Governor in the enforcement of the laws.

☞ They propose to try a triangular fight in the city election of Providence.—The American Republicans, Straight Republicans and Democrats have all entered the lists with their candidates.

INDIA.—Nena Sahib is encamped at Gerruckpore, at the foot of the hills, with 3000 troops at the outside. It is reported that he has now no power, but goes about from place to place disguised, and is known to very few of the rebels. He now fears treachery.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—The New City Councils were organized this morning. All the offices were filled by members elected by the People's party.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Three first-class trotting horses—Kate Miller, Lady Shean and George Washington—were burned to death on Saturday, in the conflagration of a stable at the Union Course, Long Island. Four thousand dollars was recently refused for George Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The Navy Department has received dispatches to-day from Com. Lavalette, commanding the steam frigate Wabash, dated Spezzie, April 16. The Macedonian had arrived from Alexandria.

The Wabash was in efficient order, and the officers and crew in good health, as were also those of the Macedonian.

The four persons who had committed an outrage on an American family at Jaffa had been sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for life. The fifth was still at large, but every effort was being made to bring him to justice.

☞ The St. Joseph Journal pronounces the whole of the St. Louis Republican's story, about the Pike's Peak fillibusters threatening Sonora and Chihuahua as a humbug and a trumped up affair.

☞ A fire commenced in Lynn Woods on Sunday last, and since then it has burnt over a thousand acres, and destroyed numberless cords of cut wood.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed,Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

HON. EDWARD BATES'S VIEWS.—The St. Louis Democrat maintains that the peculiar expressions in the letter of Hon. Edward Bates, in regard to slavery agitation, were in a measure responsive to the resolution of the Whig General Committee transmitted to him. The Democrat proceeds to say:

"His protest against slavery agitation and agitators must be read in the light of his antecedents. In 1835, as even the Missouri Republican will acknowledge, he was an emancipationist. We know that he has not recanted that faith. He was opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the border-ruffian Policy of the Pierce Administration. He is opposed to the Douglas territorial theory, which has been reduced to a hideous farce by the Utah trial. He dissents from the Dred Scott decision, and still maintains the constitutionality of Congressional free soil enactments for the Territories. He was opposed to the Lecompton Constitution, the English bill, and all other schemes of the slavery propaganda. He is opposed to the extension of slavery both within and without the boundaries of the Republic; and even if he had not said so, we should deduce from this the corrollary that he is opposed to fillibusterism, and the annexation of slave soil, or of free soil, because it may be easily transformed into slave soil. To sum up, he has recently declared that he looked hopefully to the day when Missouri would be without a slave."

The Democrat adds that though Mr. Bates has shrunk from public life, "he has not hesitated to perform the public duties of a leading private citizen, and events which will probably transpire in his own State this summer, will test his opinions and statesmanship."

FROM THE MINES.

A letter in the Traveller, from Atchison, Kansas, April 27, gives the following items of news.

The latest arrivals from the Kansas mines are of an unfavorable character. Several young men who have spent the winter there have returned. Their statements are to the effect that gold is found, but not in such quantities as to pay for working without machinery and means of separating it.—With pick and pan, men have not averaged more than $2 a day.

You have seen the report that leading fillibusters are on the way to the mountains, with the intention of inducing the adventurers who are flocking there to go down to Sonora and take possession of it and the neighboring Mexican states. There is no doubt of such a movement being in progress. Several young men who have been active in the troubles on the pro-slavery side, have left for the mountains, there to join an expedition intended for Sonora.—A number of others will leave in a few weeks with the same object in view. I hope to be able to learn some details of the movement, and I will forward them at an early date. There are free State men enough to leaven this dough.

Emigration still continues brisk, and the unfavorable news has not abated, as yet, the rush to the West.

THE GRAVE YARD PETITION.—The Boston Traveller gives a full statement of the political troubles in Salem. It appears,—that is, if the story is true—that the petition was one of 1853, for the appointment of Dr. George B. Loring to be Collector of Salem, which was not granted, but in consideration of the petition he was appointed Postmaster. Recently Mr. George W. Mullet was removed from the Salem Custom House, and by him the statement is made to the government that the six hundred names of the Dr. Loring petition of 1853 were mostly forged—that the names were written by Dr. Loring, Wm. B. Pike and himself, and some of them were names of men long dead.

"It is evident that the names were forged by somebody, but Messrs. Loring and Pike charge that it was done by Mullet. All the parties are men of the highest respectability, and this announcement will astonish the people. What will follow from the investigation is not yet evident; but some of the papers suppose that an entire overthrow in the Custom House will be the result. It is very difficult (says the Newburyport Herald) to believe that either of the men named could have been guilty of the fraud."

So it is; but yet they were forged by somebody, as the Herald suggests. Mullet says he and two others wrote them—but Loring and Pike charge it on him alone.—The community will hardly believe, though, that such applicants for office were ignorant of such a wholesale forgery, which was perpetrated for their benefit.

☞ M. de Tocqueville, whose death was announced two weeks ago, was not then dead. He was only very sick, and so far recovered afterward as to give hope of a permanent or at least a partial recovery.—He soon got worse again, however, and died on the 16th of last month.

LOTTERIES.

THE LOTTERIES OF

WOOD, EDDY, & CO.,

Are chartered by the States of Delaware and Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The Managers respectfully call the attention to the fact, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Delaware or to Georgia, as the Lotteries of

are authorized by the Legislature of either State.

A Lottery will be drawn every day at Wilmington, Delaware, and also at Augusta, Ga.—All orders received being filled at the drawing next to take place after same comes to hand.

Whole tickets are $10; halves, $5; and Quarters, $2.50.

No ticket sent unless the money accompanies the order. Prizes vary from $20 to $30,000.

Every prize is drawn, and the result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

Write your address plainly, and direct to

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

Wilmington, Delaware,

Or to WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

Augusta, Georgia.

☞ All letters to our address will be promptly acknowledged—and prizes cashed without delay.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Those who prefer not sending money by mail, can use the "ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY," whereby money for Tickets, in sums of Ten Dollars, and upwards, can be sent us from any city or town where they have an office. The money and order must be enclosed in a "GOVERNMENT POST OFFICE STAMPED ENVELOPE," or the Express Company cannot receive them.

AT OUR RISK AND EXPENSE,

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove one dose often removes all morbid or foreign matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, relieves costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of the epidemic.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all fevers and Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. m31 ly

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT

FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SAGAMORE HOUSE,

ON FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

At the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by 1½ miles by water, from Portsmouth. The House commands a view of Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, the Navy Yard, Forts Constitution and McClary, Portsmouth Harbor and the Isles of Shoals. The House is nearly new, and commodious, and has been occupied as a Summer Hotel. The out-buildings consist of a barn, corn house and bowling alley, all in good repair. The grounds contain Six Acres, bordering Little Harbor and the sea, and are well stocked with Fruit Trees. The facilities for sailing, fishing and bathing are unequalled, rendering it a desirable place for a private residence, a private boarding house, or a public house.

FOR SALE.

The balance of the Sagamore Farm, adjoining the above, containing

FORTY-THREE ACRES OF LAND,

of excellent quality, suitably divided into mowing, tillage, and pasturage, with a fine lot of Fruit Trees on the same, and will be sold as a whole or in lots, as purchasers may desire,—all on liberal terms.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insiduous inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year he has sent more than twelve hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three hundred of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutining friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be led from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The genuine medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REMEDY VIVIFYING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 d1y

Indian Physician.

Dr. B. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public general ly, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN: Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey; Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters! Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and happiness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to the rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1859.

LETTER FROM CONCORD.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

CONCORD, May 11, 1859.

Messrs. Editors:—During the unusually warm weather of last week, the first week in May, the Merrimack River rose daily, until on Sunday, Monday and yesterday, it was overflowingly full, and all from the melting of snow in the woods and upon the north sides of the hills and mountains in Grafton, Belknap and Coos counties; and a better time to float lumber in that river was never before experienced.

Full 100 energetic men have been following 10,000,000 of lumber in one floating mass down the Merrimack, and the last five days were spent in passing through this city, the distance by the river being about nine miles. They camp out and cook for themselves, look healthy and sober, and take excellent care of their teams. One of their number, a valuable man from North Bangor, Maine, was accidentally drowned at Bristol the other day. It astonishes people here to see the river full of logs, floating freely for six or eight days in succession, besides thousands upon thousands that came a week or more ahead of the general mass; and they have floated already more than 100 miles, and they must float 60 more to reach Lowell.

The country is looking finely, and the farmers are very busy, preparing the ground and sowing and planting for a hopeful harvest, some four or five months hence. In this county the culture of fruits of various kinds is receiving much attention. The farmers, here and hereabouts, are doing much to improve the condition and the appearance of the country, and but very few of the farmers in this county are encumbered with debts secured by mortgages. The farmers generally pay cash for what they buy, asking no credit, and having, of course, few lawyers' and sheriffs' bills to pay.

In no other part of New England, until lately, has the sale of intoxicating liquors been better suppressed than in this county, and not a little of the prosperity of the dwellers in the rural districts, is justly attributable to this fact. At present, we grieve to say, intemperance is rapidly on the increase, and sad are many homes becoming, because it is on the increase. The appearances around the farm houses, in the villages, everywhere, will soon begin to indicate the presence of the dreadful scourge which, in other days, made such sad havoc wherever it existed, and that was, forty years ago, almost everywhere. Office-seeking has become so general, and so regardless of the public good, that the worst enemies of temperance are ambitious demagogues, who abuse every temperance man, and oppose every temperance movement, in order to make themselves popular with intemperate men, and the manufacturers of intemperate men. These dark days to that good cause are not long to continue in this part of the State, as the friends of temperance are about to move in earnest again.—We hope the darkest hours are in the past, not in the future.

We are glad to see the good feeling so generally expressed in favor of a branch railroad from Bowe's Corner to Martin's Ferry; or from Candia to Manchester; thus opening a communication direct between the only seaport of New Hampshire and the Manchester of the New World. A bill for that purpose passed the popular branch of the Legislature, last year, and was defeated in the Senate by the exertions of one who had then and has now an axe to grind; but at the coming session that bill will pass both branches of the Legislature, and that without identifying its passage with coupling together permanently two antagonistic and competing roads. The Concord and Portsmouth road should be entirely disconnected with all other roads, as it is emphatically an independent road. It should not be let on hire, or allowed to play a second part to any other road. The business over that road may easily be doubled to what it has been; and most of the heavy articles needed in the central parts of this State should be secured in Portsmouth, such as lime, molasses, fish, salt, sugar, &c. &c. I ever wondered, when I saw our friends in Portsmouth siding in building roads to lessen apparently the distance between that city and Portland and Boston, when all their energies should have been given to securing easy access to the trade of the interior of our own State. A road direct to Dover, so as to reach the Lake country by the shortest route possible, is greatly needed to-day; and some day, not far distant, will be constructed, I hope and trust.

It seems the people of Massachusetts, on Monday last, adopted an amendment to their constitution, requiring two years' residence after naturalization papers have been obtained, before the right to vote shall be acquired by persons of foreign birth. It would have appeared to me more just, had it been one year, the same term required for a residence in the State by American freemen born in other States.

Our Legislature, which will convene in this city three weeks from to-day, I hear it said, will pass a law requiring one year's residence within the State, and six months within the city or town, before voters from other States can vote in this State; and similar terms will be required of persons holding naturalization papers. This will be well enough, as it will, to a great extent, break up the practice of "squatter voting" in so many of our towns. The important business of the session, however, will be the remodeling of the State Courts, and retrenching the public expenses in every desirable manner possible, and in reforming certain abuses, too well known in this State to need mentioning here. Lobby members are to be marked and exposed, whether they act as "retained counsel," or as wire-pullers about the hotels and boarding houses.

Corporation legislation must, to a very great extent, rest for a year or two at least, and railroad managers must learn that the people have suffered enough by bad legislation secured through corrupt means.

We need but a very short session, and but very little legislation. Let us hope we shall have both.

☞ Washington dispatches of May 10 say, in addition to the instructions sent to Utah to Gen. Johnston not to order out the troops as a posse comitatus unless by order of Gov. Cummings, explanations with regard to the President's former proclamation were transmitted, the purport of which is represented to be that the amnesty extends only to political offences.

As Judge Cradlebough's efforts were to punish certain Mormons on other and different charges, the prominent if not the only blame attached to him is in calling on Gen. Johnston for troops, and in this the latter does not stand excused. There has not yet, however, been any definite action on the Judge's conduct.

The Secretary of War has of late been in delicate health, and he designs, to-morrow, to leave Washington on a brief visit to Virginia.

The de Molay encampment of Knights Templars of Boston, on their way to Richmond, will stop at the National Hotel of Washington, where preparations have been made for their reception.

☞ Joshua R. Giddings has written a letter in reference to the Oberlin slave rescuers, in which he says their only error consisted in sparing the lives of the slave catchers. "Had the prisoners executed the slave catchers promptly, it would have taught the administration a lesson not soon to be forgotten. We should have been no more troubled with that class of miscreants." In case the Supreme Court of Ohio should not nullify the fugitive slave law, by the release of the prisoners, he advises the people to fall back on their reserved rights and do it themselves.

☞ Attorney General Black has written to Marshal Johnson at Cleveland, directing him, in case the State court of Ohio issues a writ of habeas corpus in favor of any of the Oberlin rescuers, "to resist it at all hazards and by every means in his power."

GETTING READY FOR ANOTHER SMASH. The Treasury receipts for the last quarter are $4,000,000 in excess of the expenditures. As this surplus revenue is derived from duties on importations, we may reasonable infer that in a short time we shall be ready for another panic—Albany Statesman.

This is our view of the matter. Another view is, that the importations and the "excess of expenditure" are evidences of a "great revival of prosperity,"—when the fact is, it is—to a great extent—evidence only of an immense foreign indebtedness.—New York Express.

A LIBERAL BEQUEST.—The Boston Traveller says, "the late C. F. Hovey, Esq., by his will, made the anti-slavery cause, women's rights, and non-resistance his residuary legatees, through the agency of William Lloyd Garrison, Wendell Phillips, Francis Jackson, and others. The amount to be expended for the good of these various causes, is something like $30,000.

☞ A merchant of Berdiansk has recently sold about 15,000,000 pounds of iron and cast iron, made out of the projectiles found on the battle-fields of the Crimea. The peasants of the estates of the Princess Scherbatoff have recently taken a temperance pledge, and in many other rural districts and towns in Russia a temperance movement has commenced.

COOPER'S NOVELS,

ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,

FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY.

The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of a complete new edition of COOPER'S NOVELS, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.

Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood, all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The spirited and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.

Published by subscription.—Price $1.50 per volume, each volume containing a novel complete.—The publication commenced February 1st, 1859, and a volume will be issued on the 1st day of each month. The entire series will be completed in 32 volumes, uniform, embracing all the author's tales and romances, and containing his latest revisions and corrections.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition among the natives so easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant was recently obtained from Sieam-ko-ah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It is neatly put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.

☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases; none other is worthy of confidence. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.

Circulars and references with pamphlet on diseases of women and private maladies generally—Sent free on receipt of stamp—addressed to Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston, Mass.

ONLY A FEW WORDS

N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in this case perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at the Gallery, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtoutitorumenos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—

In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded so far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.

POISONOUS INOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become inoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, which may have been generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or inoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysm in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of two medical gentlemen, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLD, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing complaints which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is genuine.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Health and Strength secured by the use of

THE SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE,

Dr. Langley's Root & Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all of which are so compounded as to act in concert, and assist Nature in eradicating disease. The effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and blood, by removing all obstructions from the internal organs, stimulating them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, cleansing it from all humors, and causing it to course anew through every part of the body; restoring the invalid to health and usefulness. They cure and eradicate from the system, Liver Complaint, that main-spring of so many diseases; Jaundice in its worst forms, all Bilious diseases and Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, all kinds of Humors, Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Piles, Heartburn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid or diseased Liver, a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood, to which all are more or less subject in Spring and Summer.

More than 1,000,000 persons have been cured by this medicine. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it, and you will never regret it.

Only 25 cts. for a pint, and 38 cts. for a large bottle. Sold by Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

☞ The Musical Convention now in session here, is the most successful gathering of the kind ever held in this city. The Concert to-night will consist of choruses, glees, duets, songs, &c., by a hundred singers, with fine orchestral and piano accompaniment. It will be a grand entertainment. In no way can so much be done, so easily, to encourage music among us, as by patronizing these concerts, and thus aiding to support the Convention—which is really a singing school of the best kind.

The order of exercises for Thursday is:

Class for beginners, at Mercantile Hall, at quarter before 8 A. M., and at the Temple at 5 P. M.

The Convention meets at the Mercantile Hall at 10; at the Temple at 2 o'clock.—Glee Concert at half-past 7.

☞ The Circuit Court of the United States is still in session in this city.

On Tuesday, the appeal of Geo. B. Coffin and eight others from the decree of the District Court, upon a libel of the John Shaw and cargo, for salvage, was argued by W. H. Y. Hackett for the libellants, and Webster for the claimants.

On Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday, the suit in chancery, Ferdinand N. Clark against William H. Y. Hackett, the assignee of Clark's case in bankruptcy to recover the fund held by the District Court, was argued by Fernald and Tuttle of Boston, for complainant, and by Emery, Woodbury and Hackett for defendant.

The motion to dismiss, and the plea in abatement in the suit of John M. Wood vs. Eastern R. R., was argued by Mr. Wells for the pliff. and Mr. Hackett for deft.

On Wednesday afternoon was commenced the suit of Tirrell of Methuen vs. Dr. Timothy Haynes of Concord, for malpractice in setting an arm of the pliff. B. F. Butler and C. W. Stanley for pliff.; Christie and H. A. Bellows for deft.

Messrs. Bell and Eastman of Farmington, and Sawyer of Rollinsford, were admitted as attorneys to practice in this court.

Christopher W. Stanley of Manchester was duly appointed by the Court a U. S. Commissioner for the district of New Hampshire.

The next case in order for argument of questions of law arising upon the pleadings, is John M. Wood vs. Eastern Railroad. This action was brought to recover of the stockholders of said corporation, under the individual liability law, a judgment for the sum of $25,000, recovered against the Great Falls and South Berwick Branch Railroad. Wells & Wilcox for plaintiff, W. H. Y. Hackett for defendant.

The first case in order for trial by jury is an action brought by George W. Tirrell against Timothy Haynes, M. D., for malpractice. B. F. Butler of Lowell for plaintiff; Christie, Wells and H. A. Bellows for defendant.

His honor Judge Clifford announced to the Bar that he should be unable to remain here beyond Monday next, as his duty requires him to commence a term of the U. S. Circuit Court in Boston on the day following. Consequently this court must adjourn without day on or before Monday, May 16th.

FROM EUROPE.—The Persia, at New York, has Liverpool dates to April 30.

The London Post of the 29th says there was still hope for peace, as the English offer of mediation was under serious consideration, and if the Austrians refrained from advancing, a pacific settlement might still be made.

The Italian news does not look like peace.

The great mass of the army, 75,000 strong, was condensed around the fortresses of Alessandria and Casale, with a second line at the foot of the Appenines, between Novo and Tortona.

The Turin correspondence of the Times does not think the Austrians will reach the capital. The country has been laid under water by means of the canals of irrigation, and means had been taken to render the roads temporarily impracticable.

The English Channel Squadron, which had gone to the Mediterranean, was to be immediately recalled.

On the 27th four new ships-of-the-line were placed in commission.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune announces the marriage in that city of Mr. Boardman, nephew of King Glass, of the Gaboon country, and Miss Evans, of Baltimore. She is 24 years of age, of light complexion.

☞ The last of the Cunningham-Burdell cases transpired in the N. Y. Supreme Court on Friday. The lady failed to prosecute her appeal for the Doctor's property, and it was accordingly dismissed.

☞ The Florence correspondent of the Providence Journal, under date of April 16, communicates the following intelligence respecting Charles Sumner:

"Mr. Sumner is still in Italy, and is now either at Naples or Rome. He lingered in Florence nearly three weeks, devoting himself principally, in hours not given to necessary repose, to visiting the galleries, museums, libraries and gardens, soothing himself with the gentle influences of nature and art. Mr. Sumner still leads a very quiet life, keeping mostly by himself, refusing almost all invitations; and most of those who would be glad to do him honor have had good sense enough to overcome their zeal and allow him to fully recover his health.—For an end so much to be desired there is now abundant reason to hope, as his fine physique already begins to give signs of having recovered much of its original vigor."

ANNIVERSARY MEETINGS.—New York, May 10.—The American Anti-Slavery Society, and the American and Foreign Christian Union, both had their anniversaries to-day. Both were well attended. At the former speeches were made by Messrs. Garrison and Pillsbury, and by Dr. Furniss of Philadelphia. The Treasurer reports the receipts of the year at a little over $11,000, and the expenditures at nearly $14,000.

At the latter meeting, Dr. Dewitt presided, and Rev. Dr. Carlyle spoke. The Treasurer reported the receipts of the year at upwards of $73,000.

The Baptists held a special Convention to consider the propriety of lessening the number of Benevolent organizations in that denomination, with a view of their greater efficiency. Ex-Gov. Briggs of Massachusetts, presided, and Ex-Gov. Colby of New Hampshire, was one of the Vice Presideuts.

☞ The North Adams tragedy is undergoing a strict investigation at the hands of a coroner's jury, of which Dr. H. H. Childs, formerly Lieut. Governor, is foreman. It is hinted that the mother of the unfortunate girl, and also the family physician, are implicated. If this is so, it accounts for the wish of the friends of the party not to stir the unfortunate matter.

The Detroit Advertiser says that the underground railroad in that vincinity was never before doing so flourishing a business, ninety-four slaves having been recently landed in Canada. One company comprised do less than seventy fugitives from the interior of Tennesee.

☞ Letters from Quito report the number of deaths by the earthquake at ten.—They were at first estimated at 3000. A liberal reduction, that.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their
Celebrated Family Machines,
with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.
PRICE $50:
Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

A HOME SCENE.

Continued.

On a fine spring morning, a few days thereafter, a lady and gentleman were to be seen leaving a house in East — Street, whose purpose might have been discovered if one had accompanied them a short way. But there was no mystery about it; they were going to select the best sewing machine that could be found, with a view to purchase, and after calling at the different depots for the sale of these articles, and making examination of the sewing and mechanism of all the various kinds on sale, they decided that the GROVER & BAKER Machine was the one which would best suit their purpose. They found it simple, its use easily learned, and required no keeping in order—that it would always be ready for work—that it made a very beautiful and durable seam, that would not rip, if the thread broke—that (unlike all other machines) it required no re-winding of thread; but sewed from the two spools, as obtained in the stores—that it was adapted to all kinds of thread and material, by a mere change of spools, and sewed an elastic seam, that would permit it to stretch in washing and ironing, without breaking the thread. Mrs. Aston was especially delighted, that while the machine would sew a seam that was as durable as the fabric, in wear, could easily be removed by unticing three stitches of that part of the seam that had last been sewed. She was also gratified to find that she would not be obliged to have recourse to the hand-needle in finishing the garments—that the machine itself did it.

It was purchased, and Mrs. Ashton sat down to receive instructions for the use thereof. An hour sufficed to accomplish this; and with a gratified smile she returned home in time to welcome her little assistant, which was to do so much for her relief. The elder children were silent with curiosity; baby was so much amused by the gentle murmuring sound, that he fell into a sweet slumber. The mother glanced triumphantly at the pile of work on the table, which had been cut out and prepared for the next month's sewing; she seated herself and took the first garment, which was a dress for Miss Mary, the eldest daughter, the seams of which were finished in the next twenty minutes. Then a jacket for Master Fred was finished—all but the button holes. Then baby's turn came next, and the skirt of a little dress was tucked and ornamented in a style that Mrs. Ashton would have thought impossible if she had been obliged to do it by hand. Then a summer cloak was embroidered for the little fellow, and when the tea bell rang and Mr. Aston rose to go to the dining room, a more smiling, gratified face he had not seen his wife wear for a long time. At the table the only subject of conversation worthy of attention was the new machine.

Mr. A., after tea, jocosely remarked, "I think I will make a good operator, Mary;" and seating imself at the machine, said, "See me; I take hold of the lower part of the wheel with my right hand, and pull it in a downward direction. What now! it does not run in the same manner in which I started it."

"Well," replied Mrs. Aston, "you do not keep up a regular motion with your foot on the treadle. While interested in watching the needle, the motion of your foot is arrested and the wheel runs the contrary way before you are aware. To avoid this, keep as good time as if you were playing a melodeon: press first on the heel, then on the forepart of the foot, without raising the toes."

"Very true," responded Mr. A., "the motion, as well as the needle, requires some thought at first. I did not think of that.—Now I have gained that point, and placed my work under the needle, it does not feed through."

Mrs. A. came to the rescue, and said "Perhaps you have passed the work in so as to be caught by the feed, which can be avoided, if care be taken in putting the work under. The real cause now is, that you have forgotten to lower the little metal foot, which keeps the work in place. Raise it by means of this little handle above it, to put the work in, and lower it by the same means, before you commence sewing."

"Now, Mary, you will see I am not as apt a scholar as yourself."

"Mrs. A. replied with a quiet smile, "You are doing very well; but now the thread is broken!"

"What is the matter?" exclaimed Mr. A.

"Perhaps your tension is too tight. You can remedy that by turning to the left the thumb-screw on the post which holds the upper spindle in place—taking care to loosen the thread a very little. If loosened too much, a jagged or fringed seam on the under side will be the result. If the under thread breaks, the cause will be the same. Loosen it by turning the brass thumb-screw at the under spindle post, from you."

"Well, Mary, you have told me all this, but the thread breaks in spite of tension." Mr. Aston looked as if about to discontinue his lesson, but his wife playfully insisted that he must be proficient, as she expected to hire him to operate.

"The cause of the broken thread now," said she, "is that you have pushed the needle to one side, and in its descent, it crowds the thread against the sharp edge of the plate, and cuts it off."

"Ah! I see," said Mr. A. "I suppose I must spring the needle to make it go in the centre of the hole; which can easily be done with the fingers. Well, if I am to be employed by you, I must know the manner in which you set the vertical needle."

"Take it between the thumb and finger of the left hand, the eye being directly in front of you; the outside of the curve of the needle to the left. Now pass it into the little groove in the lower part of the needle arm, till it comes to a level with the top of the needle-screw; fasten it in by means of the screw-driver, and then test the accuracy of its position by opening the plate through which the needle passes; then see if the loop which the thread throws out in its descent, is situated so that the point of the circular needle passes into the centre of the loop before mentioned. Care should be taken to have the needle just right, as occasionally a long stitch will be the result, if the circular needle does not pass into the centre of the loop."

"Now, I understand all that. I can sew nicely, but if I want to change the thread? I have been sewing with cotton; suppose I want to sew with silk, or any other sized thread, how shall I proceed?"

"Take the spindle out of the post; unscrew the nut which holds the spool in place; take the cotton spool off; place the other spool on, so that the thread runs off from the upper side, and fasten it with the nut tight on the spindle. The spindle must turn—not the spool. The under thread need not be changed, as the under or binding thread is never seen on the upper side, and, in the whole office is to tie the upper thread after it has passed through; but if silk is preferred, change in the same way as the upper, taking care to reverse the manner in which the thread comes off the spool; pass it through the opening in the spindle-stand; thread it through the little brass spring, then into the circular needle."

"Now, Mary, you will have to show me how to thread the circular needle; I must be an adept."

"This little instrument conveys the under thread through the upper loop in a very ingenious manner. It is to be threaded in two places, called the heel and point, a groove lies between these two places, in which the thread must lie in passing from one to the other. Now see me: First thread the heel, then turn the wheel so as to bring the point in front; pass the thread from the outside to the inside of the eye in the point; pick it up and guide it into the groove, before drawing it tight. A large pin or needle will best accomplish this.—Now let me show you how to thread the upper or vertical needle: Pass the thread through the slit in this little post. In order to get at it, you will have to press the coil spring down with the finger; thread it into the needle from front to back; cause it to lie in the jaw just above the needle; draw it through the eye of the needle till there is an end about three inches long. After you have sewed four or five stitches, pass this end under the left side of the foot, where it will be carried out of the way.—The end of the under thread need only be brought to the upper side of the plate, and there left. You will soon learn."

"How can I take the work out of the machine, Mary?"

"Slacken the upper thread; cut it off; raise the metal foot; then lift the work carefully, so as to bring the under thread up a little way; then cut it off, so as to leave the circular needle threaded. With care, this needle need not be unthreaded till the spool is used up."

"But," said Mrs. A., "you have sewed this seam on the wrong side; a mistake which will sometimes occur with the most experienced seamstresses. I will show you how to take it out: Begin from the end where you left off sewing; pick up three stitches on the upper side; this will leave a thread on the under side; take both these threads up, and pull them at the same time, in opposite directions. The seam will ravel as easy as one could wish, but if I do not wish to rip it all the way, I can stop just here. Cut the threads off, and the work will be as strong as ever. While this peculiarity does not affect the strength of the seam, every seamstress can at once realize the benefit of this convenience."

"Ah! yes, I see it is a seam that will rip if necessary; but will not rip when not desired. How convenient that is; it must be one of the chief merits of the machine."

"But as you are going to be an operator, you must learn to take care of the machine. Now you are going to leave it, we will wipe out all the oil; then to-morrow morning before using it, it will have to be oiled afresh with the best sperm or pure metallic oil, wherever two parts of the machine come together, so as to create friction. The 'nipper-spring,' which takes up slack thread, should be oiled twice or three times during the day. The foot and screws of the bar which hold the needle-arm, need only be oiled once a week; also the running gear, wheel, treadle, etc., need to be oiled once a week; one drop of oil applied with a small camels' hair brush to the different parts is sufficient."

"Thank you, Mary. I am glad you prove so patient a teacher. I must confess I was incredulous that you had so good a knowledge of the machine, and felt anxious to see how far you could help me out of any difficulty I could get into. I am more than convinced, and think with a large majority of people, that the GROVER and BAKER is the best made, and most easily managed machine for family use, that can be purchased. I feel that I have made a capital investment for saving time and labor, and gained with the Sewing Machine, an assortment of sweet smiles, pleased and contented looks; and many pleasant evenings we will have on account of the freedom which the Sewing Machine will give you, Mary."

And there the machine stood, an implement wholly domestic in its character; but its influence extended itself into the drawing-room, on the promenade, at the church, or other public places, and in the elegant and stylish wardrobe of the family. Mrs. Aston no longer thought that she could not spare time for accomplishments. Her music was looked over, and some of the delightful songs of old were practiced and sung in her former excellent style; and in the merry pastimes of the winter evenings, Mr. Aston's thoughts reverted back to the time when there was "no time to spare," and he felt that the Sewing Machine had done more than he had expected from it; and Mrs. A.'s assertion, two years after, proved that they were not mistaken, "for," said she, "if I could not purchase another, a fortune could not buy my Sewing Machine."

LOTTERIES.

THE LOTTERIES OF

WOOD, EDDY, & CO.,

Are chartered by the States of Delaware and Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend the drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact, that all persons have a right to send orders for tickets to Delaware or to Georgia, as the Lotteries of

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

are authorized by the Legislature of either State.

A Lottery will be drawn every day at Wilmington, Delaware, and also at Augusta, Ga.—All orders received by us filled in the drawing next to take place after same comes to hand.

Whole tickets are $10; halves, $5; and Quarters, $2.50.

No ticket sent unless the money accompanies the order. Prizes vary from $20 to $50,000.

Every prize is drawn, and the result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A circular showing the plan of receiving it. All communications strictly confidential. Write your address plainly, and direct to

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,
Wilmington, Delaware.
Or to WOOD, EDDY & CO.,
Augusta, Georgia.

☞ All letters to our address will be promptly acknowledged—and prizes cashed without delay.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Those who prefer not sending money by mail, can use the "ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY," whereby money for Tickets, in sums of Ten Dollars, and upwards, can be sent us

AT OUR RISK AND EXPENSE,

from any city or town where they have an office. The money and order must be enclosed in a "GOVERNMENT POST OFFICE STAMPED ENVELOPE," or the Express Company cannot receive them.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has now for the future for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to promote the benefit of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to try your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

BROOKFIELD, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, WM. DYER.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

HEAD'S, 14½ Market Street.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public. These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives a keen appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the peculiar description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are incurred upon his books as incurable.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Such medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

How it Would have Worked.—The diary of Washington just published informs us that, when he made his grand tour through the Northern States in 1780, he took with him "his slave Billy, his faithful attendant through the revolutionary war."

It is very fortunate that General Washington did not make his grand tour seventy years later, and that he did not take Michigan in his route, or he would have found himself incarcerated in the State prison for ten years because he had introduced his "slave Billy" into the State. Nor is this all. If similar laws had prevailed in the Northern States during the revolutionary war, he would have been marched off to the penetentiary for having with him "his faithful attendant." General Washington, according to the Black Republican code, was a criminal to be punished by ten years' incarceration.—Det. Free Press, Mar. 14th.

☞ The extraordinary affair of Gen. Van. Gunkel, who administered a poisoned sausage to his mistress Ebra, killing her maid servant and her brother, who ate the dainty, is now before the tribunal of the Hague and will in due time find its way to the London papers. The veteran culprit is 84, and commanded at Waterloo the combined Belgian and Dutch artillery.

☞ Madame Bosio, just deceased at St. Petersburg, the most accomplished vocalist in Europe, who never sang more easily than when she was singing the most difficult passages, not only knew nothing of music as a science, but could not even read from notes. She sang a duet with Lablache, at the coronation of the Emperor, at Moscow, about two years ago.

A Monster.—We are informed that Mr. Stearns found in his Eating Saloon, Exchange street, last week, a rat which weighed thirteen pounds. We did not believe the story when it was first told us, and called on Mr. S., who ratified it. He says it was a monster "wharf rat," which weighed by the steel-yards the number of pounds stated above. He said he was about two feet long. He should have preserved his skin, and presented it to the Natural History Society, for such a rat must be a lusus naturæ. What a luscious feast the Chinese would have concocted of that Rat.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ In the Municipal Court at Portland, May 11, the liquors seized on the premises of Thomas Deehan and of Samuel McCrackin were declared forfeited to the city, no one appearing to claim the same.

Martin Corbitt, violation of the hawker and pedler law. Ordered to recognize in the sum of $50 to appear at July term S. J. Court. Refusing, committed.

From the Ballot.

Freighting over the Concord Railroad.—The Concord and Portsmouth Railroad is now doing a lively business in freighting to Manchester. An embankment has been raised alongside the track so that coal can be tipped from the carts upon the cars, thereby greatly lessening the labor of loading them. We understand that six cargoes of coal, lime and cotton are on their way to this port, to be transported over this road. "It is an ill wind that blows nobody good," and we hope that the accident that has turned the freighting business this way will have the farther effect to revive a wholesale trade in our midst.

The Gazette on the Constitution.—Our neighbor of the Gazette appears to be no more forcibly impressed with Mr. Buchanan's editorial than with his administrative ability. Of the President's new organ, the Constitution, on which it is said the old gentleman the white neckcloth is himself the principal performer, the Gazette says—

"We learn from our perusal of its brilliant columns, that never since the days of Jefferson have we had so beautiful a Democratic Administration as the present, nor one which will go down to posterity encircled with so bright a halo of glory. Webster's Unabridged is completely exhausted in search of epithets to express the Constitution's appreciation of the "admirable," "excellent," "honest," "exquisite," "transcendant," &c., Administration of James Buchanan, so "faithful to the party platform," so "true to the Constitution," so "careful of the party interests," so "zealous in vindication of the national honor," and so "considerate in the use of the people's money" —ah, never was its like heard of in the history of this Repnblic, and we doubt if the toughest of the children born last night, lives long enough to see another such!"

☞ The "Manchester Republican" is the title of a new weekly published by B. F. Stanton & Co. It is a good looking sheet, and of a larger size than can be printed with much profit at one dollar a year.

☞ Rev. Mr. Patterson will deliver the next lecture of the course before the Young Men's Christian Association on Sunday evening next, at the Universalist Church.

Indian Physician.
Dr. B. S. GOODWIN
Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.
ADVICE FREE.
Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.
The following are some of the Diseases successfully treated by Dr. Goodwin. Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.
No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters! Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1859.

☞ The American Tract Society commenced its anniversary on Wednesday, and had a very exciting session. The report of the Secretary shows the receipts for the receipts for the year to be upwards of $383,-000, and its expenses about $380,000.—Chief Justice Williams of Connecticut presided. A resolution was offered by Dr. Patton, authorizing the publication and circulation of tracts against the re-opening of the African slave trade, which was laid on the table. Mr. Walcott of Ct. tried the same experiment, but met with no better treatment or success. The officers for the ensuing year elect, are nearly the same as those of last year. Mr. Jay offered a resolution providing for the publication of tracts on the moral evils of slavery, which was also tabled. On motion of Dr. Spring it was resolved that, while the Society regret the resolution against the slave trade, it is not from any hesitation with relation to the slave trade itself. There was a sharp debate on both sides, and the Society finally proceeded with the regular business. It is thought there will be still further trouble in regard to this matter.

WOMAN WHIPPING.—In this enlightened age of the world it is reserved for Austria to attain the bad pre-eminence of continuing the revolting practice of whipping women.—Lowell Courier.

We beg pardon, says the Atlas, the Courier must have forgotten the notorious fact that whipping women is a regular and legalized practice in fifteen States of this Union. An Irish servant girl in our family, who visited Delaware in March of this year, states that she saw a slave woman most brutally whipped by her master, because his breakfast cakes were scorched in cooking. The woman was tied up and flogged till the blood ran in streams from her body. In telling of it our large-hearted servant girl said, "Ah, and sure I couldn't stay in a place where such things can be done."—What is the propriety of our talking about Austrian cruelty while our own laws sanction the most brutal and disgusting of all women whippings? These thoughts bring to our memory the scorching lines of the poet Whittier:

"Go, ask the Czar of Russia's line
To loose his grasp on Poland's throat;
Go, beg the prince of Mahmoud's shrine
To free the struggling Suliote.
Will not the scorching answer come
From turbaned Turk and fiery Russ,
'Go loose your fettered slaves at home,
Then turn and ask the like of us.'"

The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal states that a weather prophet in that vicinity gives it as his opinion that there will be no rain during the month of May. He says the same thing occurred in 1830, and again in 1838. This prophet has been more than one quarter right, at any rate.

So said an item in a paper of Monday evening,—but on Tuesday evening it rained, and on Tuesday night it poured, and the end is not yet.

The weather historians are valuable, but the weather prophets are of no consequence.

NOT ENCOURAGING.—A correspondent of an exchange, who "has been there," does not give a very flattering account of Pike's Peak and its golden attractions. He says: "whoever is at Pike's Peak six months from now, will see thousands of men getting together to sing,

'Come, let us feeble critters pine
To curse the eternal thing.'"

PIKE'S PEAK.—St. Louis, May 10.—Advices from Pike's Peak give very discouraging accounts of matters in that region.—Large numbers of miners were returning without the means of subsistence on the way back, and it is feared that many will die from starvation. Apprehensions are also entertained that they would attack the out-going trains.

☞ The facts in regard to the breaking up of a Methodist Conference in Texas, and the expulsion of Bishop James, have already been made public, but there is one incident in the affair which is not generally known. When the Bishop was cornered by the mob he resorted for aid to the Masonic sign.—Rev. I. Blackford, in a report of the conference to one of our Methodist exchanges, says:—"The Bishop had, in the hour of extremity, given the Masonic sign, the rabble dispersed, and the Conference was permitted to close its session."

☞ Com. Shubrick, having returned from the Paraguay expedition, will resume his duties as a member of the Lighthouse Board. Thus Commodore Kearny will be relieved, and without other appointment.—It is supposed, however, that the latter will be reinstated as Commander of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and that Comodore Breese will be transferred to Washington in a similar capacity, this office being now vacant.

☞ The pigeon trade in Essex County, Mass., counts up at $20,000 per year.

TEMPERANCE KEPT AWAY.

"We have kept the subject of temperance out of our meeting." So said an active and somewhat leading member of a church in the county of M. This member had opposed having lectures on temperance in that meeting house, and would not go to hear them any where.

It was kept away, but it might have been better if temperance had been advocated there, for this same man at times has drank to excess, and several other members of that church have drank intoxicating liquors, in the presence of others, even with tipplers, and thus encouraged them in their course to ruin.

Churches are constituted for reform, and if they do not go in for it, they are but of little worth. If ministers find churches that will not have temperance lectures in their houses of worship, they should occasionally present the consequences of drinking and the Bible argument for temperance, in their Sabbath discourses. Thus some may be saved from drunkenness and wretchedness.

TRAVELER.

☞ Gov. Chase of Ohio, in a recent letter, says it would be desirable to have such a change in the laws as will provide for naturalization after three instead of five years' residence, but witholding the right of suffrage till two years afterwards. He is convinced that a considerable period should intervene between the issuing of the certificate of naturalization and the accruing of right of suffrage under it. This is the principle of the recent amendment in Massachusetts.

☞ On Tuesday night, a fire at Oshosk, Wis., destroyed seventy-five buildings, including nearly all the business places on Main street. Not a grocery or dry goods store is left. The total loss is probably not less than half a million dollars. Very little of the property was insured, as its exposure was so great, that no reliable company would assume risks upon it except at very high rates. Nothing is left of the business part of the town except one clothing store, one grocery, and one hotel.

"O CARRY ME BACK TO OLD VIRGINIA."—We learn that a negro, formerly a slave, but who had been experiencing the blessings of liberty in Canada for some time, passed through this town, last week, back to her Southern home. "Freedom" didn't agree with this negroe's ideas. There was too much work in it.—Keene Republican.

Exactly so. Smart negroes can take care of themselves—lary ones cannot.

☞ The Baptist Conventions at New York, are in favor of consolidating their charitabte societies.

The Convention, on a test vote, voted nearly two to one against laying the whole question on the table, and then voted that a consolidation, in a modified form, was desirable, and proposed a form in which it should be accomplished.

A proposition to place the Foreign Mission operations upon an anti-slavery basis was voted down.

The American Temperance Union celebrated its twenty-third anniversary at the Cooper Institute.

The thirty-third anniversary of the American Home Missionary Society, was held in the Church of the Puritans. An abstract of the annual report, shows that the society was in good condition.

THE SCHOOL GIRL WHIPPING CASE. The case of Ernest Reider the German Catholic Priest, accused of recently whipping a school girl, daughter of Mr. J. S. Francis, in Boston, has been settled between the parties principally interested, thereby preventing a lengthy examination before a judicial tribunal. It is stated that the offending Priest "is to resign his charge in the city, and expresses sorrow for what has occurred."

TRIAL OF LOTTERY VENDERS.—Augusta, May 10.—The Judge, yesterday, in the case of Swan and others, charged with illegally vending lottery tickets, refused the motion of the defendant's counsel, to dismiss the complaint, and ordered the case to be proceeded with. The whole day was consumed in legal discussions on the admissibility of certain evidence.

The jury to-day in the case of the State vs. Swan & Co., found a verdict against the defendants. The case will be carried up to the Supreme Court.

NORFOLK, May 11.—Samuel T. Hartt, naval constructor, of the U. S. Navy Yard, died last night. He was held in high estimation.

We had a heavy storm last night with a North-east wind, which has now changed to North-west.

CLEVELAND, May 11.—Bushnell, one of the Oberlin rescuers, was to-day sentenced to 60 days imprisonment in the common jail and a fine of $600 and costs.

The Kentucky officers have been arrested on a charge of Kidnapping.

When our hatred is violent, we sink beneath the level of those we hate.

"You'll kill yourself, smoking so much, husband." "Indeed, wife, I must use the weed." "Oh, very well, I guess I shall have occasion for weeds myself, pretty soon."—N. Y. Ledger.

The editor of the Portland Advertiser has seen a rat in an eating house in that city, which weighed thirteen pounds. We suspect the "doctor" stood in front of a looking glass when he saw that varmint.—Bath Times.

SPRING MEDICINE.

Every one at this season of the year feels the necessity of some tonic medicine to restore the vital energy of the system, which is always more or less disordered; but all those, instead of resorting to medicine which they know nothing about, should use that which has been manufactured in their own immediate vicinity, and which has never been known to fail in restoring to action the vital functions, and resulting in perfect health. Such a medicine is Preston's Catholicon. m13

COOPER'S NOVELS,
ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,
FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY.
The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of an entirely new edition of COOPER'S NOVELS, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.
Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood, all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The original and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.
Chinese Pistol Crackers, in the largest quantities and at the lowest prices, together with all the other varieties of large and small fire works by the dozen or gross. Gold Medal awarded to this firm by the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanics Association, "For best Fire Works" exhibited on Boston Common.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."
Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure

LIVER COMPLAINT,	INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS,	DIZZINESS,
HEADACHE,	HEARTBURN,
PILES,	FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS,	LOSS OF APPETITE.

All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.
This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 87½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.
Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m12

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st.; Delano & Snow, 34 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

ONLY A FEW WORDS

Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my
GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,
consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.
A. GREGORY.
N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitormenos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the progress of disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.

POISONOUS INOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies, every ready, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that R. RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through infection or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient can be quick and efficient. Take Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

C. & P. RAILROAD.

Messrs. Editors:—I am very glad to be able to hope, with confidence, that one just act to Portsmouth, which will also be a just one to Manchester, and to the Portsmouth and Concord Railroad, is about to be performed. I allude to the providing for a branch from Candia to Manchester, of the above-named railroad, whereby a direct line of communication shall be opened between the two cities, Portsmouth and Manchester. A right to do this was secured in the original charter of that road, but by bad management on the part of managers in another road, this right was extinguished by Legislative action years ago. It was all wrong and wicked in the extreme, and now I rejoice that the wrong is to be made right, although the good deed comes late.

I hear it said, however, that this is to be done only to aid its former destroyers to secure a desired object elsewhere; while others tell us it is to be followed by a taking up of the rails of our present road from Candia to Concord, to give a monopoly of business to an overbearing and intriguing corporation. I trust such will not prove to be the facts in the case; but to avoid all possibility of wrong, let us demand that this one measure shall stand or fall on its own merits, disconnected in every way and manner from any other project whatever. As the old saying has long expressed it, "let every tub stand upon its own bottom."

That there is a deep game being played, in which this branch is emphatically but a branch, shrewd men do really believe, and they say men of talent and influence have been secured to repair to Concord at the commencement of the approaching session of the Legislature, to use their talents and influence to secure the passage of a bill that could not be passed only at great expense to the corporation which does not expect a branch will ever be constructed to meet the wants of Portsmouth, Manchester, and all other points of the country interested in the projected addition to the Portsmouth and Concord road. They go so far as to say all that is promised in this matter from a certain interested quarter, is to throw dust into the eyes of the Representatives of the cities and towns interested in this matter, and to secure their votes, really and solely for a very different matter from the branch in question.

I write this article, and ask its insertion in your paper, to urge care and caution in this whole matter, so that the fears of the shrewd men who scent trouble in the distance may not be realized. In other words, let us demand the passage of the bill favoring the branch, unincumbered with any other matter whatever. Let us be "wise as serpents, while we are as harmless as doves."

A. L. C.

☞ The Concert by the Musical Convention, Thursday evening, at the Temple, passed off finely, though the choir and audience were both lessened by the storm.—The choruses were given with spirit and precision; and the solo singing was such as is rare indeed here. Besides our Portsmouth singers, Miss Durgin of Exeter, and Misses Wyatt and Horn of Dover, sang delightfully.

This (Friday) evening, the Convention (about 100 performers) is to give a grand Concert of sacred music. Tickets 15 cents.—The programme for this evening consists mostly of sacred music, and comprises the "Hallelujah Chorus," "The God of Israel," with other such majestic compositions; and a pleasing variety of songs and lighter pieces. The Convention meets at the Temple for rehearsal, at 10 and 2 o'clock.

☞ One day this week a man, in attempting to push out from the wharf into the river, capsized the boat and fell overboard, and an umbrella, which he had prudently taken, followed after him. He called loudly to some persons on the wharf to "save his umbrella"—he would take care of himself. Self-preservation is the first law of nature, but it seems he had a kind regard for the poor umbrella.

☞ The Tenth Annual Fair of the New Hampshire State Agricultural Society will be held in Dover on the 5th, 6th and 7th of October, 1859. Aaron Young, of Dover, Secretary of the Society, and Samuel Hanson, 2d, General Superintendent of the Fair.

SPECIE GOING TO EUROPE.—The English steamer from New York Wednesday, took out $1,649,000 in specie. This is among the heaviest shipments ever made.

A little girl at Lowell was offered the choice of a new bonnet or a license for her pet dog. She unhesitatingly paid one dollar for her license, and naively remarked that she could wear her old bonnet this year.

☞ The rumors of war in Europe are affecting and disturbing trade in America. The advance in flour in New York since the first of April, ranges from 25c. for common brands to $1.50 for extras. Throughout the West, as we learn by telegraph, the war news has created a great activity in the produce markets, with a considerable advance in prices.

JACOB LITTLE AGAIN FAILED.—New York, May 12.—Stocks were excited and easier at the Board, but since the market is firmer. The failure of Mr. Jacob Little was announced at the Board this morning, and created no little excitement. This failure is said to be the heaviest he ever made, being for millions of dollars. His interests were mostly in Missouri Sixes and State Bonds generally.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Instructions sent to Utah place the militaty there at the disposal of the Governor exclusively for a posse as in Kansas. Former instructions allowing such discretion to the Judges and Marshals, are revoked. Judge Cradlebaugh will not be removed.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash saving—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & FAIRE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

Morning Chronicle.

POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY.

It seems we are to have a new edition of Popular Sovereignty, revised and corrected by Messrs. Douglas of Illinois and Green of Missouri, by which it is said they propose to unite the two discordant wings of the democratic party for the next Presidential election.

We do not pretend to know whether it is really so, but it is said to be on the ground of "non-intervention by Congress in respect to slavery in the Territories.—This doctrine may be acceptable to the slave power, because it does not prevent the most effectual intervention by the executive, and the judiciary which is part of the executive. The doctrine is favorable to Southern pretensions, because while Congress, representing the opinions of a vast majority of the nation, would, if it exercised any jurisdiction on the question, be likely to interfere against slavery in the Territories, the power of the executive may be wielded for its establishment wherever persuasion or force or fraud can carry it."

That is, in plainer English, the programme now is that the Supreme Court shall construe the Federal Constitution into a stringent slave code, and thus save Congress the trouble of enacting one. Popular Sovereignty, then, in the new version, means just this:

1. If the people of a Territory vote to buy and sell negroes and hold them as slaves, Congress will not intervene, nor interfere, the Supreme Court will hold its peace, and the President will say Amen!

2. If the people of another Territory, by a majority ever so large, vote to have no slavery there, they can do so—and that is the great doctrine of Popular Sovereignty.

But there comes along one of those beings whom John Randolph styled "soul drivers," with a coffle of negroes for sale, and some squatters buy and hold these negroes as slaves.

Congress, according to the new platform, will do nothing about the matter; they will not prohibit slavery in the Territories,(side the Nebraska bill and repeal of the Missouri restriction,) and this is the great principle of non-intervention.

The freedom loving majority in the Territory, pass laws to keep out the slaves and the soul drivers—but the Supreme Court is to intervene, or step in just here, and say, the Constitution carries slavery everywhere, and the law for its protection goes with it; therefore your laws against it are null and void! And the President says—"Yea and amen! it is strange how anybody could ever think otherwise—Kansas and Nebraska are as really slave States as the Carolinas"—and he orders the army to protect the property. So the people are sovereign, while they only obey the slave power—but if they use their sovereignty the other way, then the President and the federal court are the sovereigns.

Great is Popular Sovereignty.

☞ In Massachusetts, the two years' amendment has been adopted by the people, by a two-thirds vote. The Atlas remarks, "this two years' amendment embodies a principle which has been favorably regarded for many years by our most intelligent and conservative people—a principle which has now become engrafted into the fundamental law of the State, and there it will remain for ever.

The belief that the naturalization laws had been abused by politicians, that through this abuse the ballot-box—the fountain head of all just power in a Republican government—has become in an alarming degree corrupted, has been strong in the hearts of our people for many years. It is not a thing of late growth, or of weak and porous fibre. It has grown as the oak grows—slowly but firmly. It broke out in this city in 1844, after the defeat of Henry Clay, for the presidency. It was the belief of the Whigs of that day that the distinguished Kentuckian had been cheated of his election by corrupt and fraudulent naturalization of foreigners in the city and State of New York. This feeling found vent in Faneuil Hall, and from the lips of Daniel Webster. He said the naturalization laws must be changed or some means must be adopted by which to prevent a recurrence of this abuse of the elective franchise."

Two large powder mills have recently exploded in England, each causing the loss of several lives. The London Mechanics' Magazine, in alluding to the perils of the workmen engaged in this manufacture, says:—"fear does not, however, appear to exercise much sway over the men who work in those dangerous trades. Eight men were killed, on Wednesday, and more than eighty had applied for their places, ere their mangled remains were consigned to the grave." And yet these men only receive fifty cents for a very long day's work.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now over fifty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FELIX JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DRAN.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public. These Gums remove one dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

from all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Only one bottle needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

Billious Attacks are prevented, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One bottle taken at short time before catching gives vigor to the stomach and makes the food digest well.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One dose often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Billious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose (of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, 335 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by PRESCOTT, BRAGDEN, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. au31 1y

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are manifested by such bodies as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtues in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser writes:

"The Administration has been advised from the best sources that Mr. Douglas has adlast taken a leap into the Opposition camp, and is organizing a band of Democratic guerrilas to war on the Administration. The Democrats generally were disposed towards conciliation with him, but the rumors sent from this city are utterly erroneous.

It is also stated that arrangements are on foot to send Douglas Democratic delegations to Charleston from every non-slaveholding State, and from several of the Southern States. Double delegations from Louisiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois were previously made certain."

Lieut. Gills, U. S. N., formerly of Pittsburg, recently aided in saving the lives of the crew of a schooner which foundered at Montevideo, in full sight of the city. The Lieutenant offered to save them if ten volunteers would join him. Ten of the crew of the storeship Supply instantly backed him. The Montevideo Republica says:—"The Filomena founded at half past 8 A. M. Before 10 o'clock, Lieut. Gills and his gallant companions had taken from the wreck the three sailors who clung to the rigging, among them Domingo Fillsberto, the captain of the schooner. At half-past 11 they all disembarked at the Victoria mole, in the presence of a crowd of over three thousand, who received them with open arms, and transported with joy, gave the gallant sailors a thorough-going triumph. Lieut. Gills, who was dripping with water and much exhausted by his energetic struggle against the furious tempest, was carried off in the arms of his friends, who took care that he should want for no comfort after his heroic act. The rescued sailors, half dead with fatigue and hunger, were carried in the arms of the American sailors to the hospital, where they were carefully treated." The Republica concludes a long account with the exclamation, "Hurrah! an hundred cheers for the North American sailors!"—N. Y. Courier.

American & Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. This, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made ON TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world wide fame, and is fast rising for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent in restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessable to the sick poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" is so many sufferers, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub safe Rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M. Beck.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, MAY 14, 1859.

☞ Speaking of the apparently approaching war in Europe, the Portland Argus says:

There is one aspect of the case which cannot be contemplated without exceeding pain. In all probability, some two or three millions of men, white men, torn from their homes and families by force, are to be compelled to murder and destroy each other. How many families must be shrouded in sorrow by the compelled departure of sons and husbands for battle fields, never more perhaps to return—and all this to gratify the caprices and ambition of tyrants! How many homes will be laid waste, and their unoffending occupants scattered to the four winds of heaven, in the track of hostile armies!

All this groaning is true and good—but the same paper strangely adds, in the same paragraph:

And yet these things call forth scarcely a note of sympathy from those who are almost ready to tear our glorious government asunder, if they could, when a fugitive slave is sent back to his master.

Not a very glorious act of a great government, we think, to send back a poor fugitive who runs away from chattel slavery. Nor do we see exactly the fitness of this latter groan at the supposed lack of sympathy from those who despise tyranny and oppression at home. We have seen few expressions of this kind of sympathy from any quarter as yet. But we are not aware that abolitionists are less sympathetic than other people—and don't quite believe they are. We are inclined to make a little parody of the groans, after this fashion:

In all certainty, two or three millions of men, black men, have been torn from their homes and families by force, to die in the middle passage, to be thrown overboard and drowned, or to drag out a miserable life beyond the sea!

How many families in Virginia and Maryland must now be shrouded in sorrow by the compelled departure of sons and husbands for a hopeless battle in the rice and cotton fields, "never more to return—and all this to" fill the pockets of the soul driver and pay the debts of the F. F. V.

"How many homes are laid waste, and their unoffending occupants scattered to the four winds of heaven in the track of the" slave coffle.

"And yet these things call forth scarcely a note of sympathy from those who are almost ready to" upset their glorious inkstands at the prospect of a war in Europe.

"Ye that have tears, prepare to shed them now."

BUSINESS PROSPECTS.—High expectations, says the Traveller, are entertained of the demand for breadstuffs, provisions and naval stores, as well as for shipping, in consequence of the war in Europe. The war will not, however, at present, be one of a character to require any great quantity of transportation, except what may be done in steamers and sailing vessels, and it is quite possible that it may not become general, but be confined to Italy, and peace may be made in the autumn.

Heavy speculations will be entered into for produce, and should a foreign demand spring up, the grain growers of the West will see better times.

Purchases at the West, at greatly enhanced prices, are announced, and in New York also large transactions have taken place. It is said that large purchases of beef have already been made for France.

The grain markets were much excited, both in London and Liverpool, and the advance in wheat and flour in France is equally decided. The rise in English wheat at London, for the week, is eight shillings the quarter. American flour is 4 shillings the barrel higher, and corn 8d. the 100 lbs., at Liverpool.

Mr. Duncan, of the firm of Duncan, Sherman & Co., bankers, who arrived in the Persia, reports the prevalent opinion in Liverpool that our neutral flag would insure great advantages to the American shipping interest, in the event of the war becoming general among the great European powers. The war clause, under the British flag, had already been adopted at Lloyd's, and the rates for underwriting on long voyages to the Indies and Southwest coast of the Pacific, had been heavily advanced.

The New York Journal of Commerce prints a large number of crop reports, and remarks of the coming harvest: "It is yet too early to form a definite opinion of what is to be from present indications, but the general accounts from all parts of the country, it will be seen, are unusually flattering."

☞ The Charleston (S.C.) Mercury says:

"We have opposed the hypocrisy of buying Cuba at the present time as impracticable nonsense and humbuggery. The South needs Cuba and ought to have her, but never can have her a slave State in this Union." Secondly that the present Southern agitation of the African slave trade "is not only impracticable, but mischievous nonsense, because uselessly dividing and distracting the counsels of the South. It may be highly expedient that the South should have the African slave trade re-opened, but it never can be legally done in this Union."

The position of the Mercury is that of opposition to the purchase of Cuba, because its acquisition without the legalization of the slave trade would not be beneficial to slavery. But it maintains that the slave trade can never be opened in the Union.—It therefore favors a dissolution of the Union in order to accomplish that result.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.—The anniversary of the American Bible Society, at New York, was well attended. The report states that during the year 55 new auxiliaries have been organized; 35 names added to the list of life directors, and 1503 to that of life members. The receipts of the year were $415,000, an increase of upwards of $24,000 over last year. Towards the close of the meeting a donation was announced of $10,000 from George Douglass.

NORTH AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.—At the meeting held in New York, May 11, in behalf of the American Tract Society of Boston, M. O. Lockwood presided. The receipts of the Society for the year were $58,000, and the entire circulation over 57,000,000 pages. Mr. Warren read a statement in relation to the position of the Society on the question of slavery:—The Society believed that Slavery was a sin which ought to be discussed, and had determined to publish tracts relating to it. Addresses were made by Rev. E. N. Kirk, H. W. Beecher and others.

☞ In the Court of Common Pleas at Dedham, Mass., counsel for the defendants in a large number of liquor cases, took exceptions to the rulings of Judge Aiken relative to the admission of evidence showing that the defendant in one of the cases had liquor in his store. The exceptions were based on technical interpretations of the meaning of the law, and about twenty liquor cases were sent up to the Supreme Court for decision on the disputed point.

FRENCH SOLDIERS AT GENOA.—Two regiments of French soldiers, the first to land at Genoa, met with a warm reception. Flowers were thrown upon them from the windows, women publicly kissed the soldiers in the streets, tables were laid out in front of the houses laded with bread wine, ham, sausages, &c., of which the troops were invited to partake.

AUSTRIA'S STRENGTH.—From statistics which reach us through a French channel, we find that the military strength of Austria in time of peace is represented by 400,000 men, and in time of war by 750,000 men. The Austrian navy, which is of very recent creation, is composed of 135 vessels, armed with 835 guns, and manned by 8507 seamen.

☞ A lady residing in Charlotteville, Va., who for ten years resided as a missionary in Siam, received a few days since a letter from "Somlet Phra Paramendi Maha Mongkut," King of Siam. The letter is written in good English, and bears the royal seal. The King is a great admirer of American institutions, and has a son named George Washington.

☞ A German writer who has published an account of men and things in the United States, says that "the condition of the negroes in New York was at one time very bad, but, owing to some reforms introduced by Gen. Jackson, it is now considerably alleviated!"

☞ A man from the Provinces came to this town last week, says the Aroostook Pioneer, seeking a preventive for the whooping cough. The remedy sought for was simply a lock of hair from the head of a child who had never seen its father—the hair to be worn round the neck as a charm.

☞ Mrs. Anna Pope, of Spencer, Mass., reached her one hundred and fifth year in December last. She retains her faculties to a remarkable degree, narrating to those who visit her, in the most vivid and animating manner, incidents during the revolution, and for several years prior to that period.

THE EMIGRATION TO THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS.—Some idea of the immense emigration to the Pike's Peak Gold Mines, may be gathered from the fact stated by a correspondent at St. Joseph, Mo., that no less than ten thousand emigrants had passed through that city, while the numbers had been large and even greater at Leavenworth and Omaha.

COOPER'S NOVELS,
ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,
FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY.
The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of an entirely new edition of Cooper's Novels, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.
Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood, all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The spirited and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.
Published by subscription.—Price $1.50 per volume, each volume containing a novel complete.—The publication commenced February 1st, 1859, and a volume will be issued on the 1st day of each month. The entire series will be completed in 32 volumes, uniform, embracing all the author's tales and romances, and containing his latest revisions and corrections.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh quality which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Morns, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
In Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.
POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find in R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident. We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering from the effects of youthful errors for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within five days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For Cold Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

DEATH OF PROF. OLMSTEAD.—New Haven, May 13.—Prof. Denison Olmstead, LL.D., expired at his residence in this city at 4 o'clock this morning, aged 68. He was graduated at Yale College in 1813.—Was elected Professor of Chemistry in 1815, and served ten years.

When there he made a geological survey of that State, the first State survey made in this country. In 1825 he was elected Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy in Yale College, which place he filled at the time of his death.

FROM MEXICO.—Further Advices from Mexico state that Guadalajara had been captured by the Liberals, and confirm the previous reports of the capture of Tepic, San Blas, Colima and Manzanilla. The route of Mejia was complete; he lost 500 men, prisoners, and it is said that he is himself a captive.

Robles was hard pushed at Jalpa, and threatened to pronounced if driven closer.

The new loan proposed by Miramon, based on a pledge of the Church property, is forty million dollars, and the clergy were trying to raise it.

Affairs look very squally for Miramon's party.

Mr. McLane, the American Minister, had returned to Vera Cruz in bad health.

On the 2d inst., Miramon issued a decree directing all the Gulf ports to be closed to foreign commerce.

FRAUD ON A LOWELL BANK.—The Vox Populi says:

"Some time since a stranger applied to the Appleton Bank for discount of $4000 or more of notes against eastern men, presenting at the same time letters from reliable business men who were well known in Lowell, certifying to the good credit and soundness of the makers of the notes, &c.—The Appleton Bank would do the paper if the holder would wait till they could telegraph and find it all right. He left the notes a short time, when he returned and said he had got them done at the Wamesit. He did get his money at the latter institution, and departed for parts unknown. It has turned out that the maker of the notes cannot be found, and that the letters of recommendation are all forgeries."

SWIFT RETRIBUTION.—A few days since, a man in Huron County, Ohio, who possessed a violent temper, was in the habit of treating his animals in the most cruel manner, for slight cause or for no cause at all, became enraged at a fine horse owned by him, and declared that he would put out one one of the animal's eyes. He accordingly seized a stick and gave the animal a blow by which his threat was accomplished. The next day he had occasion to go to his barn to nail on a board, and while engaged piece of it flew off and lodged in his eye.—He removed the piece, but the eye was destroyed.

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS FROM FRANCE. The Paris correspondent of the New York Times writes that—

"Much of the travelling from Paris takes place at night. All night long the eternal whistle of the train is in one's ear, and the government doubtless prefers, in the critical state of events, a time for most of its transports when the good citizens of Paris are snug in their beds.

The manner in which the French troops have been despatched to the Alps since Good Friday is a model for the study of our officers. The very act of entering a railway carriage and disposing of his knapsack and his musket has been taught the soldier as part of his drill.

The secret is now out between Russia and France—their alliance offensive and defensive. Austria must have long known of this. Bad as her cause, in one sense, may be, her motives for self-preservation have yet to be made known. The Emperor Napoleon's star is certainly for the present in the ascendant. He, the prime agent and abettor of the war, is apparently dragged into it as the defender of the oppressed, the upholder of European rights. But we are only at the beginning of events."

☞ The quarterly returns of emigration from Liverpool show great activity in the movement towards the United States, and it was believed that in the next few months emigration to America would be the largest experienced for several years.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.
ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

CLOTHING AT GREAT SACRIFICE.
E. GREEN & CO.,

For want of a place of business, on account of the recent fire, are compelled to rush off their remaining stock of CLOTHS, CLOTHING & FURNISHING GOODS, for a short time, at a great sacrifice, at

J. B. ADAMS' AUCTION STORE.

We take great pleasure in announcing to our numerous customers, friends, and the public generally, that it will be greatly to the advantage of the purchaser to call soon, as we cannot and shall not stay here but a short time, under such great expense and sacrificing sales. We intend to wind up business for the present, until our former store is rebuilt. We wish for all those having claims against our firm to present them soon; and those indebted to us, will confer a favor by coming forward and settling with us immediately.—We are to be found at J. B. ADAMS' STORE.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

TAXATION AND VALUATION.

Mr. Editor: The writer does not exactly coincide with your correspondent A. B. in regard to the valuation of ships. He can see no reason why any property should pay a higher tax than for the price it will bring in the market. If a house or other real estate is sold at auction, the price it brings, if but half the real cost, is the right sum for which it should be taxed. There is no good reason why ships should be valued for taxation at $46 per ton, at a time when they would not command more than $40 at a public sale. For not one cent above what an article would sell for at the time the valuation is made, should it ever be taxed.

C. D.

In our estimation, there is too high a valuation put upon property generally in Portsmouth in comparison with the inventories of other towns in the county, thereby giving to Portsmouth too great a share of the county expenses. We do not know that much property here is really estimated above its value—but in other towns in the county some houses are appraised at only about half the valuation of others in Portsmouth of the like cost of construction and of no more real value. In some towns the horses are valued at fifteen dollars, while in Portsmouth those of no more real worth are taxed at four or five times that valuation. And so of other articles. We do not so much desire to see the Portsmouth valuation put down, as to see some regular system of valuation established by law which will make like articles of like taxable value in every town in the county, and State.

There is one other matter which requires regulation—it is the support of such paupers as are now made county charges. This tax is now becoming a serious one in Rockingham county—particularly to the larger towns. In some towns it is said that the amount they receive for county paupers actually pays all the expenses of the support of their own town poor! This draft from the county Portsmouth has to pay directly. It is pretty evident that if every town had to support its own county paupers, the expense would be reduced a very large per centage—perhaps fifty.

CONCORD & PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD

The freighting business is being entered upon in earnest. On Wednesday and Thursday last, Mr. F. W. Rogers delivered on board the cars at the Depot, 195 tons of coal, which he carted by five teams from one of the wharves on those two days. His contract is for the transportation of ten to fifteen thousand tons of heavy merchandize this season. Our neighbors of the Chronicle were rather large in putting it down at six hundred thousand tons—which would be enough to freight a thousand ships.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.—The question is often asked, why Portsmouth, with all its local advantages, does not enter upon a greater variety of manufactures? Why cannot the city not only make all its own shoes, but also its hats—both of which take the cash from Portsmouth to manufactures in other towns? Our furniture warerooms are principally filled with the work of other towns, where higher rents have to be paid, and higher prices paid to workman. Even most of the soap upon the shelves of our stores is the product of other towns. This is not as a right spirit of enterprise would make it. A community which produces little, and sends abroad more money than is received from other places, must be gradually diminishing in wealth. We have some manufactures among us, but to so limited an extent, aside from the Steam Factory, that Portsmouth does not quite come up to the spirit of the age. We hope some enterprising individuals of this or some other town, will look in upon the facilities for business our city affords, and in availing themselves of the advantages offered, benefit themselves as well as our community.

GENERAL COURT.—The annual session this year begins on the first day of June, giving an opportunity for five instead of four weeks session before the 4th of July, which time, in the usual course of things, will find the Legislators at their homes.

The leading subject will doubtless be some amendment of the Judiciary system, by which more speedy justice can be administered than by the present laws—and at an expense which will not require the whole claim to meet it. At the constitutional convention in 1850, the clerks of the Courts showed by their returns that costs of cases of less than $25 would exceed the amount claimed by the plaintiffs. If the smaller cases could more generally be made matter for a Court of Reference where the decision would be final, the public interest would be promoted.

There is one grevisance under the immediate eye of every member of the General Court, which should not be suffered longer to exist. It is the exposed position of our State Records. Many who have never visited Concord will be surprised to learn that all the papers of the state, which have been more than a century accumulating, among them many valuable records and documents of state history, are kept in a room in the State House, which is ceiled with wood, without even the protection of a common store safe—and liable every day to conflagration. The loss of these documents could never be repaired—and in comparison would be a greater loss to the state than the burning of half a dozen of such buildings as the State House itself.

EXCITEMENT IN THE CUSTOM HOUSE.—We are informed that a circular was recently received from the Hon. Howell Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, addressed through the Collector to the different divisions in the Custom house, requesting them to adopt some plan by which the present force employed in the Warehouse Bureau and Storekeeper's Department, in the Surveyor's Office and in the Auditor's Department, in the Cashier's Office and in the Naval Office, may be reduced one-fourth without detriment to the public service. The officers in charge of these Bureaus are requested to report their plans for such reduction to the Treasury Department, with all possible despatch. There is a manifest intention on the part of the Hon. Howell Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, to reduce the present expense of collecting the revenue in New York city and throughout the country.—N. Y. Times.

☞ We have already stated that the People's Ticket, for city officers, was elected in Philadelphia, 3d May; but we did not know what kind of people they were. It now appears this was the ticket supported by the republicans and disaffected democrats, i. e. Forney's friends and adherents, anti-Lecompton men. The majority is about 2500.

NEW HAMPSHIRE JOURNAL OF EDUCATION.—We have received the May number of this periodical, which contains the usual amount of interesting reading matter. From a slight perusal of its pages we call it an excellent number; it contains information which every teacher, or every one contemplating teaching, should be possessed of.

☞ In Roxbury, Ms., Patrick O'Flaherty was found guilty of having liquors in his possession with intent to sell the same.—Nearly all the cases of this character which were appealed to Dedham have been convicted by the juries there. Several of them, however, have been carried up higher.

MURDER IN A BALL ROOM. — A disturbance took place in a ball room in Pittsburgh, Pa., on the 6th inst., which resulted in the stabbing of two young men, Wm. Cable and John Crowe, the former of whom died the next day. Thomas Hanna, by whom the deed was committed, will be tried for murder at the next session of the Criminal Court.

☞ Joseph Glenat, a famous Philadelphia omnibus proprietor, died on Monday. He was over sixty years of age, served in his youth in the French army under the first Napoleon, and received a St. Helena medal from the present Emperor. He was a printer by trade.

☞ A Norfolk (Va.) dispatch states that Miss Bunkley, the authoress of the "Escaped Nun," has publicly recanted. Miss Bunkley, we believe, is the lady whose escape from the convent at Georgetown, D. C., a few years ago, excited so much interest.

☞ The Governor of Connecticut, in his annual message, states that though the State Prison labor is leased at a price 20 per cent. lower than formerly, yet, for the past year, it has defrayed all the expenses of the institution, and yielded a revenue of $1871.69.

☞ In the commission of evil, fear no man as much as thy own self. Another is but one witness against thee; thou art a thousand.—Another thou mayest avoid, but thyself thou canst not. Wickedness brings its own punishment.

☞ Intelligence from Jamaica to the 6th inst., reports that the recent insurrectionary movement in the parish of Westmoreland had been entirely suppressed, and things had subsided into quietness.

☞ A well known politician of Mississippi, in a recent speech before the sovereigns, said: "Your woolen goods are nearly all cotton; your linen shirts are now made of cotton, and your silk hats are nearly three-thirds cotton."

New Orleans papers of Friday last are at hand. Capt. McDonald of barque Geo. Stricker, arrived at New Orleans, reports that while off Brazillian coast hewas twice fired upon by an English man-of-war unknown. Capt. McDonald hoisted his national colors, and they had been up but a moment when the Britisher altered his course.

☞ A speculator in Paris is engaged in buying up tulle and gauze robes which have been worn and discarded—and which he exports and sells to the natives of the Caribbean Islands.

☞ A Boston local reporter says "Mr. McCleary, our City Clerk, is a wonder. He is a contented man. He declines to have his salary raised from $2,500 to $2,800, and that too when he is worth the money."

☞ A good woman poisoned herself a few days ago, in Alabama, and when asked as to the cause of it, just before her death, she said she had committed an unpardonable sin against the Holy Ghost, and must be lost.

☞ Dickens's new paper, All the Year Round, is to be published simultaneously, in London and New York. We have received the first number from J. M. Emerson & Co., New York, the publishers.

THE GREAT WONDER
Of The Nineteenth Century.
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service. As I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself, I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from GUMS,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove from the system all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, and purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a positive cure for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Take no other than the month with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing eyes.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely worthless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best, of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j3 dly

☞ The next annual meeting of the Pastoral Convention of Congregational and Presbyterian ministers of New Hampshire, will be held in the North Church in Concord, Wednesday, June 1st. Exercises as follows:

Concio by Rev. J. K. Young, or his substitute, Rev. E. G. Parsons. Sermon in the evening, by Rev. James Boutwell, or his substitute, Rev. J. P. Humphrey, after which a collection for the Widows' Charitable Fund. Questions or topics for discussion:—1. The responsibility of ministers in regard to collections among their people for benevolent objects, by Rev. C. W. Wallace and E. H. Greeley. 2. The practical uses of the doctrine of election, by Rev. Wm. Clark. 3. Is our common pew system in accordance with the requisitions of the gospel, by Rev. B. P. Stone, D. D., and Rev. Austin Richards.

VOTING IN CHICAGO. — Inspector — "Who do you vote for?"

Van Houbleschmidtervitzen — "I votes r der Covernor."

voInspector—"But which candidate?"

Van, etc. (excited)—"Dunden un blitzen, I dell you I votes vor der Covernor."

Inspector finds he can do nothing with him, so he puts in a vote for his own party. —Springfield Republican.

And yet this same Hans Van Houbleschmidtervitzen has terrified the Springfield Republican into a frenzied opposition to the Two Years' Amendment. Van swears he will vote "der loco ticket," and so the Republican says we must not pass the amendment.—Atlas.

☞ The Red Hook Journal says of Mrs. Wm. B. Astor, that instead of spending the whole of her large annuity in personal and selfish gratification, a large amount of it is annually expended in real charities and active practical benevolence; and that too without that ostentatious display which too often characterizes the benefactions of the wealthy. Mrs. Astor has established a female orphan asylum at Red Hook, where the inmates, fifteen or sixteen in number, are receiving good matronly care and judicious instruction.

☞ Wm. Dumphrey, of Macon county, Illinois, was struck by lightning and killed on Tuesday of last week. He was riding with his father in a wagon. The lightning struck him on the back part of the head, cutting him severely, and scorching the hair, passing down the body and tearing the boots from his feet. The father was but slightly injured.

LICENSE LAW.—In the Connecticut Legislature, the new liquor law, substantially the same as that proposed some time since by a correspondent of the Hartford Press, was introduced and referred. It substitutes for the present prohibitory law a license system.

MONEY IS KING.—An attempt has been made in Austria to enforce, under the concordat with Rome, the law that prohibits Hebrews from employing Austrian servants. This was met by the Jewish bankers in Frankfort in a manner which showed that there is some other than royal power in Europe. A resolution was passed that no Jew would deal in Austrian stocks.—Wealthy Jewish houses in Amsterdam have come to the same determination. The offensive regulation has been repealed.

☞ A flippant penny-a-liner says in a New York paper, the conversion of a South Sea Islander is an easy matter compared to the redemption of a Fifth Avenue heathen, but the tougher the job the greater the glory.

WASHINGTON, May 12. — Private dispatches from Mexico, telegraphed from New Orleans to this city, represent the prospects of the Liberals for taking the capital as very encouraging. The efforts of Miramon to raise money in Europe on the Church property are considered as futile, in view of the hostile condition of affairs on that Continent. The taking of the City of Mexico by the Constitutionalists is considered merely a question of time.

☞ Hiram Woodruff, of Long Island, will match b. m. Lady Woodruff against any horse, mare, or gelding in the world, for twenty-five hundred dollars a side, half forfeit, mile heats, best three in five, to four hundred pounds wagon and driver.

FOR LIBERIA. — Baltimore, May 12.—The Colonization Society's brig Mary Caroline Stevens sailed at noon, to-day, for Liberia, with 153 emigrants, mostly manumitted slaves. Three Presbyterian Ministers, Rev. A. Miller, and James and Thomas Amos, also went out in her. The usual religious exercises were held on the occasion.

☞ At Havana sugar is dull and declining. Molasses unchanged.

MONDAY, MAY 16, 1859.

EXETER SCRIBBLINGS.

EXETER, May 12th, 1859.

Messrs. Editors:—Being deeply impressed with the proverb, No quid nimis, I have forborne writing until this present time, when I hope I can communicate with truth, the pleasing intelligence that there is a good time coming, even in Exeter. For a long time past, every body who comes here or lives here, must have seen and known that the rumsellers and their satellites had things pretty much their own way. On the principal business street, a man could hitch his horse to a post at a respectable store, and without going many steps, find a brothel, a gambling saloon, and a dram shop, kept by different members of the royal family.—Horses have been seen, for the day and half day, hitched in that way, and no remarks made. Rum has been sold in most of the Irish houses, and Sunday and week day gambling carried on.

Last Sabbath afternoon during divine service, there were two drunken quarrels, and one society was broken up by the police being called out, and two others disturbed by the noise and profanity of the three drunken men carried past, to the jail. Two were Yankees who quarrelled with each other. The third was an Irishman who struck his wife's mother. He had been having two dollars per day in Boston, but spent as fast as he earned, and was dismissed for being off from his work. His friends gave his wife money to pay her expenses to this place, and she was confined the night she got here. There was no fire in her room, and she had no care or food except what the neighbors gave. Being a capable workman he was offered employment at a dollar a day, if he would engage for a year. The gentleman did not wish to bind himself, and so did nothing. His wife is a weaver, and will probably go in the factory when able, and board her child out. His sister, who lives at service, paid ten dollars on Monday, and he is at liberty to get drunk and quarrel again the next hot Sabbath, if he pleases. Another lay drunk on his bed, with a sick wife, and no food in the house except what the neighbors took in to them. But he was too far gone to quarrel. He could only snore.

It was known that Temperance was to be the subject at the Sabbath school concert at the upper house as it is called, and the young men of the Christian Association were there, and stated that it could be shown that thirty thousand dollars per annum were spent in Exeter for liquor, before the establishment of the brewery. And since then small boys had been seen in the street drunk. Remarks were made by the pastor and others, and it was decided to do something.

Even heathens taught that the shoulder should be put to the wheel before Jupiter should be called upon to help. Praying without working, when we can and should work, is not the thing; and I hope the young men and others elsewhere, will act accordingly. It is astonishing they have borne so long, in Exeter, what was complained of as an evil, when by one decided effort they could have stopped it at once, and forever. The money goes to enrich those who are too lazy or too proud to work, and the working class have to be taxed tor the crime and poverty they make. Let no one claim to be a patriot, much less a Christian, who does not put his shoulder to the work in earnest, and keep it there, too, until it is done.

There is no news afloat, I believe; and all the item of interest that I can communicate, is the success of the Unitarian May-day Festival. The proceeds I have heard estimated as high as five hundred dollars.—The day was propitious, and the attendance large.

Two of the churches are without stated preaching, and another soon will be.

What are the Democrats aiming at in the next legislative session? How can brother Hatch afford to go there?* Has he come to the conclusion that the poet Campbell did? Though only a clerk, he declared upon his conscience, before God, that it was the most accursed of all business. His language is, "Well, I have fairly tried the business of an attorney, and upon my conscience, it is the most accursed of all professions! such meanness—such toil—such contemptible means of speculation—were never moulded into one profession. It is true there are many emoluments, but I declare to God that I can hardly spend, with a clear conscience, the little sum I make during my residence in Edinburg."

Is the profession more honorable, or have people's consciences grown more elastic? The Sickles trial might throw some light on it if one had the time and patience to read it. How very pious they all were, on a sudden! Drinking whiskey and reading the Bible; quoting Job to the afflicted man, as if he was chastened of God, rather than reaping as he had sown. I think we shall have to get up a new sect, and call them Hennicans, after Henry the eighth. He went to confession every day, and made nine wills, took back his wife and sent off his mistress until the plague stopped its ravages; then he sent off his wife and got back his mistress, and burned his wills and went on as before. I think such a church would find abundant support.

One man who sells coffee and gives away rum, so as to dodge the law, reads the Bible till a customer comes in, and then gives them the Bible to keep his place for him. Of course nobody would think there was anything wrong where there is so much piety.

Did not Mr. Key go to meeting? and was not Mrs. Sickles going to have her child baptized? What kind of a sermon did he listen to on that last Sabbath, and what kind of pastoral visits did she receive relative to the baptism of the child? Was one an epitome of history, the dimensions of Noah's ark or the temple of Diana, and the other a few complimentary arrangements, that the thing might be got up in good taste?

How much of such stuff is palmed off every Sunday for piety and preaching, and vice goes unrebuked, and the soul goes into eternity "with a lie in its right hand."—May the history of the Honorable Mr. and Mrs. Sickles teach the contemptibleness of worshipping money and titles, and to respect man made in the image of his Creator. Real piety then, is like real gold; but the church and its ministers think too much of the fashionable and the rich; too much of the taxes and too little of the lives of those who compose its body. The Jewish Church and the ancient Christian Church came to nought in this way, and the Church of England "gave up her bulwarks to keep her palaces." Let the American Church beware in time. A few more Kalloch trials, and "Park street kissings," will send a feeling of disgust and mistrust through the community that will be felt for a generation.

Excuse the length of my letter, and when the steps are taken, as I trust they will be, to free us from the great curse, I will chronicle it. Yours, SCRIBBLER.

*Our correspondent does not seem to have heard that Mr. Hatch has resigned, or declined to be Representative; not willing to lose a good paying office for the sake of a seat in Concord; and having already received the honor of an election in the 3d Ward.

☞ In Newburyport, we learn from the Herald, that persons appointed Liquor agents last year, whose commissions expired on the 11th inst., (some twenty-five of them) have been notified that they must now suspend operations or incur the risks of prosecution, as the city authorities will execute the law. Some of them discontinued sales at once.

☞ Miramon is seeking to raise money from his "uncle," to give in pledge about twenty per cent. of the entire property of the church of which he is the champion. A pretty champion he must be! She had better compromise with her enemies, who would probably let her off for half the amount of the "red gold" that he proposes to take from her veins.

☞ The little son of Mr. S. Earl, of New London, Huron county, (Mo.) a few days since, placed his mouth to the spout of a teakettle filled with boiling water, and drank a swallow. He survived, in great agony, till the next day.

☞ A bottle of muriatic acid in the hands of a lady passenger on the Somerset and Kennebec Railroad, exploded on Monday last, nearly rendering the lady blind. Conductor Hatch had his coat destroyed in his efforts to relieve the lady.

☞ A shrewd correspondent, who predicted in our columns, the election of Marston, Goodwin, and Douglas, (to the U. S. Senate) before the nomination of either, still adheres to his prophecy of Douglas being our next President, made at the same time.

☞ The steamship Star of the West arrived at New York Saturday morning, bringing San Francisco dates to April 20, and a million and a half of specie, and 250 passengers. No later news.

☞ The Kennebec river is to be bridged over at Hallowell. The stock has been mostly taken up.

PIKE'S PEAK.—Twenty thousand persons had passed up the Missouri River, May 1st, on their way to the new gold diggings.

☞ Mrs. Partington says like has bought a horse so spiritnous that he always goes off in a decanter.

A COLOSSAL FORTUNE.—Baron Goldsmidt died lately in England, leaving a fortune estimated at fifteen million dollars.

COOPER'S NOVELS,
ILLUSTRATED ON STEEL AND WOOD,
FROM ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY F. O. C. DARLEY.
The Publishers commenced February 1st, 1859, the publication of an entirely new edition of COOPER'S NOVELS, issued with great elegance, and illustrated on steel and wood, from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. The size is crown octavo; the type clear and elegant; it is printed on a beautiful cream-tinted and calendered paper, of superior stock and finish, manufactured expressly for this edition; and bound in embossed cloth, with beveled edges, and stamped in gilt upon the side and back, from new and appropriate designs.
Each volume contains two steel plates, and twelve designs on wood; all from the pencil of Darley, making a total in the series of FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, at a cost exceeding Twenty Thousand Dollars. The steel plates are the most costly works of art of their kind yet produced in this country. The spirited and admirable drawings by Mr. Darley, whose genius was never so much at home as upon the picturesque pages of Cooper, have been engraved with bank note delicacy and finish, in Line and Etching, by the most eminent engravers, at a cost far exceeding the usual expenditure upon publications of the kind.
Published by subscription.—Price $1.50 per volume, each volume containing a novel complete.—The publication commenced February 1st, 1859, and a volume will be issued on the 1st day of each month. The entire series will be completed in 32 volumes, uniform, embracing all the author's tales and romances, and containing his latest revisions and corrections.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."
Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.
Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters
Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, &c. Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure
LIVER COMPLAINT, INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS, DIZZINESS,
HEADACHE, HEARTBURN,
PILES, FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS, LOSS OF APPETITE.
All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.
This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.
Orders addressed to J. C. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St. Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m12

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a rich and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, THE KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "to be superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, traiteurs and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st.; Deland & Snow, 24 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and J. C. Mitchell & Son.

ONLY A FEW WORDS
Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my
GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,
consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and Rosewood Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.
A. GREGORY.
N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
In Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) Ambrotypes, taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiturometer.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.
POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with the malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or treatment or innoculated through indisretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, who might be relieved by a bottle of R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For Other Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.
R. R. R. 103 Fulton street, Brooklyn, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

LOCAL.

NOTICE.—All persons who are in favor of getting up a military escort for Hon. I. Goodwin, the Governor elect, on his official visit to Concord in June, are requested to meet in Jefferson Hall, this evening, at 8 o'clock. By order of the committee.

☞ The second concert of the Musical Convention, Friday evening, was equally successful with the first. A musical gentleman in the audience pronounced the glee concert the best he ever heard; and both entertainments were certainly of a superior order, rarely equalled hereabouts. Prof. Williams proved himself a most skillful teacher and conductor,—and was pronounced by all judges who met him, to be one of the most practical, efficient and valuable of musicians.—Pecuniarily considered, the success of the Convention was very poor, which for Mr. Williams' sake at least, is to be regretted. He was able and willing to work for the good of this community, and they were not willing to pay for it. These gatherings have never been encouraged here by the people as they are everywhere else, and as their value and importance would seem to merit.

With all the professed love for musical education and good church music, we hear prated of, it might be supposed that this important means of aiding both, would be sustained. But perhaps it ought not to be wondered at, after all, that the same people who are satisfied with the cheapest music in their churches, should rest contented while no public means are employed to disseminate musical knowledge.

☞ Look before you—drink! A lizard about two inches long was drawn from the aqueduct, near Market Square, on Saturday last. He would go down your throat before you knew it, and then you'd be in the situation of unfortunate Jonah, with a difference.

☞ See advertisement of Mr. Remick, machinist. He is an excellent mechanic, capable of doing any sort of work in his line. We recently saw a beautiful little stationary steam engine just built at his establishment, for a Brewery. May not this engine be fairly chargeable with encouraging the people to "steam it?"

☞ The Rockingham Qurterly meeting of the Free Will Baptists, will be held at Amesbury Mills, on Wednesday and Thursday.

SINGULAR OCCURRENCE.—On Friday last several persons were engaged in raising a bell by means of a windlass, to the tower of the Catholic Church at Wheeling, Va.—The bell had been raised almost up to the open space in the cupola. A man named Thomas Newton was below, and engaged in guiding the folds of the rope as it wound around the cylinder, when one of the cogs in the wheels of the windless fixtures gave way. Another revolution of the wheel ripped off all the cogs; the bell fell to the ground, and Newton who had hold of the lower end of the rope, was carried up with frightful velocity a distance of one hundred feet, and four feet above the aperture where the bell was to have been taken in, and before those engaged in the work could comprehend, what had happened, Newton with his hands all lacerated and bleeding, worked himself down opposite the aperture and called for help to those within. Bishop Whelen, who was on the platform of the cupola, reached out at the risk of his own life, and seizing Newton by the waist, pulled him in. The flesh was all torn from the palms of his hands, even to the bone. The bell weighed 3700 pounds, and as it fell without hindrance, some idea may be formed of the rapidity with which Newton ascended.

A GLOUCESTER FISHING VESSEL MISSING.—The Cape Ann Advertiser says:

The schooner Charles E. Grover sailed for the Western Bank, six weeks ago Wednesday, since which time nothing is known concerning her. It is quite likely that she foundered in the gale of the Thursday or Friday following. The Charles E. Grover was a good vessel, six years old. She was insured $2975. at the office of the Mutual Fishing Insurance Company. There were nine persons on board of the vessel when she left port, two of whom were married.—Five of these persons belonged to the State of Maine, two in Gloucester, and two were foreigners. The C. E. G. was about 80 tuns burthen.

Mr. Cobden, it is reported, has suggested to President Buchanan that the United States should interpose in European affairs, because of their menacing condition. Perhaps they should, but the reason for their doing so is not greater than it has been on several other occasions, when we were content to mind our own business. We have quite enough to do, what with Utah, and Central America, and Mexico, without taking up the Italian question, in which we have only a moral interest. We should probably only get snubbed for our pains, if we should make an offer to supply Europe with Quaker guns,—for we presume, no one thinks we should fight. Drab is our wear, not blue or scarlet.—Traveller.

☞ They have a system in St. Louis of employing supply policemen for a short time, who are called chancemen. On Friday night one of these became drunk in a drug store, created a small riot and was thrust forth. Falling asleep on the sidewalk, an honest policeman took away his star and club, leaving him peacefully to sleep. By-and-by, Miller, for this was the name of the recreant, awoke, missed his badges of office, re-entered the drug store and accused the apothecary of theft, accompanying the charge with an attempted shot from his revolver, which missed fire. He then retired to the street, and told the first man he saw to go home; this order not being complied with, he snapped his revolver at the head of this offender, who knocked him down and gave him to the authorities. The riotous policeman was fined fifty dollars. The next night another chanceman made himself drunk at a saloon in the same city, and was arrested by five persons. On the whole, (as says the Boston Courier,) the system seems defective.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition among the natives so easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant was recently obtained from Sken-an-do-ah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It is neatly put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.

☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases; none other is worthy of confidence. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.
A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO.,
NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their
Celebrated Family Machines,
with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50:
Machines from $50 to $125.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of
ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN CHICAGO.—At a late election for Sewerage Commissioner in Chicago, Phillip Conly, the Democratic candidate, was chosen by a majority of 1,165 over his Republican competitor.

FOR THE WASHINGTON COMMISSION, 12th.

We announce with great pleasure, the appointment of John Hearn, Esq., formerly editor of the Charleston Mercury, to the responsible trust of Superintendent of Public Printing, satisfied that it will be well received throughout the country. Mr. Hearn is thoroughly versed in all that pertains to the business of printing, possesses an unblemished reputation, and is well known and appreciated by the great body of our public men. A better or more popular selection could not have been made.

Certainly the Charleston Mercury is a good institution from which to make "popular selections" of Democratic office holders. It is accepted of Northern Democratic editors, that they shall constantly denounce, and in behalf of the party, disavow the treasonable doctrines of this leading organ of the Southern disunionists, and at the same time cordially support an Administration which confers office upon its editors and patronizes its publishers with the government advertising. Well, as many as choose may do it, if they like, till h—l freezes over with their heads under the ice; but we can name a number that occasionally dare to rebuke treachery even in the high places where old Fogifossil and the members of the national knitting-work society sit in their easy chairs, "munch sweet flag with toothless gums," and concoct vile schemes for the destruction of all who are not as base and mercenary as themselves.

Wouldn't it be a "popular selection," and one that would display the great sagacity of our remarkable Chief Magistrate, if he were to hunt up the Captain of the "Wanderer" and give him a good office? The Mercury publicly advocates the piracy which he boldly practices. If either are to feed at the public crib, the Captain best deserves the plunder. "Great is Diana of the Ephesians," and greater still is old Fogifossil, who, "under a sense of deep duty to God," inflicts every day of his life some new wound upon the party which he has betrayed and sold for thirty pieces of silver! Tristam Burgess thanked God that Randolph had no power to propagate his species; we think God that the head of this Administration is politically, if not physically, equally impotent!

LETTER FROM CONCORD.

CONCORD, May 10, 1859.

Editor Gazette:—The excitement which the meeting of the Legislature always awakens in our generally quiet city, is just beginning to display itself. The Hotels are being painted, papered and carpeted anew, and each house will strive to do its best in giving "good cheer" to the law-givers of our State. Private houses are undergoing repairs, and the women folks are as busy as bees, getting ready for June, when all will do their part to sustain the reputation of our city. A general stampede is expected from your own city and your neighbor Dover. The Hales, the Christies, and numerous other families are expected from the last mentioned city. Manchester will send a large delegation and even "little Boston" is to be represented. Politicians will be plenty, and the size of the "Lobby" will astonish everybody. Various schemes are to be "put through" and the "dross" will be used freely. It is generally thought in this vicinity that the Liquor Law will remain about as it is, though it is conceded that there will be a vigorous effort made to have it repealed, and if that cannot be done, to have it amended in its most objectionable points. In regard to the establishing of Town Courts, I understand that Judge Fowler is in favor of the plan, and it is said that the papers will be drawn up by him. This certainly argues well for the success of the movement. The Pedler Law will certainly be repealed. The Railroad schemes have not yet appeared, they are being enacted behind the scenes, a mere rehersal, for whatever they want to have done, will be done.

HOW THE INTERVENTIONISTS ARE REGARDED.—The Detroit Free Press, the leading Democratic paper of Michigan, in an article upon the slavery question, says that Senators Brown, Davis and Mason, who are now clamoring for Congressional intervention for slavery, are no more Democrats, and can not be recognized as such any more than Hale, Trumbull and Bingham can be, who demand Congressional intervention against slavery. Neither class of men stand upon the Democratic platform.

☞ In order to arrive at the proper owners of shares for taxation, the last Massachusetts Legislature passed a law which forbids, under penalty of $100, the transfer of any stock on which returns of shares are required to be made to assessors until the purchaser shall have informed the corporation of his actual place of residence; and upon the issuing of each certificate the corporation shall register the name and residence of the purchaser. Several railroad corporations have given notice that they shall put the act in force after May 5.

☞ The infamous Hindoo amendment excluding naturalized citizens from voting in Massachusetts for a period of two years, was adopted last Monday. The total vote was light, not over 40,000; the majority for the amendment is between 5 and 7000. It is a bad move for the Blacks, one which will cost them more votes than they can afford to lose in several western States.

Certain Southern Senators, near the close of the late session, avowed sentiments to which the Democracy of the North will never assent, and the sooner this is understood the better. We will not agree that Congress has anything whatever to do with slavery anywhere; but we are willing to abide by any authoritative decision of the Supreme Court, be what it may. We do not understand that any decision has yet been pronounced, or is justly inferable from any action of the Court, adverse to the idea of popular sovereignty in the Territories, so far as their local institutions are concerned.—Union Democrat.

UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,

WITH IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray, supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and can be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young once or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, JAN. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and feel a pleasure in you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala. Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 604 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds a pint, and retails for $1.50, and in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more than a pint, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These gums combined, have often repeated all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, strengthening the BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, and effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the blood from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, lessens the bowels gently and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

Only one dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the quantity of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while SUMMER & BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the kidneys to secrete.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. eu31 ly

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three hundred of them have been inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicament sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some specious or fictious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

LOTTERIES.

THE LOTTERIES OF

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

Are chartered by the States of Delaware and Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Delaware or to Georgia, as the Lotteries of

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

are authorized by the Legislature of either State.

A Lottery will be drawn every day at Wilmington, Delaware, and also at Augusta, Ga. All orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after same comes to hand.

Whole tickets are $10; halves, $5; and quarters, $2.50.

No ticket sent unless the money accompanies the order. Prizes vary from $20 to $500,000.

Every prize is drawn, and the result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A circular showing the plan of receiving it. All communications strictly confidential.

Write your address plainly, and direct to

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

THE DYING KING.—The foreign correspondent of the Anti-Slavery Standard paints a sombre picture of the present condition of affairs in the Court of Naples, and of the death bed of Ferdinand III. The King is perishing by a horrible disease, which makes him repulsive to his attendants,and from which he suffers the most terrible agonies. He sees no one but the Queen, the physicians and his servants; the most careful methods are taken to inform the public that his Majesty is doing well.—Whenever a Council of Ministers takes place, it is presided over by the hereditary Prince, or the eldest son of the Queen. After the session the ministers are introduced into the apartment of the King. His hand is extended from within the curtains of the bed. They kiss it, and depart; the official journal then announces that his majesty presided at the ministerial council.—Naples is filled with rumors and intrigues; it is said that an attempt is to be made to raise to the throne the son of the Queen in place of the hereditary Prince; strong efforts are made to discredit the intelligence of the latter, and he is kept almost a prisoner at the dreary palace in Casesta, where the King lies dying, and which is more like a hospital than the seat of a court,—and more like a tomb than a hospital. Prince Lucien Murat has also hopes that the death of Ferdinand just at this crisis will be of advantage to him, and that the Emperor Napoleon will be compelled to assist him to the throne of Naples.

☞ A few days ago two gentlemen, calling themselves physicians, presented themselves at a medical institution in Washington, for the purpose of gaining information regarding the healing art. Having soon become well acquainted with the students, the new comers proposed to distribute by raffle certain articles of ornament which they exhibited, and several articles of silver ware which they said they owned, but which they did not show. The tickets were sold for five dollars each, and a large number were disposed of. On the evening when the drawing was to take place the two operators invited their patrons and fellow students to a sumptuous dinner at a hotel. After the hunger of the guests had been appeased, the hosts begged to be excused for a short time to prepare for the raffle; they went, but never more returned, and the victims lost their chance in the lottery, but had the certainty of paying for the dinner they had eaten, the bill for which was presented by the landlord.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
78 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to; any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below, given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAUGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Indian Physician.
Dr. B. S. GOODWIN
Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public general ly, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.
ADVICE FREE.
Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.
THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN: Consumption, Liver Complaint, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Dropsy, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.
No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!
Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and happiness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, take out the fire, soothe the irritating pain, and heal the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in friction. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1859.

THE TWO YEARS' WAITING.

There is some idle talk in some papers, about the two years' amendment which the people of Massachusetts have just adopted, whereby men of foreign birth are made to wait two years after being naturalized.

The idea expressed by some is, that it is unjust, and by others that it is unsafe, and will injure the republican party.

But it is not unjust; for we are certainly under no obligation to let foreigners rush in and govern us, nor to let anybody overwhelm our public opinion on political matters, by an avalanche of votes from newly imported men as ignorant of our affairs as the negroes imported in the Wanderer.

As to the damage of the republican party, or any other party, that is a matter of small consequence, compared with the introduction and enforcement of a good principle, and a rule for the better regulation of elections.

The Portland Argus says, "by this change of constitution, the white man, not a native of the soil, is placed below the negro in the scale of political privileges."

The imported white man, in this respect, is placed exactly on a par with the imported negro,—and the native white with the native black,—neither below nor above. The attempt to make it look otherwise is a poor quibble.

Certain anxious Republicans in New York seem to have forgotten that their own Republican State Convention of September last recommended an amendment of the Constitution of New York similar to that just adopted, in the following resolution:

Resolved, That the principle embodied in our present State Constitution of requiring some time to intervene between the act of naturalization and the consequent exercise of the right of suffrage, is sound and just, and we recommend such an extension of the intervening time as will preclude the future naturalization of voters under the auspices of partisan committees, and with a view to using the voters so procured at a pending election.

As a curious illustration of the idea, that our own safety, and not proscription of any body, is the motive of the new regulation, we see it stated in the Boston Journal that "the town of Quincy voted, 210 to 91, in favor of the amendment to the Constitution relating to foreign voters; and at another town meeting, held a quarter of an hour afterwards, for the purpose of choosing a selectman, Jonathan Jameson, Esq., a most excellent citizen, but a Democrat, and a foreigner by birth, was elected. This tends to prove what we have repeatedly said, that the two years amendment originated in no spirit of hostility against foreigners, but is merely a measure designed to guard the purity of the ballot box. Its active supporters in every town, as well as in Quincy, have far more respect for the honest, meritorious foreigner than those who would like to keep him still subjected to the temptation of making a virtual sale of his vote and his character as an elector."

It ought to be added, here, that the great American or K. N. movement, which ran through the country a few years ago, showed that a large majority of all parties, were in favor of a strong measure of this same character.

To be sure, other issues came in, and various circumstances prevented the triumph of those measures. But we suppose that more than two-thirds of the people of New Hampshire, and of all the free states, really believe the amendment, or something like it, to be a good measure. And in the slave states, we have no doubt the majority of opinion is larger still.

No man can desire a loose mode of voting, or of making voters,—unless he wishes to gain by fraud and deception, something he could not gain honorably and above board.

☞ The Southern Convention met at Vicksburg on the 9th. Eight States are misrepresented in it. Jack Spratt offered his standing resolve in favor of reopening the African slave trade, being in favor of lean negroes, in accordance with the hereditary taste of his family. Gov. Foote denounced his sentiments as high treason.—High nonsense would be the better name for them, and a shaved head and a straight jacket the proper punishment for their promulgation. There is something impudent in a man of the name of Spratt attempting to play the part of a political leader. He ought to have his ears boxed.

☞ A French editor gives the following amusing description of the effect of an advertisement:—The first time a man sees an advertisement he takes no notice of it; the second time he looks at the name; the third time he looks at the price; the fourth time he reads it; the fifth time he speaks of it to his wife; the sixth time he buys.

FEMALE HEROISM.—At the recent explosion of steamer St. Nicholas, Miss Kennedy was thrown from her state-room into the river, and floated down to the stern of the boat, when she caught her hand in one of the rings attached to the hull, and, hung in that perilous dilemma, when death stood threatening upon either hand. To loose her hold was to sink into the waves, and to hold on was to burn with the wreck to which she was clinging—every moment being an age of alternating hope and despair.

She remained in this position till the flames actually burned the hair and skin from her head, the only part of her body above the water except the hand by which she clung to the wreck, and that was burned to a crisp. While in this awful suspense, and suffering intensely from the heat, such was her presence of mind and wonderful heroism, that as a man who was worse stunned perhaps than herself by the explosion, was floating by her in a drowning condition, she seized him by the hair with her disengaged hand, and held his face out of the water until a skiff was brought to the rescue of both.

ASTONISHING FEATS.—The San Francisco Herald says James Kenovan, who had undertaken to walk or run 400 miles 100 hours, accomplished his arduous feat, in that city, having performed the distance in 98 hours and 20 minutes, thus winning by one hour, forty minutes. On the last 10 rounds he was kept up by cheers and noise, as well urging, when he struck a trot and came in winner. He weighed 126 pounds at the start, and 121 and a half at the conclusion of his wager, having lost four pounds and a half. The best time made was 8 miles in one hour, and on the last hour he accomplished but one mile and a half.

TUFTS COLLEGE.—The $50,000 required to be raised by private subscription for Tufts College, in order to secure to it the Commonwealth's donation of a like amount from the proceeds of the Back Bay lands, is in a fair way of being raised. Sylvanus Packard, Esq., of the 2d Universalist Society in Boston, has given another sum of twenty thousand dollars in addition to what he had given before. Thomas A. Goddard, Esq., of the same Society, has given two thousand in addition to his other subscriptions; and Nathaniel Adams, Esq., of the Fifth Universalist Society, has given one thousand dollars in addition to all he had previously given.

☞ The Universalist Society in Manchester, N. H., on Thursday evening, by request of Rev. B. M. Tillotson, voted that he have leave of absence for four months or longer as he may require, and the Directors supply the pulpit. This was after much discussion, and after a report by a committee in regard to certain letters, that the "Committee with entire unanimity, believe that, in consequence of hereditary predisposition to mental aberration, stimulated at this time by physical prostration and disease, Mr. Tillotson was not capable of exercising his usual judgment and discretion."

☞ At a banquet of officers in Milan the other day, after various toasts had been drunk in allusion to the impending war, a zealous young Austrian officer proposed the following: "To the Austrian Army! The French and Sardinian battalions shall break against it like this brittle glass!" So saying, he tossed the glass, which he had just emptied, into the air, that it might fall heavily upon the table. It did so, but — without breaking. The young soldier stood aghast.

☞ John Newton, when his memory was nearly gone, used to say that, forget what else he might, he never forgot two things—1st, that he was a great sinner; 2d, that Jesus Christ was a great Saviour.

DIXVILLE NOTCH.—A gentleman passing through this mountain gorge last week, informs us that the snow lies for some distance in the road to the depth of ten feet.—Coos Republican, May 10.

☞ The New Orleans Delta of the 3d inst. says that the city is in momentary danger of an overflow, and that nothing but the most untiring diligence can prevent such a disaster.

A MOVING RACE.—The Brooklyn Ferry Company states that 3,709 loads of furniture passed over their ferries to and from New York, from the first of April to the 10th of May, 1859.

☞ A few weeks ago a wealthy citizen of Scott county, Ill., was sent to the Penitentiary for assaulting a man with intent to kill. On the 3d inst. he died from excessive depression of spirits. He was worth $75,000.

We observe in one of the papers that a school of boys is for sale,—something we should advise no one to purchase previous to the termination of the fruit season.—New Bedford Mercury.

☞ The New York Herald suggests that during the anniversaries in that city, something might be done to send a battalion of missionaries to convert Brigham Young and the Apostles.

"American painters are doing poorly in Italy"—but at last accounts there seemed a fine chance for a "brush" there.—Post.

SPRING MEDICINE.

Every one at this season of the year feels the necessity of some tonic medicine to restore the vital energy of the system, which is always more or less disordered; but all those, instead of resorting to medicine which they know nothing about, should use that which has been manufactured in their own immediate vicinity, and which has never been known to fail in restoring to action the vital functions, and resulting in perfect health. Such a medicine is Preston's Catholicon. ml3

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of this kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

Agent for Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER, cor. of State and Pleasant Sts., and No. 12 Market Sq. Weeks & Potter, Boston, General Agents for the New England States.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."

Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They speedily cure

LIVER COMPLAINT,	INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS,	DIZZINESS

PILES,	FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS,	LOSS OF APPETITE.

All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.

This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m12

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., and whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

ONLY A FEW WORDS

Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my

GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,

consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.

A. GREGORY.

N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiorumenos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN (10 pint day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiorumenos.

POISONOUS INFECTION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and certain. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or inoculated in contagion, or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. remedies. All cases of or not of date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in from one to three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

[From the Manchester Mirror.]

THE CANDIA BRANCH RAILROAD.

In the war of railroads now going on, Manchester must look after her own interests, regardless of the roads that are asking for patronage. She must see where the "shoe pinches" now, and look ahead in all her calculations to guard against similar "pinches" hereafter. The prosperity of our present large and growing manufacturing establishments and mechanical works, and the extension of the same till the splendid water power here shall all be taken up and our city have double the population it now has, and the surrounding farming country flourishes in the same ratio, greatly depends upon low tariffs for freight and passengers. In addition, Manchester must be easy of access from all quarters. Her chief want now is an outlet by rail to the east, to Candia, Auburn, Chester, Deering, Raymond, Dover, Portsmouth, Portland, and so on thro' Maine. A man coming here to do an extensive business asks the first thing, what it will cost to freight his stuff to Boston, New York, Portland, or points on the sea coast, and how long does it take to go to this place and that, have you telegraph communications in all directions, &c., &c. We have been able to answer most questions satisfactorily till recently, except about the means of travelling to the east.

We have taken a deep and abiding interest in having a branch road to Candia to complete the chain of connection with the only seaport town in New Hampshire, and to open the most direct route from New York to Portland. The distance is only nine miles, and the cost of the branch about $200,000, and the value to our city incalculable—millions. It would vastly increase our general trade immediately, and make Manchester better known by its being on a more direct line, and is sine qua non to the independence of our manufacturing interests.

Now this Branch is more important than ever. The railroads centering here are so dependent upon our heavy freight from which they derive the greatest part of their income, that our corporations have usually made satisfactory arrangements with them, and the roads below they could easily bring to terms by sending it over one road or the other as was for their advantage, or justice demanded. Of late the lower roads have clubbed together, played on the same string, making it uncertain what may be the tariff for the immense quantities of heavy articles used by our corporations.

It costs about the same for trucking coal, cotton, cloths, dye stuffs, iron, et cetera, in Boston, forty cents per ton on an average, as it would to re-ship it from Boston to Portsmouth, and if the Branch was built, it could be taken from the latter city to this place cheaper than by the present system. But much of the freight, the cotton and coal at least, might be shipped to Portsmouth, which has as good a port as there is on this Coast, as easily as to Boston.—The only obstruction is that the vessels would not find freight to carry back. That is true in part but not wholly. There is no better spot for getting ice than from the Massabesic Pond, and the quantity is large enough. It could be hauled by the railroad, at odd jobs, for a trifling sum, to Portsmouth, ready to be shipped. If the wealth of Manchester & Portsmouth, could be made to consult its own interests, it would build the brach forthwith.

There is no trouble this year in getting a charter for it, the railroads in this locality heretofore opposing now favoring it, and many of their stockholders are loudly in its favor. It would vastly increase the freight and travel over the Concord road from Manchester to Nashua, and from this place to Concord, and not injure that over the Manchester and Lawrence. Indeed, what benefits one, benefits all, as we regard the Concord, the Manchester and Lawrenc and the Portsmouth road as one and the same thing.

The lease between them is the same as a union, and when the lease was signed there was virtually a union, bitter as is the fact to acknowledge. There is no use "crying for spilt milk," and kicking a dead horse is senseless. The next question is now how it can be built, and what course Manchester shall pursue in reference to it. That question we shall answer at some other time.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

MONDAY, May 6.

The case of Geo. W. Tirrell vs. Dr. Timothy Haynes of Concord, is still on trial.—This is a suit for damages sustained by surgical mal-practice in setting the plaintiff's arm. The defendant testified to-day in regard to the manner of setting the arm.

The testimony will probably close on Tuesday forenoon.

☞ The cornice of the new Custom House is now going on at the southern part of the building, though many tons of stone are yet to go up to finish the walls. A week of good weather, however, will nearly clear the street of this material. And by the first of August, we presume the roof will be in its place.

☞ By the Arago, off Cape Race, we have news one day later.

Napoleon's manifesto appeared in the Moniteur of the 3d.

The Bank of France has raised its rate of discount to 4 per cent.

In the Liverpool Cotton market, prices closed on Monday fully 1-4d lower than on the previous Friday.

Breadstuffs opened buoyant, and prices advanced considerably for all descriptions, but the market closed quietly.

Provisions had an upward tendency.

Consols closed on the 3d at 90 a 90 1-2.

FROM EUROPE.—By steamers Weser and Borussia, from Bremen via Southampton, we have three days later news from Europe. The Italian war has been commenced, the Austrians having, after crossing the Ticino, taken the Bridge Buffalora after a sharp action, and also Mortara, the Sardinians retreating before them.—The Austrians were concentrating on the left bank of the Po, the advance occupying frontier Sardinian towns.

The Austrian Emperor, Francis Joseph, has issued his official manifesto of the occupation of Sardinia. 40,000 French troops are at Genoa, 15,000 of whom arrived on the 29th ult. Napoleon was to leave for his army on the 3d. Gens. Canrobert and Neil had already arrived.

England is making extensive preparations for war; there was great activity in her dockyards, and a proclamation had been issued for 10,000 additional seamen. The Russian army was to be put in readiness to march in consequence of the uncertainty in political affairs. From Turkey there was a rumor that the Porte was preparing for war, and Omar Pasha was on his way to Constantinople. Spain, it is said, is to remain neutral. The Italian population appeared unanimous in the cause of national independence. Count Walewski does not deny a written engagement between France and Russia, but claims that it cannot be interpreted as a hostile alliance against Europe.

Austria had called for a loan of £20,000,000. There have been heavy failures on the Stock Exchange.

By the wreck of the American ship Pomona, near Wexford, 28th ult., 386 lives were lost. She had 375 passengers and a crew of 52 men. Seventeen of the former are reported saved, and three of the latter. The rest were drowned, the ship sinking in nine fathoms of water.

A Royal proclamation was issued on Saturday, April 30, offering a bounty of £10 to able seamen, willing to enter Her Majesty's service, with the intention of recruiting 10,000 additional seamen.

The returns from the English elections, as far as received, give a balance in favor of the tories of ten.

The cotton market was much depressed; breadstuffs and provisions had considerably advanced.

New York, May 15.—The Mediation Offered by Great Britain.—The Galway Vindicator, of the afternoon of April 30th, in addition to the official dispatch received via St. John's, stating that the Austrians had crossed the Ticino, contains a Paris dispatch containing the announcement that France had declined the last offer of mediation tended by Great Britain. The reason assigned for declining this offer, that to have accepted it after the proposal of Russia for a Congress, agreed to by France, Prussia and England, had failed, it would be an insult to Russia to entertain the proposal of England alone.

It is intimated the depreciation of funded and share property in Great Britain, since the war, was regarded as certain, amounts to £220,000.

The United States and the War in Europe.—The Herald's Washington correspondent says Count Sartiges has let drop the expression "that the United States would also be drawn into it; that the Emperor had a sure scheme for that." There is but one scheme of the Emperor's by which the result could be brought about, and it is this—to induce Spain to sell us Cuba at a time when the hundred millions that she would get for it would virtually flow into his own exchequer, and when he felt certain that some other power would attempt to prevent us taking possession of the purchase.

The Arizona Scheme.—Advices received hear state that in a short time there will be concentrated on the borders of Arizona, and near the northern provinces of Mexico, at least 2000 armed men, under experienced leaders. It is understood that they will be invited by the Juarez government to aid him should it become necessary to establish his government permanently. It appears by this report there has been a secret understanding between the government of Juarez and the leaders of the Arizona colonization scheme. It is expected that Gen. Walker will meet them from the Pacific side with a large party, in some of the northern States of Mexico, probably Sonora or Chihuahua.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50;

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

ALLEN & FAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

PARAGUAY EXPEDITION.

The following extracts from a private letter, written by an officer in the Paraguay squadron, will be read with interest—tho' the events they mention are no longer news.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 28, 1859.

We arrived here yesterday from the up river navigation. I have enjoyed our trip up the river very much. I went about 800 miles above Montevideo and within 100 of Corrientes. We went under sail all the way, except a short tow of 20 miles through the great bend, or Vuelta del Norte.

All our difficulties with Paraguay have been settled, and the squadron is to return home immediately. I have heard that all the demands of the United States have been granted, except in the amount of the indemnification, which is to be settled in Washington by referees. The family of the man who was killed on board the Water Witch is to receive $10,000. The American flag is to be saluted, and the Paraguay government offered $500,000 as indemnification, which was refused—the demand being for $900,000 as damages to our citizens.

We were all sorry that the difficulty was settled so easily, as we hoped to get a little glory in carrying on the war—particularly as everybody on shore at this place and Montevideo thought there would have to be a severe struggle before Lopez would yield. We felt like the young lady in the play—that there was to be no elopement after all.

The steamers Westernport, Atalanta, Memphis, Southern Star and Caledonia were found to be poor affairs, entirely unfitted for the purpose for which they were engaged. Their machinery was inefficient and continually breaking down. It is to be hoped that the government will not retain them in the service.

I have enjoyed perfect health since leaving the United States, and although we were troubled with mosquitoes up the river, I found the trip very pleasant. It was a great change from the monotony of a sea life. We were awakened in the morning by the singing of birds, the grunting of river hogs, and the howling of tigers, of which we saw several and killed two of immense size, but were unable to secure them; one sank in the river, and the other hid himself in the bushes when dying.

I think there is more water in this river than there is in the Mississippi. The current runs at about four knots, by the log, above the town of Rosario. Occasionally we caught plenty of excellent pan fish, and we shot a great quantity of ducks, geese, plover and snipe. At times we passed trees filled with monkies and apes. Many of the trees were beautiful with luxurious foliage; air plants and other creepers abounded, mingled with brilliant flowers. As we approached Paraguay, the climate became warmer and the insects more numerous; for two days the atmosphere was filled with countless numbers of big grasshoppers or locusts—they covered every rope, spar and sail of the vessel, and many were seen floating in the water.

No accident has happened to any vessel in the squadron thus far, though they have all been aground on some of the bars except this vessel (I believe.) We have not touched bottom anywhere thus far.

President Urquiza exerted himself very much to prevent a war between the United States and Paraguay. He went from Parana, the capital of the Argentine Confederation, to Ascencion, to meet Commissioner Bowlin, Flag Officer Shubrick, and President Lopez, and urged the latter to comply with all the demands of the United States. You may remember that he was rescued by Mr. Pendleton and conveyed to the Water Witch, a few years ago, while he was besieging Buenos Ayres. But for this timely assistance he would have been taken prisoner and shot; for this reason he is very friendly to our countrymen.

It is said also that Urquiza intends to make war with Buenos Ayres again, and is trying to get the assistance of Paraguay, particularly the navy of the latter country. It is predicted that he will fail to conquer Buenos Ayres, and will be ruined in the attempt.

I believe the natives of this place and Montevideo are not very friendly to the people of the United States. The Argentine Confederation, however, have adopted the principal features of our Constitution for their government. Urquiza is admirably adapted for the people he has to govern, and is by far the best man and the best ruler in this country.

SELF CONSLATION.—When any calamity has been suffered, the fist thing to be remembered is, how much has been escaped.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, heat and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all disease of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge and yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & Co.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, put to one side my prejudice, without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof of the best proof (seeing is seeing) demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was bald in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!
PREPERED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS, the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These GUMS remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorate the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a permanent cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve sour stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

One dose often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while SUMMER & BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT
FOR SALE OR TO LET,
SAGAMORE HOUSE,
ON FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

At the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, 2 miles by water, from Portsmouth. The House commands a view of Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, the Navy Yard, Forts Constitution and M'Cleary, Portsmouth Harbor and the Isles of Shoals. The House is nearly new, and commodious, and has been occupied as a Summer Hotel. The out-buildings consist of a barn, corn house and bowling alley all in good repair. The grounds contain Six Acres, bordering Little Harbor and the sea, and are well stocked with Fruit Trees. The facilities for sailing, fishing and bathing are unequalled, rendering it a desirable place for a private residence, a private boarding house, or a public house.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,
Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insiduous inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last twelve years of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are ascribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicine sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right door by quacks, to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

TOWN PUMPS, AND WATER FOUNTAINS.—A company has been organized in Portland for the purpose of supplying that city with pure water from Sebago lake.—The pipes will be laid along the canal.

It is proposed in New York to establish numerous public fountains and hydrants, for drinking purposes. The design is an excellent one, alike for health, comfort and morality.

One of the attractions of respectable old Salem, is its jolly town pumps, which still send forth their rills as of old. The town pump immortalized by Hawthorne, is as flowingly beneficent to-day, as it was in days of yore.

The question of bringing the Croton Water within the easier reach of out-door people is now agitated in New York. The arguments that are applicable for that city, apply equally to Portsmouth and Boston.—The New York Post complains that "the Croton is now principally confined to the inside of houses, and the stranger, the laborer at his work, the casual way-farer who needs a drink of it, must go into some store, or restaurant, or hotel, to get the wished for boon." It is just so here. The Post continues: "This expedient is often inconvenient, sometimes troublesome to owners, and when the saloons and bar-rooms are visited, not a little dangerous. An over-heated man in dog days is often induced to quench his thirst with a draught from the questionable bottle of the counter, merely as an acknowledgment of the services of the proprietor, when a 'cup of cold water' would serve his turn much better, if it could be had without resort to the shops."

It was a woman who invented the town pump. She was an English governess, Jane Scott by name, and was prompted to this act of benevolence by observing how much toil the housewives of the neighborhood underwent in fetching water from remote and sometimes almost inaccessible springs. On her death she bequeathed a public pump to the village. In token of their gratitude, the people covered the cherished and prized blessing with a shed, on the beams of which they affixed a plate with the simple inscription, JANE SCOTT.

Since then the towns and cities of England have been pretty well supplied with pumps, although it was not till the year 1858 that a thirsty wayfarer of Liverpool could get a simple draught of water anywhere outside of the ale houses, (even if he might there,) and not till the present year that the Sahara of London was promised the sight of cool and refreshing pools. On the 12th of April just past an association was inaugurated in London, with such distinguished noblemen at the head of it as Lord Carlisle and the Earl of Shaftesbury, for increasing the supply of public fountains. Their movement was promptly responded to, and there was an immediate prospect that the thirsty souls of the metropolis would find at the corners of the streets and in the public squares a solace for their parching throats.

California has set off half a dozen of her counties, to be formed into a Territory, with the sonorous name of Colorado. This is to be the sucking slave State with which we have so often been threatened from the Pacific side. It is not a very pacific movement, however. If the movers work hard they may get the new State into the Union in time to secure three more electoral votes for the next democratic candidate for the Presidency. Colorado has at this moment as good a right to come into the Union as Oregon had three months ago. Perhaps her admission will be demanded at the same time with that of Kansas.—Traveller.

A DISCONTENTED DEMOCRAT.—We heard a democrat yesterday, growling at the Republican legislation of the State, where, he said, it is so arranged that for one dollar a man could get a license for a bull dog to run at large, that could disembowel a man at one bite, and then shut up a good citizen in jail for selling three cents worth of rum. He said something about leaving the State, which we hope he will not do, for should Mr. Buchanan live out the remainder of his term, democrats will be so scarce that they will be curiosities worth seeing.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ A man named Phillips, charged with murdering his wife at Cairo, and a man named Hanna, who recently escaped from jail at Thebes, were arrested at Vienna a few days ago, endeavoring to make their way to Palestine; and a man was arrested the other day for horse stealing at Carthage, and was sent back by the way of Warsaw. All this occurred in Illinois.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1859.

LETTER FROM CONCORD.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

CONCORD, May 17, 1859.

Messrs. Editors:—The news of existing war in Europe is inducing the farmers, all over the country, to plant and sow as much and as late as it will be safe to do, expecting that, by-and-by, heavy drafts will be made upon this country for corn, flour, pork and all kinds of such provisions as will bear transportation across the Atlantic. If all Europe shall become involved in war immediately, as it now seems most probable will be the case, then this country will be likely to enjoy soon a profitable carrying trade between the belligerent parties; and should this occur, it would make a stir in your good city, but would not so much affect matters with us here in an inland city. Our interests are largely identified with the success of the tillers of the soil, as this city is the centre of one of the best agricultural counties in New England, and the farmers constitute more than four-fifths of every one of the twenty-three towns which, with this city, constitute the county of Merrimack.—Your leading interests are more with the ocean, and yet largely with the excellent farming towns on the easterly part of Rockingham county.

In politics, our county is about as nearly equally balanced between the two great leading parties in the country, as is your Senatorial District; as in this county, last March, the votes stood, Republican, 4836; Democratic, 4784; being a Republican majority of but 52 in a vote of 9620;—while in your Senatorial District, the votes for Senator stood, for Bennett, Democrat, 2064; for Dow, Republican, 2028; being 36 Democratic majority in a vote of 4092.

By the way, this writing about votes reminds me that the Governor and Council counted the votes for Railroad Commissioner last week, and found 36,910 returned for the Republican candidate, and 32,853 for the Democratic candidate, and 16 scattering—in all 69,178, Sanborston and Brockfield adding nothing to the number. This gave a Republican majority of 3457. The official votes for members of Congress and for Senators, counted last week, give the following majorities by districts, which are ever interesting to men who look at party matters:

Congressional Districts		Repub. majority
No. 1,	75
2,	1060

Republican majority,		3414.

The Governor's majority will be about 3540, as he runs in this District 29 votes better than did the candidate for Senator, notwithstanding Democratic printed votes with Mr. Gilmore's name upon them, instead of the name of the Democratic candidate, were distributed about the District, and some 50 Democratic votes obtained for him at the expense of his opponent; and in your district the Governor elect ran 105 votes better than did the Republican candidate for Senator—in other words, his majority was 69 in the District, while the Democratic candidate for Senator was elected by 32 majority.

Mr. Marcy, for Congress, lessened the Republican majority on the Congressional vote some 500 or 600 lower than it is for Governor, or for any other officer voted for in your county, so that it is fair to claim in the State a majority of 3360, taking into the estimate the votes for Governor, Councillors, Senators, county officers, as well as for Members of Congress and Railroad Commissioner. But enough of politics, as we shall be oppressed with them so soon, as the Legislature will be in session in two weeks from to-morrow—a session to be made renowned and unpopular by an unusual amount of lobby management and the intrigues of "retained counsel."

We are glad up here in the capital to see the good degree of interest that is felt by the citizens of Manchester and Portsmouth in the project of restoring to the Portsmouth and Concord Railroad corporation the right to build a branch from Candia to Manchester, a right wickedly bribed out of its original charter. There will be no opposition to that measure, if it shall be allowed to stand on its own merits, but its former enemies, who proffered the bribe that did the deed, years ago, will seek to identify it with other matters, to aid along which they seek to use this project; but it must not be connected with the uniting of other roads, nor with the taking up of rails anywhere. Let it pass into effect in the same form in which it passed the House of Representatives.

There are points at which the connection between the roads can be made, so as to reach Manchester easily, and not have to build more than three and a half miles, and at the same time make a railroad connection between Manchester and the manufacturing village of Suncook, and soon up to Garven's Falls where, some day, will be a large manufacturing village,—and that connection uniting the Concord and the Portsmouth & Concord roads should be between Rowe's Corner and Martin's Ferry, or a little above Rowe's Corner to Martin's Ferry. At any rate, let us persevere until we have the branch, and let us have it in the best place, but let not a rail be removed that now connects Portsmouth and Concord, as the road is tight, as it is, to reach the great railroad business that now centres in this city, through the agencies of the Northern, the Boston, Concord & Montreal, and the Concord & Claremont railroads, to say nothing of the Contoocook Valley road, or the line of roads from Boston to this city. Keep the communication direct between the commercial and political capitals of the State, and yet secure the best possible connection with Manchester by means of a branch to the Portsmouth and Concord road leading thither.

We need no other railroad legislation, this year, than the Candia and Manchester branch; and a year or two hence we shall need a little more, just enough to open a line of travel from Littleton to Northumberland, giving a connection to the White Mountain and the Atlantic and St. Lawrence roads, so that Montreal and Quebec may be reached more directly from Boston; and so that all business between Coos county and the capital and Portsmouth, may be done without going out of the State; and perhaps a road from Portsmouth to Dover on the shortest route possible, will be needed to reach the Lake easily. There will be four times the company from here to the Shoals the coming season, I believe, to what there has been in any past summer. I will have less to say hereafter about railroads, but it is well to be sure all is safe which we desire. I look upon the branch as important and now as sure to be secured.

REFORM SCHOOL.—At Manchester, May 13, Governor Haile and Council, together with Hon. Horton D. Walker and Col. Kent of the Board of Trustees, paid a visit to the State Reform School. They were accompanied by Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, Hon. Daniel Clark, Hon. N. B. Bryant, Hon. E. H. Rollins, Hon. T. L. Tullock and others. After an examination of the premises and the boys in the dining hall, the guests and inmates repaired to the schoolroom, where they were addressed at some length by Messrs. Clark, Haile, Goodwin, Bryant, and Walker. The exercises were varied with singing by the boys. The American says all appeared very much pleased with the condition of the farm and the manifest improvement of the boys. The visit was entirely unexpected to the Superintendent, Mr. Shattuck.

As one of the results of amalgamation, the Detroit Advertiser says that in a certain house in that city reside two couples—negro men and white women—and that every night there issue from that den the most unearthly sounds—yells, groans, and cries of murder. Fights at night are not unfrequent.

All these things are bad, certainly; but it is droll enough that they should be the result of amalgamation. When we hear such noises, we always fancy the brawlers have been drinking.

☞ It is reported that nine-tenths of the people residing south of the Platte river in Nebraska, favor annexation to Kansas and an early admission as an independent and sovereign State.

☞ The Mare Island (California) Advertiser, hoists the names of Dallas and Gwin for next President and Vice President.

It is asserted that the American Minister at Rome thinks it not improbable that the Pope may be compelled to take refuge in the United States during the European war.

☞ A child, three days old, was killed in New York on Thursday; croton oil was administered by mistake for castor oil.

THE SLAVER.—Charleston, May 16.—The Grand Jury report that they find no bill of indictment against Capt. Corrie.

☞ Workmen have commenced demolishing the Melodeon building, adjoining the Boston Theatre.

☞ One effect of the war is the rise of foreign freights, which has already taken place in Liverpool, for Malta, Gibraltar, &c.

MOLASSES.—The almost certain prospect of a war upon the continent has started up the price of molasses. The rise in this market within two days has been from 4 to 5 cents per gallon. Holders here are stiff at the advanced rate.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ A Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Spirit of the Times, says two horses have recently died in France, aged 40 and 45 years—and the latter could trot nine miles an hour within a year of his death.

The State Department has further intelligence from Governor Cumming of Utah. He repudiates the idea ascribed to him of affiliation with the Mormons, and says it is an artful dodge of his enemies to injure him with the administration, to thereby bring about his removal.

SPRING MEDICINE.

Every one at this season of the year feels the necessity of some tonic medicine to restore the vital energy of the system, which is always more or less disordered; but all those, instead of resorting to medicine which they know nothing about, should use that which has been manufactured in their own immediate vicinity, and which has never been known to fail in restoring to action the vital functions, and resulting in perfect health. Such a medicine is Preston's Catholicon. m18

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

Agent for Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER, cor. of State and Pleasant Sts., and No. 12 Market Sq. Weeks & Potter, Boston, General Agents for the New England States.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."

Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure

LIVER COMPLAINT, INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS, DIZZINESS,
HEADACHE, HEARTBURN,
PILES, FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS, LOSS OF APPETITE.

All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.

This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herb and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m13

ONLY A FEW WORDS

Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my

GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,

consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frame Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.

A. GREGORY.

N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

"SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are still taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumnos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.

POISONOUS INOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become inoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or inoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two of three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within a week. Taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysm in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the medical profession, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find in it a speedy relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is particularly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. F. Tucker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 103 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. From Chesnut st. to No. 58 STATE STREET, next door below the Methodist Church.

☞ Enameled Photographs—just the thing to send in letters—only 25 cents—at LEVERTON'S 24½ Market Street.

LOCAL.

☞ We understand that the masters of vessels arriving here with cargoes, destined to go over the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, are highly pleased with the despatch found here, which is strongly in contrast with the delays and expense incident to hauling to and from the places of delivery in Boston, through half a dozen draw bridges each way. The vessels here come direct to the wharf and at once commence discharging, and are often at sea again within less than forty-eight hours from their arrival.

BISCACCIANTI.—Madame Elisa Biscaccianti, previous to her departure from this country, will make a farewell concert tour, and visit Salem, Lowell, Newburyport, Concord, Portsmouth, Portland, Augusta and Bangor. We also understand that her trip is to extend as far as St. John, N. B., giving one grand concert in each city.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Tuesday May 17.—The suit Tirrell vs. Haynes, for mal practice, is not yet finished. The testimony is all in, and Mr. Christie began his argument for the defence. The case will probably reach the jury on Wednesday.

RETURN OF GOLD SEEKERS.—The Atchison (Mo.) correspondent of the St. Louis Republican writes as follows, under date of May 7:—

"The Salt Lake mail has just arrived, and by the courtesy of Mr. Tracy the agent of the Hockaday Mail Line, I have just perused a letter from one of their agents at Cottonwood Springs. It gives a doleful and most disheartening account of the Pike's Peak emigration. Large numbers of disappointed gold hunters were already wending their way back to the pale of civilization. But this is not the worst feature of the business. They come back as many of them went, without any means of living on the way. Destitute of provisions or means of conveyance, disappointed and utterly disheartened, with broken hopes and blasted fortunes, toil-worn, foot-worn and heart-weary, these wretched adventurers come straggling across the plains, in squads of dozens or scores, begging at the stations for food to eat and a temporary shelter from the driving storms."

WASHINGTON, May 14.—All the new naval steamers will be placed in commission as soon as they shall be successively finished, and before the close of this year every available vessel will probably be in active service. This design, however, is not with reference to the European war, as no damage to our commerce is apprehended from that cause.

Vera Cruz is considered, in official quarters, to be one of the most important points where a large fleet is required, and hence additional vessels will be dispatched to the Gulf of Mexico The facilities in the neighborhood of Central America afforded by our squadrons, either for sea or land operations, are considered sufficient for all emergencies.

NEBRASKA AND KANSAS.—St. Louis, May 16.—The people of Southern Nebraska are earnestly agitating the annexation of so much of that Territory as lies south of the Platte River to Kansas, so as to secure her admission into the Union at the next session of Congress.

Public sentiment in that portion of the Territory strongly favors the proposed annexation, and it was recently resolved in mass convention that Nebraska City nominate delegates to the Kansas Constitutional Convention which is to assemble at Wyandotte in July.

The Nebraska delegation will undoubtedly be admitted into the Convention, and it is probable, in defining the boundary of the State of Kansas, the Platte will be designated as the Northern line.

In Exeter, on Sunday afternoon, May 8, two men who were intoxicated and fighting, causing disturbance, were arrested by the police and taken to the jail. One of them made such resistance that handcuffs were applied. On the way to the jail they passed through the yard of the 2d Congregational church, making much noise, and uttering profane oaths, disturbing the congregation, which was there assembled for worship. The two men arrested were taken before Thomas Smith, Esq., on Monday, and one was fined $5 and costs—and the other $8 and costs.—News Letter.

A SENSATION STORY.—New York, May 17.—The Courier and Enquirer's Washington correspondence says: It is believed by army officers and others that President Buchanan is quietly concentrating nearly the whole army along the Texas and Arizona frontiers of Mexico, and that a large fleet of war vessels is about to be gathered in the Gulf. It is the prevalent impression that the President is about to take the most decisive measures for sustaining the Juarez administration, and his movements are considered preliminary to a war of conquest and annexation.

PERSONAL.—The underwriters of Liverpool have presented Capt. John A. Burgess one hundred guineas as a testimony of their high opinion of his skill and energy in rescuing his ship, the "Monarch of the Sea," from a perilous situation. Capt. Burgess is an American.

☞ A fatal disease is committing great ravages among the hogs in Langamon county, Illinois. One man lost one hundred and nine in less than twenty-four hours.

FROM EUROPE.—By the screw steamer Vigo, intercepted off Cape Race, we have two days later news from Europe. She brings important news from India. Before her intelligence from the seat of war was received over the lines, they were reported out of order, and the despatch was abruptly broken off.

The advices by the Vigo are to the 6th inst., by telegraph from Liverpool.

The Swiss Federal Assembly has approved of the declaration of neutrality, of the measures of defence taken by the Federal Council, and has appointed Gen. DeFarier commander-in-chief of the army of Switzerland.

The Bank of Prussia, on the 3d inst., raised its rate of discount to 5 per cent.

INDIA. — The mail steamer Bombay brings the following news:

On the 2d of April Rajah Munsigh surrendered to Major Mead's five columns at Manandia.

Taulia Topee was captured on the 8th, by that force, assisted by the above named chief and by Cols. De Sallis and Rich's column. The combined movement attacked the rebels in front and rear, killing in one fight 500 of them, including three of their officers. The chiefs, however, managed to escape.

FROM CALIFORNIA—OVERLAND.—St. Louis, May 16.—San Francisco dates of the 22d ult. are here.

A land slide had occurred in the mining town of Monte Christo, killing four persons. The damage was also considerable, and mining operations had to be suspended.

The State Legislature had failed to provide for the $300,000 worth of bonds still outstanding, notwithstanding the people desired to pay every dollar of the State indebtedness.

Business was brisk at San Francisco, and money plenty. Gold dust continued to arrive freely, but there was no change in the market.

The wheat crop gives promise of an abundant yield.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I prefered yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

Morning Chronicle.

PARAGUAY EXPEDITION—II.

MONTEVIDEO, March 6.

We arrived at this place on the 2d of January, in 62 days from New York, and on the 8th of January we left to sail up the rivers La Plata and Parana. We had a very interesting and agreeable voyage of nearly two months, and arrived here on the 1st inst. We had sailed up the River nearly 800 miles, when we heard that the preliminaries of the peace had been signed, and there would be no war; and all the vessels were ordered to return to this place. On our way down we anchored at Buenos Ayres, but as the wind was blowing a strong gale, I was unable to go ashore. We remained there two days at anchor.

My health has been perfect since I left home. Up the river, we were much annoyed by immense numbers of mosquitoes and other insects, which stung us badly, and sometimes prevented us from sleeping; and at times the air was filled with countless numbers of locusts. But, notwithstanding these annoyances, I enjoyed the trip very much on account of its novelty. I saw many strange flowers and trees, some of which were beautiful; also many strange animals and birds. In some places the river is very wide and appears like a sea, no land being visible, or very distant. We caught some excellent fish, which afforded us an agreeable variety of food. Generally we were awakened in the morning by the singing of birds and other noises peculiar to an unsettled and desert country.

We passed only a few towns and villages, the banks of the river not being thickly settled as a general thing.

The squadron will be dispersed in a few weeks, and the different vessels will soon be sent home. I suppose another frigate will be sent out with a flag-officer to command the station, or perhaps the Sabine will return. Thus far all the operations have been conducted in the most successful manner, and I believe the United States have got all that they asked for, except the amount of money required for indemnification, and that is to be settled by arbitration in Washington. The Americans have made a good impression, but these people do not like any kind of foreigners.

Gen. Urquiza, President of the Argentine Confederation, was very friendly towards us, and urged President Lopez of Paraguay to make peace with us, and satisfy our demands on any terms.

Urquiza is the most powerful man in South America except the Emperor of Brazil, and well adapted to govern this country.

This harbor has a very animated appearance, as there are many men of war of different nations present.

CONCORD & BOSTON RAILROAD.—The annual report is just issued. The receipts for the year ending April 1st, 1859, were $459,659,99—of which $150,388,01 was from passengers, and $279,262,16 from freight. The expenses were $215,087,76 and the balance income after sundry other payments, has been appropriated as follows: three-fifths ($128,365 98) to the Manchester and Lawrence Road. The Concord Road has paid two dividends of 4 per cent. each, and has a balance caried to the contingent fund of $8,365 98. Total number of passengers carried during the year, 181, 541.

The road is well equipped, and managed with energy and fidelity. The stock is at par, and ranks as one of the safest investments in the Eastern States.

MAN AND WIFE BURNED TO DEATH.—We learn from the Somerset (Me.) Telegraph that the house of Mr. Daggett, in Embden, about four miles from North New Portland village, was consumed on Thursday morning, and, sad to relate, Mr. Daggett and his wife were burnt in the house. The fire was discovered by two sons of Mr. Daggett, men grown, who at once alarmed their parents, but instead of making their escape as they might have done, they attempted to save some of their furniture, and in so doing were overcome by the smoke and burnt with the house.

OLD PEOPLE.—Mrs. Anna Pope, of Spencer, Mass., reached her 105th year in December last. She retains her faculties to a remarkable degree, narrating to those who visit her, in the most vivid and animating manner, incidents during the Revolution, and for several years prior to that period.

☞ "A very respectable" gentleman in Stockton, California, cowhided a clergyman for reading the marriage service for an eloped daughter. She was joined in bonds, but her father was put under them—to keep the peace.

☞ The chain cables of the steamship Great Eastern weigh seventy pounds per link.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the information of those who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best of proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, which am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LAVINGTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, and, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a new hair now growing, and, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, and I had a little BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 454 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $5 a bottle.

PREPERED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best PURGATIVES and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These GUMS remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, and restoring health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of this disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents SNORING.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures CONSTIPATION.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two tea-spoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

One dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, when SUMMER & BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER and AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. ansl1y

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT

FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SAGAMORE HOUSE,

ON FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

At the entrance of Little Harbor, 8½ miles by land, 2 miles by water, from Portsmouth. The House commands a view of Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, the Navy Yard, Forts Constitution and M'Cleary, Portsmouth Harbor and the Isles of Shoals. The House is nearly new, and commodious, and has been occupied as a Summer Hotel. The out-buildings consist of a barn, corn house and bowling alley all in good repair. The grounds contain Six Acres, bordering Little Harbor, and are laid out and ornamented with Fruit Trees. The facilities for sailing, fishing and bathing are unequalled, rendering it a desirable location for a private residence, a private boarding house, or a public house.

FOR SALE.

The balance of the Sagamore Farm, adjoining the above, containing

FORTY-THREE ACRES OF LAND,

of excellent quality, suitably dividrd into mowing, tillage, and pasturage, with a fine lot of Fruit Trees on the same, and will be sold as a whole or in lots, as purchasers may desire,—all on liberal terms.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. These preparations are useless, being made up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 dly

☞ To the General Court, shortly to assemble, Uncle Toby would respectfully recommend that the members avoid champagne drinking, and liquor treats generally,—that they legislate carefully and sparingly, holding a session only through June and to the 3d of July. The less tinkering of the law, the better, except in those cases where hasty or careless legislation has left a blotch.

☞ Waiting a few minutes at New Market Junction, a drunken man, in the dress of a sailor, stumbled against an elderly gentleman. In a moment, looking back, he returned, with an apology for his rudeness, which showed him to be a civil and well disposed man, disguised with liquor. What a pity that such men should do such a foolish thing as to mingle wine and strong drink.

☞ Sunday afternoon, as a party of five Irishmen, all more or less intoxicated, were returning from a sailing excursion, the boat capsized in Salem harbor, and Michael Lee wrs drowned. His parents reside in Nashua.

A woman, who was sailing in Newburyport harbor, with a party, was drowned on the same day. Her name was Louisa Curry.

☞ A German in Philadelphia drank too much lager beer a few nights ago. He made a mistake on his way home, and stopped at the wrong house; thrusting his latch key into a large keyhole he vainly attempted to unlock the door, ejaculating Dutch oaths the while. A policeman, taking him for a burglar, seized him; he, taking the officer for a garroter, knocked him down. Things were becoming complicated, help was called, and the honest but intoxicated German was taken to the station house.

☞ It appears that the recent effort of the Hards of New York to re-unite the Democracy was owing to the consciousness that the Softs were, according to the New York Herald, "sitting in secret conclave at the St. Nicholas Hotel, meditating plans for the destruction of all that remains of the Hards in the State."

☞ The Rev. William Butt, a Methodist minister, who preached freedom in Kansas through all the troubles, and was persecuted by the Border Ruffians for his free State sentiments, has been transferred to the Arkansas Conference, and appointed Presiding Elder of the Texas district.

SOUTHERN CONVENTION. — After four days exciting debate, the Southern Convention at Vicksburg adopted a resolution that the laws prohibiting the slave trade ought tobeabolished.

With double vigilance should we watch our actions, when we remember, that good and bad ones are never childless; and that in both cases the offspring goes beyond the parent—every good begetting a better, and every bad a worse.

☞ The jury in the case of John Riley, who died suddenly in Brighton, a few days since, from eating a lobster, returned a verdict of death by apoplexy, induced by intemperance.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Dempsey of Jay, Me., was found dead on Otis Hill, in Fairfield, on Thursday. It is supposed that he was thrown from his wagon and received mortal injuries, or that he had a fit and fell out.

☞ The subscription list for The Constitution was circulated through the Treasury Bureau on Friday under Secretary Cobb's orders, which required that it should be carried to every officer. So says the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune.

Indian Physician.
Dr. B. S. GOODWIN
Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public general ly, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.
ADVICE FREE.
Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.
THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN. Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Dropsy, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, blotches of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.
No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!
Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for the speedy and permanent cure of ULCERS, BURNS, SCALDS, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub on in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1859.

☞ In making or amending laws, our legislators would do well to remember that many acts which look well on paper, are of little or no effect in practice; and that even a poor law may be changed, without being necessarily made better — as a critic on hymn books once said, certain editors had cunningly changed one weak line for another.

So of any institution, or usage, to be effected by a statute, as courts, or trials. A judicial system, being very imperfect, may be exchanged for another, by no means perfect, perhaps better in some points, and worse in others.

In theory, our courts are to administer justice without delay, and with the least expense. But every man, who knows the temptation to delay on the part of the lawyers, and the pertinacity of many parties to suits, knows that delay and large expense are almost inevitable under any system.— The aim should be to prevent the delay, and diminish the expense, as far as possible, and with as little change as may be.

☞ A strike recently occurred among some waiters at the Everett House in St. Louis. They demanded the discharge of the head waiter, refusing else to allow the next meal to go on; this was near dinner time; the proprietor smiled upon them, caused them to believe that they had carried the day, superintended the dinner himself, keeping the head waiter out of the way, and everything went on smoothly.— Dinner ended, the mutinous servants were called one by one into the clerk's office, paid off, and ignominiously expelled from the house. So ended the strike.

☞ Essex Co. market day, No. Andover, Mass., Tuesday, was as great success as the previous one at South Danvers. There were at least 2000 persons present. The society established permanent market days in Newburyport, on the 3d Tuesday in May and October; also two days in Danvers; two in North Andover; one in Lawrence, and one in Georgetown. The next market will be held in Georgetown the 3d Tuesday in June.

☞ The editor of the Bath Times, Mr. Gilman, states that the telegraphic news for his paper, with the night work consequent upon it, costs $1000 a year, and intimates that this item does not pay. He also states that he has offers of good paying business elsewhere—and calls on the Bath people to sustain the paper more amply, if they wish to keep it as it is.

Mr. Gilman's talent will readily command employment elsewhere, no doubt—as his talent is in the true newspaper vein.

HEAVY FAILURE. — Emery B. Fay, Esq., of Boston, the recent owner of Mercantile Building, and who was also in the new Post Office enterprise in Summer street, has failed for $300,000. His failure involves the extensive grocery firm of Dexter Fay & Son. It is the largest failure that has occurred of late in Boston.

FIRE AT NEW HAMPTON, N. H.—Last Friday evening, between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock, one of the buildings connected with the Institute was discovered to be in flames, and notwithstanding the great exertions of the citizens it was soon in ashes. Loss between five hundred and one thousand dollars. No insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defect in the chimney.

☞ Italy contains about as many inhabitants as the United States, on a territory about as large as New England. Her twenty-six millions of people speak one language. The battle of Austria bears against Sardinia, because the latter is liberal and progressive, while the former is despotic and priest ridden and king ridden. Austria sympathises with the Roman Church and the papal see. Sardinia goes for Italian liberty and religious liberty generally.

The Boston Atlas says:—

It is stated that Mr. John Appleton has gone to Maine to look after the delegates for the Charleston Convention, who are to be chosen next month. It is the opinion of Mr. Buchanan, we suppose, that he is most likely to secure delegates in those States where there is really no democratic party. For instance, we don't suppose there would be much objection to his getting all he could in Vermont, Massachusetts or Rhode Island. When it comes to such States as Pennsylvania and Illinois, he probably thinks there is no use in trying.

☞ An English Fire Insurance Company has repudiated the whole of their guaranties on the late fire at Valparaiso, amounting to £1,000,000.

FARMING TO SOME PURPOSE.

Prof. Mapes, near Newark, New Jersey, has a farm of 121 acres. The expenses for 1858 were $3152.60, and the income $11,627.88, leaving a nett profit, after paying all expenses, and paying a fair sum for the rent of the land, of $8475.28! Only 33 acres of the farm being in cultivated crops, the rest being grass and woods.

If some of our Eastern farmers, who are starving on farms three or four times too large to be profitable, would sell three-quarters of their land, and cultivate the rest thoroughly and scientifically, as the above farm is carried on, there would not be so much desire to go out West and South as we now hear of.

FOREIGN ITEMS.—By the Vigo.—Queenstown, May 16.—A despatch in the Moniteur contains the following, under the date of Alessandria, 4th, evening. The Austrians who had crossed the Po in small numbers at Camphia and Po, pushed the van guard as far as Salla.

The Austrian divisions reported on the right bank are still threatening the passage of the Po at Trassonato, but the river being much swollen by rain offers another obstacle to crossing.

The London Times, speaking of the Austrian campaign in Sardinia, says: "The military operation exhibits no other result than that, after some days on Sardinian soil, the invaders have not advanced more than thirty-five miles from the frontier River. It seems as though Austria had staked heavily for the opportunity and won it, and has now thrown it away. They have gained nothing by their choice of the movements and sudden initiation, except the power of making forced contribution on the enemy's country. Sardinia retains in her hands all the possessions she held which are connected by the lines of rails with each other, and with the Alpine passes into France.

The know nothing "two years' amendment" has been adopted in Massachusetts, the aggregate vote being less than 40,000. In 1856 the vote of the State was 160,000. A majority of only one-fourth of the voters, therefore, have put an odious amendment into the constitution. Who is to be blamed? —Bath Times.

Answer,—Nobody is to be blamed. It was an open question of expediency, to be settled by the popular will, — or if you please, by the exercise of popular sovereignty. The sovereigns who favored the measure voted yea;—those contrary minded voted nay,—those who had no mind, after the question had been discussed, or who did not dare to express it, staid at home.— So the question is decided, and decided right. The decision wrongs no one, takes away no privilege, invades no right—and should be odious to none except to those who desire ignorant or fraudulent voting.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The basis of the treaty arranged by Minister McLane is on the principle of that which existed before the treaty of Gaudaloupe Hidalgo, which regulated the commercial intercourse from the borders of Missouri to and from Santa Fe. In this case the right of way over Mexican territory is proposed with every prospect of success.

Ex-Commissioners Reed and Bowlin have met with a cordial reception from the President and others associated with him in the Government.

TO MARRIED LADIES.
The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition among the natives so easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant was recently obtained from Skenan-do-ah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It is nestly put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.
☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases; none else is worthy of confidence. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.
Circulars and references with pamphlet on diseases of women and private maladies generally.—Sent free on receipt of stamp—addressed to Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston, Mass.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—Those Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 16, '58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore laid very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

Agent for Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER, cor. of State and Pleasant Sts., and No. 12 Market Sq. Weeks & Potter, Boston, General Agents for the New England States.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."

Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure

LIVER COMPLAINT,	INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS,	DIZZINESS,
HEADACHE,	HEARTBURN,
PILES,	FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS,	LOSS OF APPETITE.

All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.

This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m12

ONLY A FEW WORDS

Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my

GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,

consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.
A. GREGORY.

N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.

POISONOUS INOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered years of misery from Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have in hundreds of cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B. — For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSEPESIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL, DROPSY, GRAVEL, LIVER COMPLAINT and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the wonderful diuretic quality of the article gives relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Odell, May 16.—Joseph and Frank Carlton, minors, were found guilty of throwing stones in the public streets; and sent to the House of Correction for seven days. Costs, $6.68.

Alexr. Stackpole plead guilty to a charge of being drunk in the street. Fined $3; costs $3.86.

Patrick Morrisey alias Brennan, plead guilty to a charge of stealing a brass girting chain and other articles. Sentenced to jail for 60 days; cost $7.52; and to $21.80, being treble the value stolen.

May 17.—Geo. Young plead guilty to a charge of loafing on a sidewalk, obstructing passing, &c. Fined $1; costs $3.69.

James Donovan plead guilty to a charge of being drunk in the street; and was sent to House of Correction for 30 days; costs $2.92.

THE CANDIA BRANCH. — The Manchester Mirror of Tuesday evening says:—"The Concord Railroad has set engineers at work to make a survey of the Candia Branch, and report upon a proper location and the cost of the same. They came upon the route this morning to commence the work. The operation of freighting coal over the Portsmouth road to Manchester works to a charm. Vessels like to come into Portsmouth harbor."

☞ John Halifax suggests that there is a talk of sending Hon. Messrs. Greenleaf and Marcy, as Democratic Representatives to General Court, from the third ward in this city. It would be a strong delegation.

☞ Hon. John Appleton, formerly editor of the Portland Argus, and one of President Buchanan's right hand men, was in this city on Tuesday, and visited the U. S. Circuit Court, where his friend Clifford was presiding.

☞ Madame Biscaccianti's agent is in this city, making arrangements for a concert to be given May 27.

Mr. G. Franklin Dennett, of Portsmouth, N. H., has been appointed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, Inspector of Stationary and Steamboat Boilers for this district.—[Dover Gazette.

LEAVENWORTH, May 17.—Letters from Denver City, state that there is a great scarcity of Provisions in the mines at Pike's Peak, and much suffering among the emigrants. Several deaths were reported from starvation, and the emigrants were in a destitute condition. An abundance of provisions, however, is on the way from here and other points. Contradictory reports prevailed regarding prospects. The general tenor of the intelligence, however, is not encouraging, but the unfavorable accounts are ascribed to the destitute and discontented emigrants.

No remittances of dust or rich discoveries are announced. Measures have been intimated for a New State. Delegates are to meet at Denver City in June to frame a State Constitution.

The overland express with two weeks later news is due. Arrangements were progressing for a public demonstration on its arrival.

Horace Greeley left with the Leavenworth delegation yesterday for the Ossawatomie Convention.

CRIMEA AND WATERLOO.—During the whole of the war in the Crimea, says the Naval and Military Gazette, there were not as many officers killed and wounded as on the crowning day of Waterloo. The number of officers killed and wounded in the Crimea was 768; the number at Waterloo being 862.

☞ News from Liverpool is received by the Canada to Saturday P. M., May 7.

The commercial intelligence by this arrival is important, embracing a further decline in cotton, a slight decline in all descriptions of breadstuffs, and an advance in all kinds of provisions.

No battle had as yet occurred between the opposite forces in Sardinia.

The Austrians had, however, been repulsed in attempting to cross the Po at Trassinaito, with considerable loss.

Baron Humboldt died at Berlin Friday.

FROM PIKE'S PEAK. — St. Louis, May 17.—A letter dated Fort Kearney, 8th inst., says that the Pike's Peak emigrants are returning in droves. Nine hundred wagons had passed the fort in a week.—The emigrants were in an extremely destitute condition and selling their wagons, horses and outfits for almost nothing.

The St. Josephs Gazette publishes a report of a serious difficulty between the inhabitants of Aurora and Denver City, resulting in the burning of both towns. Local rivalry was said to be the cause. The report needs confirmation.

☞ The Republicans of New Brunswick, N. J., have elected their charter ticket over the Democrats and Americans.

LEFT.—Thomas Mead, convicted of manslaughter in killing Jeremiah Agin, nearly two years since, but who was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court, has left Boston for parts unknown. His bail is $6000, in responsible hands.

The new trial, in his case, was a humbug. Never was guilt more clearly proved.

☞ The Rev. Dr. Cox is writing a series of letters in the American Presbyterian, designed to show that the Apocalyptic battle of "Armageddon" is, in all probability at hand, in the grand rupture of the peace of Europe now taking effect.

☞ About a year and a half ago, Nathaniel Eddy's house in North Oxford, was set on fire by sparks from a locomotive on the Norwich & Worcester Railroad. On Tuesday, a jury at Worcester gave him $1500 damages.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for June, 1859, has a fine frontispiece, Home and the Homeless. The July number will begin a new volume, viz. Vol. 59. Clubs get six copies for $10 per year.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICE $50!

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him t. accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure rights to early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uniformly favorable proof of great efficiency in any his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS. EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Rev. Mr. Sawyer, of Salisbury, who preached his half century sermon at Rocky Hill Meeting House last Sunday, is in his 79th year. Mr. Sawyer has always been accustomed to work in the field, even to this day when he has almost reached his fourscore years, and is still hale and hearty. In the fifty years of his labors, he has attended more than a thousand funerals, and married more than twelve hundred couples.

The old house is in good order; it was built in 1785, and has remained unaltered, giving us the style of church architecture and all the arrangements of the meeting houses of that day. It is the only meeting house that we know of in Essex county, of the old fashion. It is a square house, probably designed to accommodate some five or six hundred persons. It has entrances from two sides, and galleries all around. Over the pulpit, which is mounted half way up the broad side, hangs the old sounding board; and the pews are of the pen proportions, square, with high sides that youth half-grown can hardly look over, and supplied with hinged seats, that the youngest children will not forget to shut down noisily at the sound of the "amen" that closes the prayers. We hope the people will keep it as it is, in repair, and use it as a church, for a hundred years to come.

CLERICAL.—Rev. Charles Lowe, formerly of the North Church in Salem, was installed over the Unitarian Church on Central Hill, in Somerville, on Sunday forenoon. The Transcript says the church was crowded with an interested audience. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Ware of Cambridge; and Rev. Dr. Briggs of Salem preached an able discourse from the text in first Timothy, 3d chapter, 16th verse: "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness. God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory." An original hymn, written by Mrs. Lowe, and in which a touching allusion was made to the lamented deceased pastor, (Rev. A. R. Pope,) was sung by the choir with much effect, and the newly-installed pastor pronounced the benediction. Mr. Lowe enters upon his labors with every prospect for a successful ministry among the people who have chosen him for their spiritual guide.

THE MODUS OPERANDI.—The Gloucester News says "the question of preventing the extension of slavery is practically settled. That is to say, if we can secure a majority of Republican representatives in Congress from time to time, which we think we can do, no new state can come into the Union with a slave constitution. If we have not the power to secure a Republican majority in Congress, why then of course we can do nothing. It is very certain that success in a national election would aid essentially in securing such a majority, besides affording opportunity to convince timid men that the North does not propose to war upon the South—but rather to aid freemen there in asserting their rights against the oligarchy which now controls public affairs.

The practical question now is,—how can we best rid the avenues of national power of the corruptions which infest them under the name of democracy? The answer is not by division and dissension among ourselves, but by union, concession, energy, forbearance, and a due reliance upon the justice of our cause and a proper spirit of toleration in view of conflicting interests and opinions among men. The opposition can easily elect a President in 1860; and if we are beaten it will be because we are more obstinate than wise."

☞ David R. Atchison, still enjoys private life on his plantation in Missouri.—During a revival of religion in that section, he seemed seriously inclined; and some of his relatives, who are zealous and consistent Methodists, really had hopes of his conversion. But just then some friend sent him a barrel of his favorite old rye whiskey, he returned to his idol, and from that day he has been the same old "Dave" Atchison as of yore.

☞ The New York Herald, in an article upon the coming Presidential election, says:

"Never before have the universal democracy stood upon the threshold of a Presidential contest, so horribly cut up, distracted and divided into squabbling cliques and factions, as they now stand. All combined, the last Presidential election exhibits them in a popular minority of nearly four hundred thousand. Thus they have no hope for 1860 except in a cordial reunion among themselves."

Politeness goes a great ways. Henry Ward Beecher says, "an impudent clerk can do almost as much injury to his store as the neglect of the proprietor to advertise his goods." Two undoubted and significant facts, which every one interested will please bear in mind.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the hair; it will stop falling and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week will keep it from ever becoming gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test its virtues for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and to their friends who, from observation, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much healthier looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LYTHONTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight fever when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but a half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!
PREPERED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These GUMS remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of disease, and effecting a radical cure.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS and a preventive of CHOLERA.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

Only one dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures CONSTIPATION.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

Only one dose taken every morning will cure JAUNDICE and remove unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while SUMMER & BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for AGUE AND FEVER, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty and mildness, and we are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

ON FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

At the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, 2 miles by water, from Portsmouth. The House commands a view of Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, the Navy Yard, Forts Constitution and McClary, Portsmouth Harbor and the Piscataqua River. The House is nearly new, and commodious, and has been occupied as a Summer Hotel. The out-buildings consist of a barn, corn house and bowling alley, all in good repair. The grounds contain SIX ACRES, bordering Little Harbor and the sea, and are well stocked with Fruit Trees. The facilities for sailing, fishing and bathing are unequalled, rendering it a desirable place for a private residence, a private boarding house, or a public house.

FOR SALE.

The balance of the Sagamore Farm, adjoining the above, containing

FORTY-THREE ACRES OF LAND,

of excellent quality, suitably divided into mowing, tillage, and pasturage, with a fine lot of Fruit Trees on the same, and will be sold as a whole or in lots, as purchasers may desire,—all on liberal terms.

For further particulars inquire of the subscriber, 116 STATE STREET, PORTSMOUTH.

CLOTHING AT GREAT SACRIFICE.
E. GREEN & CO.,

For want of a place of business, on account of the recent fire, are compelled to rush off their remaining stock of CLOTHS, CLOTHING & FURNISHING GOODS, for a short time, at a great sacrifice, at

J. B. ADAMS' AUCTION STORE.

We take great pleasure in announcing to our numerous customers, friends, and the public generally, that it will be to their advantage of the purchaser to call and see what we cannot and shall not stay here but a short time, under such great expense and sacrificing sales. We intend to wind up business for the present, until our former store is rebuilt. We wish for all those having claims against our firm to present them soon; and those indebted to us, will confer a favor by coming forward and settling with us immediately.—We are to be found at J. B. ADAMS' STORE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by regular physicians come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, will receive prompt attention to the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jd dly

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.
78 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior advice for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and the one not granted, I think, is unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him in preference to any other, if they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained a enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN OR SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

Dr. B. S. Goodwin, Indian Physician,
Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.
ADVICE FREE.
Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and expel all diseases from the system.
THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN.
Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all kinds, Inflammations, Inflammatory Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.
No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!
Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858.

FRENCH
Steam Scouring and Fancy Dyeing,
IN BOSTON.
A. LEWANDO pledges himself, from long study and practical experience in his native country and throughout Europe, in the art of Chemistry and coloring, that he can produce superior fast colors, and his mode of preparing goods for coloring is such that the fabric will retain its former strength and lively virtue, and in no instance assume that dull, stinted look, unavoidably produced by dyers in this country.
Particular attention given to Dyeing and Refinishing, in a new and improved manner, Silks, Satin, Velvet, Merino, Thibets and Cashmere Shawls, Cantoon and Italian Crapes, Gimps, Fringes, Curtains, Piano and Table Covers, Hosiery, &c. Feathers colored and curled—by a newly discovered process, far surpassing anything yet offered to the public. He is prepared to dye and cleanse every kind of Ladies' and Children's Dresses, Silk, Velvet or Wool, plain or embroidered, without removing the trimmings, or taking to pieces.—Spots taken out without fading or changing color.
Silks, Silk Dresses and Ribbons watered.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1859.

☞ Baron Alexander Von Humboldt died May 6th, at Berlin, in his 90th year.—His birth-place was Berlin, and he was born a subject of Frederick the Great, who died in 1786. He was educated at Frankfort-on-the-Oder and at Gottingen. His love of science was early displayed, and his first work, on a geological subject, was published in 1790.

For many years he was looked upon with reverence by men of all countries, even those who felt little interest in science expressing veneration for one who had known all the great men of the age, who had seen Frederick and known Napoleon, whom kings, and people, and statesmen delighted to honor, whom rival races revered, and whose character and conduct were as pure and excellent as his mind was vast and his intellectual labors were various and extensive. Born in the same year with Napoleon, and himself the Napoleon of science, he survived the Emperor thirty-eight years, and died just in time to avoid the spectacle of the disturbance of the world's repose by the action of the Emperor's heir.

☞ It is given as evidence of the increasing business of the country, that the number of messages sent over the telegraph lines is rapidly augmenting. This will continue to be the case, whether business increases or not. The telegraph is hereafter to be the chief means of communication, not only between distant towns, but in the large cities between different parts of the same place. The mail is getting to be a "slow coach," and must in a great measure give place to the telegraph, as the post riders have to the railroad trains. It was a poor time for Congress, with the telegraph to compete with, to talk of raising the rates of postage. Such a measure, instead of increasing the receipts, would have given fortunes to telegraph companies.

☞ We learn from the Lynn Bay State that Messrs. Thomas Rand & Sons, the well known popular landlords of the Sagamore House at Lynn, have leased the mammoth Nahant House, on Nahant Beach, and will conduct that immense establishment the coming season. There are no more efficient or agreeable conductors of public houses, than mine hosts of the Sagamore—and Mrs. Rand is a queen among landladies. The Nahant House will lose none of its popularity, by the change of landlords, even though it has heretofore been under the direction of Paran Stevens of the Revere.

Foreign Items, per Canada.—Considerable portions of the French artillery had not been able to cross the Alps, the passes being blocked with snow. The sufferings of the French troops in crossing are said to have been terribly severe.

The Prince Archbishop of Vienna has issued a pastoral letter, attacking the crimes of Piedmont, and the ambition of Napoleon, and the opinion is expressed that war is not the gteatest of evils, but is often a glorious work accomplished in the service of equity.

Dr. Lardner is dead.

The Prince of Wales embarked on a British man-of-war at Civita Vecchia, for Gibralter.

Considerable animation is observed in the Naval departments of England. Additional vessels were being placed in commission, and recruiting actively going forward.

The London Times continues to assert its belief in the alliance between France and Russia, and argues that Russia would not have gone so far as she has without a previous understanding with France.

The Duke of Leeds is dead. He was the husband of Miss Caton of Maryland.

Rome, May 3.—Rome is most tranquil.—The French troops are not to leave.

Six thousand Austrians have arrived at Ancona since the 30th, with provisions for six months.

Sir Moses Montefiore failed in his mission to Rome in behalf of the child Mortara.

☞ Rev. Henry D. Moore, of the Union Church, Portland, returned on Tuesday evening from his Cuban tour, much improved in health. There was a pleasant reunion of pastor and people at the vestry, on which occasion a hymn of welcome was sung by the congregation. The chimes of the church were rung before the meeting, announcing the return of the pastor.

Personal.—The chime of bells on Union Church, Portland, rang a merry peal between 8 and 9 o'clock on Tuesday evening, on the occasion of the return of Mr. Moore, pastor of that church. He has been absent for about three months in Cuba, and returns with recruited health and renewed spirits.—Argus.

☞ Mrs. D. L. Willey of Manchester, put a milk can with water in it on the stove, and the steam forced the cork out and the hot water flew in her face, badly scalding her. The force threw the water to the plastering, wetting a circle three feet in diameter.

☞ The St. Joseph correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, May 18, notices the arrival at St. Joseph of one hundred Pike's Peakers, who give deplorable accounts of mining prospects and the sufferings on the Plains. It is estimated that twenty thousand men are now on their way thither, all or most of whom are destitute of money and the necessaries of life, and perfectly reckless. Desperate threats are made of burning Omaha, St. Joseph, Leavenworth and other towns, in consequence of the deceptions used to induce emigration.—Two thousand men are reported fifty miles west of Omaha, in a starving condition.—Some of the residents of Plattsmouth have closed up their business and fled, fearing violence at the hands of the enraged emigrants.

☞ A route agent of the Salt Lake service from Kearney to Laramie, writes from Cotton Wood Springs, April 28, that in a fight between Cheyenne and Pawnee Indians, eleven of the latter were killed. He concludes his letter abruptly to participate in the festivities, thus:

The mail will be along to-night, and I must close to go to the war dance. The blacksmith and wagon shops are both full of gentlemen from Pike's Peak, minus the gold and glad to sleep on the shavings. Great old country this.

Mining in Warren, N. H.—A company of men, with capital and experience, has been formed, for the prosecution of, mining in Warren on the line of the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railway.—About 3 miles from the village is found, in the side of a hill a large deposit of mineral substance, from which is melted silver, copper and lead. The deposite is of such extent and richness that the company entertain no doubt as to the financial success of the undertaking. Suitable buildings, with steam engine and crushing apparatus, are erected already. The miners to be employed will be mostly from the famous Cornish mines in England. Mr. Sheldon, who recently completed a survey of the Atlantic Telegraph Company's mines in Newfoundland, is expected to direct the engineering operation at Warren. Mr. H. W. Weeks, of that town, is also actively interested.—N. H. Statesman.

☞ According to the latest advices received from official quarters in Mexico, the main body of the Liberal army was on the 1st of May at Guanajato, under command of Gen. Guazua, who was making preparations for an advance on the city of Mexico. Much enthusiasm animated the troops.

The English and French fleets, with the exception of one vessel of each nation, have left Sacrificios, which is three miles from Vera Cruz, and thence all fears hostilities there are for the present at least quieted. It was supposed that Mr. Otway would be superseded by another British Minister, and the Constitutional government recognized by England.

☞ Alice Palmer, a servant girl residing at East Machias, Me., in a fit of passion, in consequence of having been accused of stealing a five dollar gold piece, from Mrs. Thomas Parsons, with whom she had been living, jumped into the river from a wharf, one day last week, with the intention of drowning herself. Her crinoline, however, buoyed her up until a police officer arrived on the wharf and reached her a "pick-pole," with which she was drawn ashore.

☞ In searching the house of Bishop Johnson, charged with murder, at Salt Lake, Utah, the United States officials were not able to discover the Bishop, but found therein his ten wives. Four of these wives are sisters, and the Bishop's own neices, and he has besides these, two sisters out of one family, and also a mother and her daughter. This is polygamy with a vengeance.

The African Slave Trade. — The N. Y. Evening Post, referring to the impression seemingly entertained by the American Tract Society that the African Slave trade is an abstraction, says—"A correspondent at New Orleans, a resident of forty years' standing, informs us that African slaves are landed along the shores of the Gulf of Mexico, and that he has conversed with persons who have seen as many as six hundred landed at a time. The Congos are very much like the common plantation negro, only their hair does not kink, while their feet are very small, with high instep, and well shaped."

Molasses.—Sale of 300 hhds., a portion of a cargo, of sweet clayed molasses at Portland on Tuesday at 30 cents. The balance of the cargo was withdrawn and is now held at 33 cents.

☞ Rev. Lemuel Willis, formerly of this city, has removed from Haverhill to Warren, N. H., and preaches to a circle of congregations in Washington, Lempster, Goshen, &c.

☞ The James Steam Mills, Newburyport, have declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent.

MARRIED.

In Rochester, Mr. Richard Patten, of West Amesbury, Mass., to Miss Lizzie Gray, of Barrington.

DIED.

GOOD FOR GRAVEL.
GOOD FOR GOUT.
GOOD FOR FEVER & AGUE.
GOOD FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER COMPLAINTS,
and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.
Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.
D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.
Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—
Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balsium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.
From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.
I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

HOME TESTIMONY.
From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.
We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.
From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.
Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it sold by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)
Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.
Poisonous Inoculation.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become inoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Secondary Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, which, if left to be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or inoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, who have lost their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove the potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Charles's London Cordial Gin.
The Original and only London Gin Imported.
This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or cordial now in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, spiritous flavor, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find it invaluable in relieving them from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounced Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None other is imported.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Decker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. ☞ We learn that Messrs. Jones & Mendum, the extensive dealers in dry goods in this city, have bought the building now occupied by Messrs. Daniel Knight & Co. and Hill and Carr, on Market Street, and are to enlarge and improve it the present season, for their own occupancy.

We also understand that Hill & Carr will occupy Jones & Mendum's present store; while it will be seen by Knight & Co.'s advertisement, that they have no other abiding place in view—and will sell off their new and large stock of hats, caps, &c., at very low prices.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Thursday, May 18.—The jury in the case of Tirrell vs. Haines, for mal-practice, came in with the report that they could not agree, standing 9 for acquittal, and 3 for conviction of the doctor.

The jury was then discharged—and the Court adjourned.

☞ The body of Nathan Wilbar, of Bridgewater, Mass., who was a marine at the Navy Yard, and who had been missing since the 2d day of April last, was found in Abram's eddy, in our harbor, on Monday. His remains were conveyed to Bridgewater, where his parents reside, for interment.

☞ The Manchester American, speaking of the Railroad controversy, says:

One of the practical effects of this controversy will be to turn public attention to the use of our own State Roads. B. F. Martin, Esq., informs us that he lately received a stock of coal from Portsmouth, costing him for freight but $1,50 per ton. Fortunately for the people of Manchester, we can yet reach the seaboard at Portsmouth, or the freight on coal and other articles would be 40 per cent. higher than it now is.

☞ Madame Biscaccianti, as will be seen by an advertisement, is to give one concert, only, in this city, on Friday evening, May 26th. On the next evening she will sing at Dover. She is such a well known favorite here, as to call for no new notice from us; but we copy a few, notes from a Hartford paper, noticing one of her late concerts there:

The concert by Madame Biscaccianti was all that we imagined it would be, from a previous knowledge of the sweetness and purity of her voice. Biscaccianti carries off the palm. Her voice has all the rich fullness of the notes of a Canary bird. She has her voice under such perfect discipline that the most difficult passages in opera are rendered with perfect ease.

Mr. Dennett, the basso, reminded us of Durand, though he was hardly his equal.—Mr. Evans, the pianist, plays well and with much taste. The instrument was one of Hallett & Davis's grand pianos.

Signor Biscaccianti played an accompaniment to one piece on his violoncello with good effect. He is a superior player, the best we ever heard.

From the Ballot.

SPECIAL ELECTION.—Albert R. Hatch and Sampson L. Russell, representatives elect from the third ward of this city, having both declined the honor of serving their constituents in that capacity, a special meeting of the citizens (as will be seen by notice in our advertising columns) has been notified to fill the vacancy tomorrow (Friday.) We understand that Daniel Marcy and Abner Greenleaf are the democratic nominees, and as we do not learn that the Republicans will make any nomination, it would not surprise us if they should be elected.

From the Ballot.

SLOOP-OF-WAR PORTSMOUTH.—This beautiful ship, acknowledged on all hands to be one of the finest vessels in our navy, and an honor to the skilful mechanics on the Piscataqua, has now her armament, stores and crew on board, and is all ready for sea. Her destination has been supposed to be the coast of Africa; but the breaking out of war in Europe will probably render expedient the increase of our Mediterranean fleet, and it is not unlikely that she will be ordered thither. We paid her a visit on Monday, and were well pleased with the graceful model and tidy appearance of the ship, the gentlemanly bearing of her officers, and the general aspect of her crew. We are satisfied that wherever she goes the flag of our country will be proudly and nobly borne.

☞ In the English market reports, the quotations of breadstuffs are no longer per "quarter" or per barrel but per "cental," which is the new hundred weight denomination recently adopted. The "quarter," or measure of eight bushels is now obsolete.

NAVAL.—The United States sloop-of-war Falmouth, from Rio Janeiro, for Boston, was spoken eighty-five miles south of Sandy Hook, all well.

☞ Arthur's Ladies' Home Magazine for June is out—and is fresh, beautiful, attractive, as usual. Published in Philadelphia, at $2 per year.

☞ The sales of flour at the Rowley, Ms. Glen Mills now average nearly 125 barrels per day.

☞ The Washington Correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

The Democrats in Tennessee write despondingly to their friends here of the prospect in that State next August. They do not pretend to claim any of the former majorities in the Congressional districts, and really fear losses which they are not yet willing to concess openly. The Gubernatorial contest commenced on Monday, and the State will be thoroughly canvassed durthe next three months.

PRICES GREATLY REDUCED.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,

PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;

2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;

3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;

4. Hemming and seaming attachments;

5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;

6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with

7. Economy of Thread;

8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

PARAGUAY EXPEDITION—III.

MONTEVIDEO, March 11.

The St. Lawrence, Flag Officer Forrest, sailed to-day for Boston, and I wrote by her to you. I have but little more to add. The dinner to Flag Officer Shubrick went off very well. All the officers commanding vessels were present except one; Judge Bowlin and his Secretary, Mr. Ward, and our Consul, Mr. Gale, were also present.—Flag Officer Shubrick made an excellent speech, as did the Judge and some others; Flag Officer Forrest made a short speech, and everything went off pleasantly.

This squadron will be dispersed as soon as the vessels can be got ready for sea. The cruise has passed off very pleasantly this far, and I think the expedition has been ably managed and satisfactorily terminated. I believe the United States have got nearly all they demanded, though the particulars have not been divulged here, and I suppose you will see it all in the newspapers before we can hear of it here. No serious accident has happened thus far.

The steamers of the Cromwell line were miserable affairs, unfitted for the purpose for which they were engaged, and the officers and men who brought them safely to this port are entitled to great credit. It is to be hoped that they will not be permanently saddled on the navy, for I think any board would condemn them as war steamers whenever they are surveyed.

☞ The Democratic committee of Illinois, in the address which they have just issued, reading Douglas out of the party, give the following definition of national Democracy:—

"By the term national Democracy we mean those who hold that the members of the party are bound to acquiesce in whatever course the party may deem proper under the guidance of its regularly constituted authorities to pursue, without regard to local prejudice or personal caprice."

This, says the Providence Journal, has the merit of directness. A national Democrat means a Democrat who does as he is told.

☞ Mr. Van Dyck, State Superintendent of Public Instruction in New York, has sustained the appeal of Miss Head, of Steuben county, who was refused a teacher's certificate because she declined pledging herself not to dance during her engagement as a teacher in one of the State common schools. So the New York school-marms can dance as much as they please.

☞ Mr. James M. Pendleton of New York was so unfortunate as to have a drunken coachman; this servant was, on Saturday, driving a pair of horses valued at $2500; he came into ignominious contact with the wagon of a grocer, and one of the horses was killed. John Brady, for that was the coachman's name, was held to answer to a charge of drunkenness.

☞ A calf, two months old, in Chester, S. C., became so excited while listening to the music of a brass band, that it began to dance and leap about, and so continued to do as long as the music was kept up, until finally it became as it were frenzied by the excitement; and after making one or two tremendous bounds, it fell and died instantly without a struggle. So says a Chester paper.

At St. Louis, the other day, a young man was employed to ascend a flag staff 98 feet in height, for the purpose of arranging the ropes. After completing his work, some one below, in a bantering manner, dared him to stand upon it. By a quick movement, he threw himself upon it, and then, upon one foot, balanced himself upon it, remained for a moment, composedly viewing the horor-stricken crowd. He regained terra firma with ease and in safety.

☞ On Friday evening, a German woman in New York, having lost one of her children by death, laid out its body upon some straw on the floor, and lighted a mourning lamp at its head. In the course of the evening her own dress took fire from the lamp, and she was so badly burned that she died soon after.

☞ At Philadelphia on Friday, a party of four boys who were bathing in the Delaware, off the end of Reed street wharf, raked up from the bottom an old canvas bag containing about $400 in doubloons.—The coins generally bore old dates. [Hoax.]

☞ On Sunday morning, very early, a fire broke out in the house of Mr. George Olney, in Brooklyn, and the family with great difficulty escaped. A servant girl, in a frenzy of fear, threw herself from a three story window, and was fatally injured.

☞ A number of the batters of New Orleans have signed a mutual agreement to close their stores hereafter on the Sabbath.

UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,

WITH IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 3, 1858.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.:

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudices without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, respectfully, your obedient servant, JOSIAH WEBB,

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted in that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

YOURS, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is growing itself into quite a business. The first, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think it has, from its own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. YOURS, respectfully,

D. B. THOMAS, M. D.,

No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds half a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 60 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

The Liver Invigorator.

PREPERED BY DR SANFORD,

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS.

Is one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These GUMS remove all the clotted matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, not affecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures Costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

One dose often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst forms, when NUMEROUS BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty and mildness. All persons are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

CLOTHING AT GREAT SACRIFICE.

E. GREEN & CO.,

For want of a place of business, on account of the recent fire, are compelled to rush off their remaining stock of CLOTHS, CLOTHING & FURNISHING GOODS, for a short time, at a great sacrifice, at

J. B. ADAMS' AUCTION STORE.

We take great pleasure in announcing to our numerous customers, friends, and the public generally, that it will be greatly to the advantage of the purchaser to call soon, as we cannot and shall not stay here but a short time, after such great expense and sacrificing sales. We intend to wind up business for the present, until our former store is rebuilt. We wish for all those having claims against our firm to present them soon; and those indebted to us, will confer a favor by coming forward and settling with us immediately.—We are to be found at J. B. ADAMS' STORE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are incurable, the books have no space for cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

The medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

This Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are sweet medicines, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. 32 ely

PRO AND CON.

The Manchester Union Democrat says, of the Presidential caucus:

"The present aspect of the field justifies these propositions: 1st, that the Democratic party will unite; 2nd, that the Opposition will organize a national party ignoring the slave question altogether, and giving great prominence to the Know-nothing and tariff issues; 3d, that at least one-half the Republicans of the New England States will bolt this arrangement' and try the negro question once more."

To this the American makes answer:—

"'1st.' It is possible that the Union Democrat has so far stupified its senses that it can believe the above, while the party lies dead in the gutter of political defeat all over the free North; at this time, when the country is echoing with the shouts of Republican victories, wherever dopular elections have been held; when the free millions of the North are expressing with more than usual emphasis their detestation of subserviency to Southern dictation.

"'2nd.' The opposition will have organized 'a national party, leaving the miserable fragment of sectionalism at the South, but the Republican party will not ignore the Slavery issues. Free Massachusetts has thought fit to ask all who may become naturalized, to remain at school two years to learn how to better exercise the right of voting. The tariff is an issue and one which will be made prominent by both parties, and the country demands its modification. The Union did, till it heard from its employers at Washington but a few months since.

"'3d.' The Republicans will try the negro question once more, as they have for the last several years. They will march to the polls everywhere true to the principles that have led them to victory. They will hurl their burning indignation upon those who betray the public trust and faith, while the high places are purified and filled with better men."

☞ In the Crayford Churchyard (Eng.) may be seen the following epitaph:—

"Here lies the body of Peter Isnell, thirty years clerk of this parish. He lived respected, a pious and worthy man, and died on his way to church to assist at a wedding, on the 31st of August, 1811, aged 70 years. The inhabitants of Crayford raise this stone to his memory, and as a tribute of his faithful service:

The life of this clerk was just threescore and ten,
Nearly half of which time he has sung out amen.
In his youth he was married, like other young men;
But his wife died one day—so he chanted amen.
A second he took—she departed: what then?
He courted and married a third, with amen:
His joy and his sorrows were doubled; but then
His voice was deep bass as he sung out amen.
His horn was exalted in blowing amen,
And he lost all his wind at threescore and ten;
And here with three wives, he waits till again
The trumpet shall raise him to sing out amen.

THE CROPS AT THE WEST.—The weather in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, &c., is considered very favorable for the growing crops. In a few of the interior counties of the former State, however, heavy rains are reported, and on low lands wheat is not doing as well as could be desired. Winter wheat on high and rolling lands is looking finely, and on the north bank of the Ohio harvest will commence in the course of ten or fifteen days, with favorable weather.—Persons who have passed through the principal corn growing districts say that a large breadth of land is being planted.

☞ The annual meeting of the Orthodox Congregational General Association of Connecticut, at Norwich, the 21st of June, will be the one hundred and fiftieth. Preparations are making for a century celebration. Dr. Bacon is to deliver a historical discourse.

The Vermont General Convention will meet at Vergennes on the 21st of June, and not on the 14th, as stated in the Year Book and papers.

☞ The Rocky Mountain News of April 23d, the first paper published in that mining region, contains voluminous gold news, all of a favorable character.

☞ Dr. Tappan, Secretary of the Maine Missionary Society, states in the Maine papers, that the receipts of that Society have fallen off $1,000 in donation since the year commenced, compared with last year.

☞ Garret S. Mott has recovered $1005 from the Hudson River Railroad, for running over the hose belonging to an engine which was playing on his house when it was on fire, whereby of its cutting the house was burned down.

FRENCH
Steam Scouring and Fancy Dyeing,
A. LEWANDO pledges himself, from long study and practical experience in his native country and throughout Europe, in the art of Chemistry and coloring, that he can produce superior fast colors, and his mode of preparing goods for coloring is such that the fabric will retain its former strength and lively virtue, and in no instance assume that dull, decayed look, unavoidably produced by dyers in this country.
Particular attention given to Dyeing and Refinishing the new and VERY SUPERIOR STYLE Silks, Satin, Velvet, Merino, Thibets and Cashmere Shawls, Canton and Italian Crapes, Gimps, Fringes, Curtains, Piano and Table Covers, Hosiery, &c. Feathers colored and curled—by a newly discovered process, far surpassing anything yet offered to the public. He is prepared to dye and cleanse every kind of Ladies' and Children's Dresses, Silk, Velvet or Wool, plain or embroidered, without removing the trimmings, or taking to pieces.—Spots taken out without fading or changing color.
Silks, Silk Dresses and Ribbons watered.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1857.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have more facilities for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, on good questions, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending, such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

THE SLAVE TRADE.—A Remonstrating Grand Jury.—The Savannah Republican publishes an indignant protest of the grand jury which recently indicted the parties suspected of complicity in the slave trade. The jurymen state that they were compelled under oath, by instructions from the Court, to find a bill in accordance with the law prohibiting the slave trade; but desire to be understood that they did so against their will. The protest is a curious document. It concludes as follows:

We feel humbled, as men, in the consciousness that we are freemen but in name; and that we are living during the existence of such laws, under tyranny as supreme as that of the despotic governments of the old world.

Heretofore, the people of the South, firm in their consciousness of right and strength, have failed to place the stamp of condemnation upon such laws as reflect upon the institution of slavery, but have permitted, unrebuked, the influence of foreign opinion to prevail in their support. Longer to yield to a sickly sentiment of pretended philanthropy and diseased mental aberration, of "higher law" fanatics, the tendency of which is to debase us in the estimation of civilized nations, is weak and unwise. Regarding all such laws as tending to encourage such results, and consequently as baneful in their effects, we unhesitatingly advocate the repeal of all laws, directly or indirectly, condemning this institution, and those who have inherited or maintain it; and think it the duty of the Southern people to require their legislators to unite their efforts for the accomplishment of this object.

This puts Uncle Toby in mind of a text, Rev. 12:12—"The devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." The Savannah jurymen, some judges of a court, and a South American tract society, all bowing down and eating such dirt as the slave power provides for their swallowing—and Northern freemen are invited to bow down and do likewise. Some will do it—but some will not.

NECESSITY OF AMUSEMENT.—Rev. James L. Corning, of Buffalo, has written a work entitled 'The Christian Law of Amusement,' wherein, among many most sensible things, he declares "there are many christian men and women worn out by dyspepsia and chronic melancholy, who could actually be trebled in value to the church and the world, if they could be persuaded to devote an hour every day, to mirthful sport just as scrupulously, as they devote a given period to reflection and prayer."

The necessity of recreation is becoming more generally recognized, even in the soberest quarters. Friends' Intelligencer, published in Philadelphia, makes the following observations:

"It is vain to ignore that part of our nature which impels us to seek relaxation and recreation, and causes in the young, a desire for amusement; it is in recognizing it as a part of the work of the great Architect, a want of our nature for which we are bound to make proper provison, that we can alone hope to win the young from those amusements which are hurtful, and lead them to those which are innocent, simple and also promotive of true enjoyment."

THE BEGINNING OF WAR'S DESTRUCTION.—The bridge over the Ticino, at Buffaloria, destroyed by the Sardinians, by blowing up with gunpowder, was a magnificent structure of hewn stone, 1000 feet in length, and cost, even in that country of cheap labor, nearly $700,000. It rested on eleven arches, and was calculated to last forever without requiring any repairs.

☞ A religious difficulty has sprung up in the Agricultural College of Michigan.—The institution has eighty-one students. Six sevenths of these have addressed a petition to the faculty, asking a return to an original rule, which requested all the clergy of Lansing to officiate in turn in the religious exercises at the institution on Sunday, including the Rev. Mr. Knickerbocker (Universalist,) who has been excluded.

☞ The Decatur (Ind.) Republican says that a child in Greensburg died, apparently, a few nights ago, and a coffin was ordered, but by some accident was delayed a few hours, during which time the child recovered, and is now entirely well. But for the accident with the coffin, it might have been buried alive.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the New York Post says that the negroes on the well known Custis estate, opposite to Washington, who were freed by Mr. Custis's will, are still hard at work on the plantation. Not one has been set free, and not only that, they are treated with great harshness.

When success makes a man better than he was before, he must be a good man indeed.

SENATOR DOUGLAS AT THE SOUTH.—A great deal of animosity is manifested against Douglas at the South, where they seemed determined to prevent his nomination at the Charleston Convention. It may be that Douglas will not press for the nomination at the next term, and may be willing to look a little farther ahead. The South has, however, got to yield to the Democrats of the Western States, who are with Douglas.

William W. Boyce, member of Congress from South Carolina, has written a melancholy letter on the political prospects of the South. He predicts that the sectionalized North will soon take possession of the government, and that the South will be divided and distracted on the slave trade issue, so that it will not be ready to meet the crisis as it should. He says that either Congress or the territorial legislatures must protect slavery in the territories, and if the Republicans should elect the next President the South should remain not remain a moment longer in the Union.

☞ The Democratic State Convention of Illinois have issued an address in which they read Douglas out of the party. This, coming at a time when it is rumored that the leader of the Democratic insurrection has made his peace with the powers at Washington, is quite remarkable. We suppose that it indicates ignorance on the part of the Illinois committee, rather than any disposition to resist the decree of the administration. Mr. Douglas will only laugh at the impotent manifestation.

The latest rebublican discovery is, that the democratic party is to harmonize regardless of the administration — that the ticket agreed upon is Hunter for President, and Douglas for Vice President, "giving the latter the track for 1864." "If Douglas will accede it is supposed this combination can be easily made." Such is the story.—"If Douglas will accede!" Then it seems Douglas has not acceded—has not traded himself off, and his neglect to do so will overturn this magnificent air castle. In our opinion Douglas will allow the people, whom he has never cheated, to make up their own cast of characters for the next campaign. More than this; if Stephen A. Douglas is not the next President we have small faith that any democrat will be.—Bath Times.

☞ A runaway slave was lately sent back to Norfolk by the captain of a vessel belonging to Hyannis. Another runaway, in a vessel at Bath, got clear, and has gone to the British provinces to be free.

THE GREAT EASTERN will be ready for sea in August, and if needed, she can transport 11,000 troops at a time. Such a vessel with 10,000 men on board might under certain circumstances win or lose an empire. If this war continues, we have no doubt her services as a transpot will be desired by some of the belligerents, but we think it doubtful whether the English government would be willing to allow her owners to let her for any such purpose.

☞ The largest mule ever produced in the world is now in Cincinnati. It is a mare, nineteen and a half hands high, and weighs eighteen hundred and thirty-five povnds. Recently purchased near Lexington, Ky.

Just previous to Count Sartiges leaving Washington recently, he openly said in a conversation with two well known gentlemen of the State of New York, that if there should be a European war he believed it would not be without embarrassment to our commercial relations, for the right of search would be reasserted and enforced. This remark was made with emphasis. The respectability of the party from whom this information was derived, leaves no doubt of its truth.

☞ Havana papers report that two cargoes of African slaves were landed recently on the eastern coast of the island, supposed by the two propellers reported off the island a few days previously, and which were supposed to be filled with fillibusters.

That was a beautiful idea expressed by a Christian lady on her death-bed. In reply to a remark of her brother who was taking leave of her to return to his distant residence, that he should probably never again meet her in the land of the living,—she answered:—"Brother, I trust we shall meet in the land of the living. We are now in the land of the dying."

☞ Patrick Grattan, postmaster at West Troy, N. Y., has been arrested for forgery. Mr. Sims, keeper of a country store at Camillus, N. Y., is under arrest as a counterfeiter, and plates, presses, and all the tools of the art, were found on his premises.

Birds and toads are among the best helps to the destruction of insects, and both should be protected. One hundred and sixty-two circullos were last year taken from the crop of one robin. Let the robins live, even if they do claim a share of the fruits. Let more fruits be grown for robins and human kind.

☞ An ascent of Mount Washington made by a party of two or three gentlemen on the 4th and 5th days of the present month, to obtain views for the stereoscope.

WASHINGTON, May 20. — Postmaster General Holt has sent to the President an elaborate review of the case of Postmaster Westcott of Philadelphia, concluding with an opinion that the public interests demand his removal.

Efforts are being made to supercede Mr. Dallas as Minister to Great Britain by Attorney General Black, and to replace the latter with Commissioner Reed, just home from China.

It is said the Attorney General is about to report in favor of the claim of Capt. Perkins of Boston against the Russian government, for $90,000 alleged damages suffered in consequence of the refusal of that government to fulfil a contract for the delivery of powder during the Crimean war.

Viscount de Treillard, the acting French Charge, is now in Baltimore, making contracts with clipper ships for his government.

W. D. Phillips, a lawyer from Iowa, and late Clerk in the General Land Office, is now in jail here, for the forgery of Senator Douglas's frank.

☞ By the steamer City of Baltimore, off Cape Race, we have dates from Liverpool direct to the 11th, and by telegraph via Queenstown of the 12th inst.

All qualities of cotton have advanced.
Breadstuffs are still lower.
Provisions are more quiet.
Consols had advanced to 91 3-4 a 91 2-3.
There has as yet been no battle.
The Austrian movements are inexplicable, but it is believed they are waiting favorable weather.
The Emperor and Prince Napoleon have left Paris for Genoa.

HOME TESTIMONY.
From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.
We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.
From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)
Knowledge is gained by experience, and though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

WEAKNESS OF THE KIDNEYS.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright's Disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not to perfect health.

R. R. R.
POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humours, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indescreet or improper intercourse. We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, who could easily be restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will stop all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
This Gin, distilled in London, from Malt Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restorative properties of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use. It is a delicious cordial, of a soft and mellow flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, traiteurs and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 37 Blackstone st.; R. LOCAL.

CANDIA BRANCH.—Better than a gift of millions of dollars, (says the Manchester Mirror,) would be the Candia Branch to Manchester, only nine miles long, to connect with the Portsmouth road, and of equal importance also to the city of Portsmouth, the farming towns on the line, and of great convenience to those travelling between Portland and New York, this being the direct route. New Hampshire people have been taken in so much by railroad stocks in cross roads, that even the $200,000 capital to build the Branch could not be easily taken up by private hands.

How can cheap freight be got? By building the Candia Branch. The railroad war has brought facts to light showing this. It was said that ship-masters were unwilling to come into Portsmouth with coal, cotton, &c. The fact is just the other way.

In addition to the fact that the harbor of Portsmouth is more convenient, is another important fact that the average cost of trucking goods in Boston to the cars is forty cents per ton, while at Portsmouth it costs but fifteen cents per ton to transfer from the vessel to the cars, making a saving of twenty-five cents per ton. The average freight to Manchester yearly is 60,000 tons, and that could come by Portsmouth $15,000 a year cheaper than by Boston, even if the railroad tariff from the former place was no lower than from the latter. This saving would give 8 per cent. interest on the cost of the Branch. But the distance from Manchester to Portsmouth is only three-quarters as great as to Boston, and if the freight was in proportion there would be another saving, on an average, of fifty cents per ton, $30,000 a year, enough to build and set the Branch in operation in seven years.—We have only calculated (says the Mirror) the benefit that would accrue to Manchester from this Branch. What would be the benefits to Portsmouth and the country from there here, we cannot say, but they must be very great. Who will build this Branch? We can't say, without the Manchester & Lawrence and Concord roads combined will do it. We have always thought, and now think that when they see their interests clearly they will jump at the opportunity.

These roads are now identical by a lease, and we are satisfied that they always will be by lease or union, and we are as willing that they should have one as the other—they have a lease of the Portsmouth road, and have to run it, and if they built the Branch they would put all the freight money coming from freight started at Portsmouth into their own pockets, instead of paying nearly half of it to other roads.—The corporations here would order their coal, cotton, oils, iron, and heavy articles by Portsmouth, and return their goods and machinery that way, and our traders would follow suit in reference to sugars, molasses, flour, salt, fish, and the like. Portsmouth has wealth and shipping enough to furnish everything as cheap as any firm in Boston, and the consequence would be, in time, that the heavy freight over the Northern, and the Concord and Montreal, would come by Portsmouth, the two roads reaping the benefit. Besides it would increase the travel immensely from New York via Nashua, Manchester, Portsmouth to Portland, and "Down East," these roads getting increased dividends out of it.

☞ It will be seen by his notice in our advertising columns, that Mr. Alfred L. Bennett has taken the jewelry store of Mr. Robert Gray, and is selling the stock very cheap. Mr. Gray has occupied that stand for about forty years, we believe; and Mr. Stephen Pearse is we think the only other man now in trade here, who has continued in business so long. Mr. Pearse has occupied nearly the same site for about sixty-six years. Mr. Gray, to his excellent skill as a mechanic, has added untiring industry, promptness, attention to business, and economy—qualities always indomitable to all obstacles, and sure of success.

☞ It will be observed that Mr. Lamprey has removed his Dancing Academy to Rechab Hall, in Market street, and is to commence a new class next Wednesday.—He is to have a half term now, and a full Fall term.

☞ The U. S. sloop-of-war Dale, Commander McBlair, arrived at this port Friday, 23 days from Cape de Verd Islands. All well.

A GOOD HEIFER.—Stephen Scammon, Esq., of Stratham, has an Ayrshire heifer, three years old this spring, from one week's milk of which he states was churned nine pounds of good yellow butter, besides her suckling a calf, ten days old on the day of churning. This was done on a hay feed, without meal or provender—and he thinks can't be beat.

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,
SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER,
DEPOT 22 BEAVER SREET, NEW YORK.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casabeca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balaium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifilingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

The Wheeler & Wilson

Medal Family Sewing Machine.

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50.

This Machine makes the Lock Stitch, which is the only stitch that cannot be raveled, and that presents the same appearance upon each side of the seam. It is made with two threads, one upon each side of the fabric, and interlocked in the centre of it.

The question is sometimes asked, wherein this Machine differs from some others claiming to be Family Machines. The reply is, that between them and this there is no point of similarity. Instead of making a chain-stitch, which leaves a ridge on one side of the cloth, and which will RAVEL OUT, this makes a lock-stitch, uniform and perfect on both sides, impossible to ravel, and consuming less than half the quantity of thread. Instead of using two needles, this employs but one. Instead of a shuttle, this uses a metal spool, which insures greater certainty of stitch. Instead of turning a crank with the hand, this is moved by the foot with the utmost ease, leaving both hands free for the management of work. Instead of work moving FROM the operator, it passes before him, from left to right, as in reading and writing. In short, both in principle and operation, it stands beyond comparison with any other instrument.

They are simple in construction, efficient and durable in operation, beautiful in model and finish, and suited to the workshop—applicable alike to the use of the family and the manufacturer.

Their speed is from 1200 to 2000 stitches per minute, or equal in efficiency to 12 seamstresses. Substituting as they do, healthful exercises and rational employment for the soul-and-body destroying drudgery of hand sewing, they are hailed as WOMAN'S FRIEND.

Among their undoubted advantages are—

1. Elegance of model and finish;
2. Simplicity and thoroughness of construction, and consequent durability and freedom from derangement and need of repairs;
3. Ease of management and rapidity and quietness of operation;
4. Hemming and seaming attachments;
5. Beauty of stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewed;
6. Strength and firmness of seam that will not rip nor ravel; and made with
7. Economy of Thread;
8. Applicability to a variety of purposes and materials.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.
PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others.

SPIRITS ABOVE AND SPIRITS BELOW. I did not expect there was intoxicating liquor sold there, for it was in the basement of a meeting-house, a store of goods being kept there. I went on business, a tippler came in, went into a somewhat dark place the farther part, and by the way almost under the pulpit, and I saw him drink. A little time after he appeared excited, was boisterous in talk, and withal religious, as intoxicated persons sometimes are. A man came in whom he took for the minister, of the church that met for worship in the place above, and he spoke to him in regard to going to his neighborhood, some five miles away, to hold a meeting.

Now I suppose the good spirit may often be in that place of worship, but I ask if it is fit to have such spirits in such close connection with the place of prayer? Is it proper to worship with destruction under our feet? Why, if the floor should give way, the congregation would go down among casks, drinking vessels and the like, in awful confusion. Even if the people did not believe there is a pit of woe, they might think they had got into what resembled one. I entreat all to not have intoxicating liquor kept and sold under a place of worship.

TRAVELLER.

STOCK GAMBLING. — One of the most celebrated financiers of New York and of this country, Jacob Little, failed in consequence of his extensive operations in stocks, which were depreciated by the intelligence from Europe announcing the certainty of war. With him went down some others, and there is no doubt that more will soon share in the catastrophe. Mr. Little bought on time, and the stocks now delivered are not worth what he had agreed to pay for them. He is thus rendered bankrupt. He will soon be afloat again on his element, an ocean of speculation. Like a true sailor he loves it for its excitements and its dangers. Nobody doubts that Jacob Little will pay one hundred cents on the dollar. At the time of the last panic, when he failed, everybody said he would turn out all right, and so it came to pass. The consequence was that his name was just as good after as before, and he would be trusted for millions. This is the fourth or fifth time he has failed, but he always comes right side uppermost in the end. No failures or dangers of failures deter this bold millionaire speculator.

The failures of Little and other stock-brokers here will not affect the trade or commerce of the country. He has merely lost money, which other men have gained. It is in the nature of gambling transactions—the gain and loss have changed hands.—Dealing in stocks is nothing else than gambling. Jacob Little has been a very successful operator; but, like other adventurous men, he is sometimes caught in the storm. Still his motto is, "Nothing venture, nothing win." He is the most enterprising and honest of speculators.—N. Y. Herald.

☞ Burleigh's New York letter of the 16th, to the Boston Journal, says:

The scandal in the Sickles case has not ceased. Mr. Sickles has come on to New York. His presence makes no sensation. The delicate conduct of the District attorney, in refusing privately the proposed testimony about Mr. Sickles conduct in Baltimore, while no secrecy and no compassion was shown in regard to the lone and forsaken wife, is commented on with much severity. Nor does the reason for the conduct of the prosecuting officers mend the case. It is said that the woman who was named in connection with Mr. Sickles, was one of much standing—that her husband was in court—that the matter would have been made public—and that he would have shot him on the box where he stood on trial. So to save double bloodshed and murder, the matter was hushed up.

DOUGLAS AND BUCHANAN.—A dispatch from the Tribune's correspondent states that though efforts have been made and countenanced by the various leaders to reconcile the differences among the Democracy, the President refuses to compromise with Douglas, except upon humiliating conditions, which must be rejected. A movement is now making to unite the North and South, irrespective of the administration, with Hunter for President, giving Douglas the track for 1864.

☞ It is said that efforts are making to remove Mr. Cutts, father-in-law to Senator Douglas, from the office of Second Auditor of the Treasury Department, in regard to which, it will be remembered, Mr. Buchanan wrote that he made the appointment without reference to Douglas.

LAKE VILLAGE.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal at Lake Village (Meredith) N. H., says:

"Our village, this season, seems to be looking up a little. Business is more brisk, and the prospects are still brighter. The manufacture of hosiery, which has been introduced into our place by Mr. Thomas Appleton and the Messrs. John and William Pepper, has added largely to the business of the place, and is said to be quite profitable to the manufacturers. We trust it is so, for they are deserving.

THE ONLY ARTICLE
UNRIVALLED IN THE MARKET,
WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the skin, cools and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, and I do so myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS.
Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies, but to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—quite in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

The Liver Invigorator.

PREPERED BY DR SANFORD.
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS.

Is one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

It clears the system of all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile. It is invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest, making healthy blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, and effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures CONTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effect of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while SUMMER & BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this compound as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice, he cured more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon the books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy, and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world-wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make known its virtues, that all who are afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN OR SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Any old and old nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

INCREASING COMMERCE WITH LIBERIA. The New York Journal of Commerce states that no less than four Liberian vessels have arrived in the United States this year, with cargoes of Liberian produce. Of what description and value those products are, may be judged from the cargo of the schooner Antelope, which arrived at New York on the 14th inst.. She has 14,000 pounds of sugar, 17,000 gallons of syrup, palm oil, camwood, and some coffee, and could have obtained double the quantity of sugar had she waited ten days longer, as the farmers were busy manufacturing it, and bringing it down the St. Paul's river to Monrovia to market, where it found a ready sale.—These facts are plainly indicative of the progress already made by this infant Republic, and augur well for their future prosperity and position as a commercial nation.

We have yet another progressive step to notice. A colored firm, Messrs. Johnson, Turpin & Dunbar, have established a commercial firm in New York in connection with one at Monrovia for the purpose of facilitating and promoting the Liberian trade, and have purchased the barque "Mendi," a vessel of 300 to 400 tons burthen to run as a regular freight and passenger packet between this port and Monrovia, making three or four trips a year. They have also contracted for a small steamer, which they design to run coastwise between Cape Palmas and Monrovia, touching at all principle points to collect freight and passengers, and to connect with the above vessel on her regular sailing days.—Traveller.

Jones, at Washington sees a fine turnout in the shape of a hack. Hails the driver, and engages it at three dollars an hour, to explore the magnificent distances. Driver is to be at Willard's puntually, in fifteen minutes. Jones goes to his room, turns over a new leaf, hurries to get the ladies ready, and descends to the door. Finds a shabby, yes a very shabby hack and scarecrow horses waiting. Thinks he will wait a moment for his own hack. Driver accosts him with "Mr. Jones and two ladies! Ready, sir?" "Why, you aren't the man I hired!" replies Jones. "No, sir. He's the carriage what gets the jobs. I'm the carriage what does the work."

☞ The City Marshal of Rockland, Me., seized 2000 gallons of liquors a few days since, from eight different shops and hotels in that city.

PRONOUNCING.—"La! ma, here's an hegle." Ma, (reproachfully) — "A hegle! Oh! you hignorant gal. Vy, it's a howl." Keeper of the menagerie—"Axes parding, mum, 'tis an awk!"

There is this difference between happiness and wisdom: he that thinks himself the happiest man, really is so; but he that thinks himself the wisest, is generally the greatest fool.

☞ Life Illustrated, Fowler & Wells's weekly paper, is to contain a series of articles called "the Builder." The Life is a good family and miscellaneous paper.

☞ Hon. Daniel Clark, of the Senate, has sent us parts 1 and 2, of the Congressional Globe, for the last session.

☞ Rev. J. N. Chase has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist Church in New Boston. Mr. Chase has received a call to take charge of the Baptist Church in Shaftsbury, Vt.

LOTTERIES.
THE LOTTERIES OF
WOOD, EDDY & CO.,
Are chartered by the States of Delaware and Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Delaware or to Georgia, as the Lotteries of
WOOD, EDDY & CO.,
are authorized by the Legislature of either State.
A Lottery will be drawn every day at Wilmington, Delaware, and also at Augusta, Ga. All orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after same comes to hand.
Whole tickets are $10; halves, $5; and quarters, $2.50.
No ticket sent unless the money accompanies the order. Prizes vary from $20 to $50,000.
Every prize is drawn, and the result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.
☞ A circular showing the plan of receiving it. All communications strictly confidential.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has from a humble origin an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for many generations past, to bestow it upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M.BECK.

REALITIES OF WAR.

There is probably about as much reason for the present war in Europe, as for wars in general. An aggressive tyranny (all tyranny is more or less aggressive) covets more dominion. This coveting is resisted; and a strife ensues. Who suffers? not the princes, but the people. See what a London writer says of the soldiers now leaving Paris, from day to day.

The great majority are married, and have young families mainly dependent upon them for support. The evident distress depicted upon their faces is a mute protest against the folly and wickedness of war.—The street before the bureau militaire is thronged by multitudes of these wives, who have in not a few instances walked many weary miles to learn their fate at once. It is heart-rending to watch these pale, anxious faces, awaiting the fiat of the medical board. The chance of exemption is but small, the men being generally in splendid health, and when they come out and tell the dreadful news,—il faut partier de suite—the scene is agonizing in the extreme. The parting generally takes place then and there. The muster roll is called over, the women are forcibly thrust aside, while their husbands are formed into squads, and marched off to receive their uniform, their knapsack, and, in short, every part of their equipment except their musket and side-arms. They are then left to themselves, and ordered to proceed to the Etat Major in the Place Vendome, where they receive their feuille de route, and the final order to join the depot of their regiment.

No one can walk for half an hour in the Rue de Rivoli or the Boulevards without being struck by the number of these sons of Mars reeling along in various stages of intoxication. Up to the last few days a drunken soldier was as rare a phenomenon in the streets of Paris as a beggar in rags. A great many conscripts also passed through on their way to their corps—boys with tears in their eyes mostly, thinking of home, but endeavoring to look smart and soldier-like, and trying to get up a faint show of enthusiasm. What between grief and vin a quatre sous, they are never sober, and can just manage to stand. They know very little about what they are going to fight for. One group of these aspirants for the marshal's staff, which every French soldier is supposed by popular tradition to carry in his knapsack, I overheard shouting lustily, as they entered the terminus of the Lyons Railway, "A bas les Russes!"

IMPORTANT BIBLICAL DISCOVERY.—The London Athenæum says Prof. Tischendorf, sent by the Russian government on a journey of exploration, states that he has succeeded in discovering a manuscript of the Holy Scriptures, from the fourth century, consequently as old as the famous manuscript of the Vatican, which hitherto, in all commentaries, maintained the first rank. This it will have to share in future with the newly discovered manuscript, if Herr Tischendorf be not mistaken. In 346 beautifully fine parchment leaves, of such size that only two can have been cut out of one skin, it contains the greatest part of the Prophets, the Psalms, the Book of Job, the Book of Jesus Sirach, the Proverbs, the Song of Solomon, and several of the Apocryphyal Books of the Old Testament; but then the whole of the New Testament is complete.

Another valuable discovery of Professor Tischendorf's is described as an undoubted and complete manuscript of the Epistle of Barnabas, and of the Sheperd of Hermas, both belonging to the second century of the Christian era, and originally standing in the esteem of the Scriptural Epistles. Herr Tischendorf hopes, from the munificence of the Russian government, that he will be enabled to give immediate publication to these three manuscripts.

☞ As Mr. Thomas Smith, of Glendale, Mass., was drawing burning fluid from a barrel, it ignited from a lamp and exploded. He with other young men were thrown down and badly burnt. The concussion blew out the doors and windows, broke the crockery, &c. The fire also caught in several places. A man caught up a keg of gunpowder that was near the flames, and carried it out of the store. The keg was so hot that he dropped it once; but knowing the danger to the large number of people assembled, he picked it up again, and carried it some distance and threw it over a wall.

THE DYING NEVER WEEP.—It must be because they have reached a point too deep for earthly crying and weeping. They are face to face with higher and holier feelings, with the Father in heaven and his angel throng, led on by the Son himself; and what are the griefs of a mourning, tears of a dying farewell—be it that they are shed by the dearest on earth; in that vision bright of immortal life and everlasting reunion.

☞ The praise of the envious is far less creditable than their censure. They praise that which they can surpass, but that which surpasses them they censure.

☞ The latest foreign news, which informs us that no serious collision had occurred in Italy, and also of an advance in cotton and decline in breadstuffs, indicates that the panic in England had abated. It is probable that developments had occurred which led to the belief that the war would be short and confined to Italy, or perchance that the quarrel would after all be adjusted by negotiation.

The censure bestowed upon the Austrians for inaction and indecision (says the Traveller,) is probably undeserved. The dash upon Turin and the Sardinian army, so flippantly talked of in the English papers, was not practicable, and if it had been practicable would not have been safe. It never could have been contemplated by the Austrians, with the knowledge that bridges could be broken down and roads obstructed and flooded, and that they would be liable to be cut off from a return to their line of defence by the advancing French armies.

The Emperor of Austria, in his proclamation, said he had directed his army to enter Sardinia. This was probably all that was contemplated for the present, namely, an entrance into the Sardinian territory, to give the "ruler of France" an opportunity to make good his threats and bring matters to a crisis.

In her present isolated position, without allies, and with so powerful a combination against her, it would be folly and madness for Austria to make any materially offensive inroad into the enemy's territory.—Certainly she would not do it, until she had first gained some advantages in her defensive position, unless circumstances favored her trying a pitched battle just beyond the frontier, in a position where she could fall back upon her fortified lines.

The position of the Austrians in Lombardy is a very strong one, and they must be wise enough not to be tempted too far from it. Their rear is covered by the Alps of Tyrol, while in the south it is protected by the river Po, a broad and rapid stream, difficult for armies to pass. In the heart of these territories they have a grand quadrangle of fortresses, Verona, Teschiera, Mantua, Venice, etc., with the fortresses of Milan and Pavia forming mighty advanced works upon the extreme western wing of the position, while south of the Po, Bologna guards the approaches to that river. Any flank marches of the French upon this position would lead through the passes and defiles of the Appenines and be attended with great danger.

Notwithstanding the strength of their position in Lombardy, the Austrians will need all their skill and energy to maintain even this defensive position, because the French, having command of the Adriatic, with their powerful navy, have a great advantage in acting upon the offensive and harrassing their enemy.

☞ Recent letters from France state that Protestantism in that country is suffering renewed persecution at the hands of the Roman Catholics. Among the recent laws passed which are designed especially to bear upon the Protestants, are those which provide that no minister born or educated out of France can in future be received as pastor by any of the Protestant churches; and that Protestants shall not receive any more grants or help from abroad to support their Churches. Should these laws be enforced, the result will be most disastrous to the Protestant cause in the empire.

☞ The first effect of the European war has been to inflate prices; we hope the second will be to induce the farmers to plant largely. At the South and West the crops were far advanced before the war, but in the North and East it came in time to bid every farmer do his best, for the highest prices are to be realized from whatever he can produce.

☞ There are half-a-dozen claimants of the two rewards of $1000 each, offered by the City and the police of Boston for the detection and conviction of Wm. McNulty, the murderer of officer Hodsdon, at East Boston, a year or two since.

☞ The work of removing the Boston Post Office back to its old quarters in State street was begun Thursday, and in a few days the greatly improved apartments in the Merchants' Exchange will be occupied by the "men of letters."

TIME IS MONEY.—The clock at Westminster, England, has cost the nation $110,000. Punch says it is a strong exemplification of the homely truth, "Time is Money.'

☞ The inquest into the cause of the death of Miss Butler, at North Adams, has resulted in a verdict by the coroner's jury that she died of "peritoneal inflammation."

A Yankee with the yellow fever may very properly be called a Northern man with Southern feelings.

The war news has a singular effect on many commodities. Among others it has stiffened molasses at Portland.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for June, 1859, has a very clever Breakfast Table. The contents of the number are—Shakspeare's Art; Mien-yaun; Joy-Month; A Trip to Cuba; Some Inedited Memorials of Smollett; Bloodroot; The Differential and Integral Calculus; Bulls and Bears; The Sphinx; A Charge with Prince Rupert; Spring; The Stereoscope and the Stereograph; The Minister's Wooing; The Professor at the Breakfast Table; Reviews and Literary Notices; Recent American Publications. May be had at Locke's Periodicol Depot.

"TO CUBA AND BACK," by R. H. Dana, Jr., is the title of a volume from Brown, Taggard & Chase, Boston. This narrative sustains the reputation of the author of "Two Years before the Mast," of which more than a hundred thousand copies were sold. A very large edition of this new book is passing through the press, but it will soon be exhausted.

SPIRITS.—Last year (1858) 27,370,934 gallons of proof spirits were distilled in the United Kingdom—6,731,871 in England, 12,403,696 in Scotland, and 8,235,367 in Ireland. Duty to the amount of £9,195,154 was paid on 23,686,751 gallons of spirits, the duty being at the rate of 8s and 6s 2d per gallon.

PITTSBURG, May 20.—Jacobs and Evans, convicted of the murder of their wives, were hung at 2 o'clock this afternoon.—The execution was strictly private. No military were present, and but very few persons were admitted. The crowd outside was not large. Jacobs declined making any speech at the gallows, but Evans spoke for an hour and a half. Both died hard.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a certain remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

Agent for Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER, cor. of State and Pleasant Sts., and No. 12 Market Sq. Weeks & Potter, Boston, General Agents for the New England States.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."

Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure

LIVER COMPLAINT,	INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS,	DIZZINESS,
HEADACHE,	HEARTBURN,
PILES,	FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS,	LOSS OF APPETITE.

All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.

This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m13

ONLY A FEW WORDS

Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my

GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,

consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with picture frames, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.

A. GREGORY.

N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

R. R. R.

POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of secret disease—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restorative of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GOLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c. while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and climate.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; E. LOCAL.

☞ About 2 o'clock Sunday morning, the Iron Foundry and Machine Shop of Phineas Drake, at the South End, was discovered to be on fire, and in an hour or two was totally destroyed. Mr. Drake states his loss at about $9000, on which was insurance of $4000, half each in the Haverhill and So. Reading Companies. He thinks the fire the work of an incendiary, as the iron was poured off and the furnace let down by 5 o'clock, and he himself was there at 10, and one of his workmen passed by after 11, and the watch about 1, and there were no signs of fire.

☞ The U. S. sloop-of-war Dale, which arrived here Friday, from the coast of Africa, via Porto Prayo, had a beautiful passage from Porto Prayo of twenty-four days. Some heavy weather in the Gulf Stream, under triple-reefed topsails, and dipping in water over both sides, the spar deck afloat and the staterooms below somewhat deluged, was the exception.

The crew and officers are in good condition, though suffering from the cold and damp and fog of New England's coast.

The Dale went into commission in April, 1857, at Norfolk; sailed on the 5th of May, and has been two years and some weeks in a ceaseless cruise. There are no ports in Africa save St. Paul; it is all open, rolling sea. For mental recreation you have no church, no society, no civilization. It is the naval Botany Bay.

The Dale brings home the captain and crew of the barque Sea Flower, of Providence, R. I., wrecked on Cape de Verd, in April last. The officers of the Dale are:

Commander, Wm. McBlair.
Lieutenants, Davidson, Cummings, and Meade.
Purser, J. S. Cunningham.
Doctors, Engles, and Dean.
Midshipman, McDougal.
Boatswain, Hasker.
Gunner, Gaskins.
Sailmaker, S. G. King.
Carpenter, John A. Dixon.
Purser's Clerk, Robert Speiden.
Captain's Clerk, Wm. Morgan.

BREWERIES.—Manufactories of "Dutch Swill" are rapidly multiplying in New England—the more's the pity. Portsmouth has two, with rumors of a third—Exeter and Manchester each one or more. Who says "hard times?"

☞ The Great Falls Advertiser, in speaking of the Mount Vernon Testimonial given there a few weeks since, compliments some of our Portsmouth singers in the following manner:—

"The Granite State Bards from Portsmouth furnished the vocal music. They are vocalists of the first class, and are undoubtedly the best company of singers now organized, and we hope soon to have the pleasure of listening to them again, in the Concert Hall, in this place, where good singing can be appreciated."

SHOCKING MURDER AND SUICIDE.—The telegraph reports a horrible tragedy in New York Thursday afternoon. The parties, Julius Openburgh and wife, as we learn from the Express, had been married for five years, but about a year ago a German woman from the old country appeared, who had been married to Openburgh in Germany, and the woman whom he has killed left him and went back to her parents.—This so enraged Openburgh that he threatened to follow her until he should kill her, which threat he has terribly fulfilled. He was sitting in a lager beer saloon, next door to his wife's residence, when she went in for some beer. As she passed out he followed her into the house where her parents lived, and shot her. He then shot himself through the heart. No one saw the deed, but such are believed to be the facts, as they were found lying side by side upon the floor, bathed in blood. Near the woman was found a six-barreled pistol, and by the man's body a large-sized horse pistol. The woman was about 22 years of age, and the man 35.

THE BIBLE IN HAYTI.—Availing themselves of the present favorable opening for Protestant effort in Hayti, the Massachusetts Bible society have presented to James Redpath one hundred French Bibles and Testaments, which he will distribute at Cape Haytien, Plaisance and Port au Prince.—This is doubtless but the beginning of earnest missionary efforts to supplant the present corrupt Catholic form, which, with the pagan rights and ideas of the Vandowe Order, prevails to so great an extent in that interesting country. Of all modern nations the Haytiens are probably the most tolerant of opinion; even the Catholic priests in the interior, have been known to give up their churches for Protestant service! Yet little has ever been done to Protestantize Hayti. We hope that the day of such indifference is past, and that our churches will turn their eyes to this hopeful field of labor.—Traveller.

A recent traveler who made the tour of the United States, mentions a very singular custom, which he says, prevails in Philadelphia. We give his words: "Every time an engine in Philadelphia gets a new hub or a fresh coat of paint, five hundred men feel it incumbent on them to lose a day's work and get up a parade."

LECTURE ON PHYSICAL EDUCATION.—The Transcript states that Dr. Geo. B. Windship, of Roxbury, has prepared a lecture on Physical Education, which he will soon deliver. He has for several years devoted much attention to the subject, and is practically qualified, as few men are, to speak on it. Dr. W. is twenty-five years of age, five feet seven inches in height, and weighs 143 pounds. In proportion to his weight, he is belived by many persons who have examined into the question to be the strongest man ever known.

He can raise a barrel of flour from the floor on to his shoulder; can raise himself with either little finger, till his chin is half a foot above it; can raise 200 pounds with either little finger; can put up a dumb bell of 141 pounds; exercises daily with two dumb bells weighing 100 pounds each, which he can raise alternately above his head; can lift with the hands 926 pounds dead weight, without the aid of straps or belts of any kind. Topham, the strong man of England, could raise only 800 pounds in the same way; and the celebrated Belgian giant could lift only 800. With straps it is supposed that a person could lift nearly four times as much as by his hands alone. If this is correct, Dr. W. can lift at least 3500 pounds.

Dr. W. is a thorough gymnast; and when he graduated at Cambridge, five years ago, he was without a competitor. It is his theory that almost any able-bodied man can, by a right system of exercise, not only greatly augment his strength, but add materially to his physical health. A lecture from a man so eminently qualified to speak on the subject of physical education, cannot fail to command attention, and to be listened to with interest. He will illustrate his lecture by some remarkable exhibitions of physical strength. We hope to hear and see him in Portsmouth.

Most truly did Theodore Sedgewick say that it is the man of robust and enduring constitution, of elastic nerve, of comprehensive digestion, who do the great work of life. It is Scott with his manly form. It is Brougham with his superhuman powers of physical endurance. It is Franklin at the age of 70, camping out on his way to arouse the Canadas, as our hardiest boys of 20 now camp out. It is Napoleon, sleeping four hours, and on horseback twenty. It is Washington with his splendid frame and physical strength.

☞ The great double-team trotting match between Ethan Allen and mate and Lantern and mate, for $5,000 a side, occurred on the Union Course, Long Island, last Wednesday. Won by Ethan, of course, in almost "no time."

The first heat is said to have been the fastest on record for horses in double harness—2:24 1-2. The mates of the contending horses are driven at a run to keep pace with the trot of Lantern and Allen.

☞ A despatch from Louisville states that the two democratic candidates for Congress in the 6th district of Kentucky—Mr. Rice, the independent nominee, and Mr. Garrard, the regular—had a difficulty on Monday, which resulted in a bloody conflict. Mr. Rice received two shots, and is dangerously hurt, and a bystander named Smith was shot dead.

☞ The Wilmington Herald says it is reported that B. B. Botts and O. S. Wise, editor of the Richmond Enquirer, fought a duel on Tuesday evening, and that Wise was killed.

☞ U. S. steamer Memphis, Capt. Marchand, and the Atlanta, Capt. D. B. Ridgeley, arrived at New York May 20, from Montevideo March 25, having in company steamer M. W. Chapin, which they left off the Delaware, bound into Philadelphia.

Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps.
GOOD FOR RHEUMATISM.
GOOD FOR DYSPEPSIA.
GOOD FOR GRAVEL.
GOOD FOR GOUT.
GOOD FOR FEVER & AGUE.
GOOD FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER COMPLAINTS,
and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.
Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.
UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.
D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.
Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—
Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is somewhat less than the very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.
From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla; but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.
I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their
Celebrated Family Machines,
with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.

Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."

Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

UNANIMITY OF JURIES.

The Lord Chief Justice of England lately introduced into the House of Lords a bill for the abolition, so far as relates to civil causes of the law, which requires that the verdict of a jury shall be unanimous. The majority of the House agreed with Lord Lyndhurst that a law which had existed for five hundred years, should not be altered without some weighty reasons, and refused their assent to the bill.

The antiquity of the practice is probably about all that can be said in its favor. The increasing disposition of juries to disagree leads many to believe that substantial justice could be best attained by dispensing with the requisition of a unanimous verdict—as has been in practice in Scotland for many years with the best results. If eleven men are of one opinion, their decision should not be laid aside by the opposition of one, who may lack in judgment, or who has been bribed by those interested. Bribery can rarely be extended beyond one person. Popular opinion is undergoing a change in this matter, and the time is not far distant when a modification of our jury system will be made.—The suggestion thrown out in the Journal a few weeks since has been extensively copied, and in no instance have we seen an argument offered in opposition to accepting a verdict returned by eleven men.

FUN.—Last week, in the U. S. Circuit Court in this city, Mr. Hackett, in moving the Court for time to plead, said that the Legislature of this State had in effect abolished special pleading and authorized the proving special matter under the general issue and a brief statement, and enquired whether this Court would recognize such a modification, or whether it followed the old rules of pleading!

Judge Clifford.—The rules of this Court and the rules in regard to pleading, and not local legislation, regulate the rights of parties in this matter. What would you think of the regulation of one of the Western States, which, in abolishing special pleading has provided instead, that all pleading shall be in conformity with "common sense!"

Mr. Hackett.—I agree that such a requirement would be unreasonable!

CATHOLIC BURYING GROUND.—The Catholic Society in this city, have purchased a lot of about two acres, a little beyond the Plains, on the north side of the Greenland road, next west of the rail road crossing. It will be consecrated by Rt. Rev. Dr. Bacon, Bishop of this diocese on Sunday afternoon, May 29th. At the late Fair they raised about $400—of this sum they paid $300 for the land, and the balance, with such sums as the lots may be sold for, will be used to enclose, arrange and ornament the ground.

GREAT FEAT.—On Thursday last, two hod carriers at the new Custom House bantered each other on their relative strength. To test it, they increased the contents of the hods by degrees until each bore on his shoulder a hod weighing twenty pounds, and seventy wet bricks weighing about four and a half pounds each. They each bore the weight of 335 pounds, and ascended a ladder twenty feet with their burdens. They were preparing for a heavier load the next time, but the overseer forbade them.

MUNICIPAL.

In Board of Aldermen on Thursday evening:—

Moses H. Goodrich asked leave to encumber Hanover and Market sts. while building—granted.

The subject of widening Hanover street at the corner of Market, referred to committee on streets, with power to act.

Application of City Marshal to have the Bridewell whitewashed, and two additional cells built—referred to committee on Police, with power to act.

The Chief Engineer was requested to hand in an inventory of the City property held by him.

Voted, that the wheels and iron work of Engine No. 4 be painted and varnished.

No quorum in the Common Council.

SPECIAL ELECTION.—Albert R. Hatch and Sampson L. Russell, Esqs. representatives elect from the third ward of this city, having both declined the honor of serving their constituents in that capacity, at a special meeting of the citizens on Friday, Hon. Daniel Marcy and Hon. Abner Greenleaf, the democratic nominees were elected.—The Republicans did not make any nomination. The whole number of votes cast was 18.

From the N. H. Gazette.

☞ A special election was held in Ward No. 3 in this city on Friday forenoon for the election of two Representatives to the General Court, to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignation of Messrs. A. R. Hatch and S. B. Russell. Hon. Daniel Marcy and Hon. Abner Greenleaf, both Democrats, were unanimously elected.

ANOTHER PORTSMOUTH REPRESENTATIVE NOT RESIGNED BUT "G. T."—N. K. Raynes, Esq., Representative from Ward 1, started last Thursday evening for Texas. In view of the bad luck we have had in making Democratic Representatives from this city stick, it is suggested that hereafter they be required to furnish bonds that they will visit Concord sometime during the session of the Legislature to which they may be elected.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—That portion of the 2d Artillery, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Hamilton, N. Y. Harbor, under the command of Col. Justin Dimick of this city, has been ordered to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. These troops returned from Florida about two years ago.

It will be seen that Mme. BISCACCIANTI, who gave so acceptable a concert here a few months since, will next week on Friday evening, make a farewell call, and once more give a display of her wonderful vocal powers.

SOLICITOR FOR SULLIVAN COUNTY.—Levi W. Barton, Esq., of Newport, has been appointed Solicitor of Sullivan County in place of Geo. Tickner, Esq., resigned.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color (whether gray or any other hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for putting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My half is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully, HENRY DENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me in the first trial, also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle, the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds about 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $6 a bottle.

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT

FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SAGAMORE HOUSE,

ON FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

At the entrance of Little Harbor, 8½ miles by land, 2 miles by water, from Portsmouth. The House commands a view of Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, the Navy Yard, Forts Constitution and McClary, Portsmouth Harbor and the Isles of Shoals. The House is nearly new, and commodious, and has been occupied as a Summer Hotel. The out buildings consist of a barn, ice house and bowling alley, all in good repair. The grounds contain Six Acres, bordering Little Harbor and the sea, and are well stocked with Fruit Trees. The facilities for sailing, fishing and bathing are unequalled, rendering it a desirable place for a private residence, a private boarding house, or a public house.

FOR SALE.

The balance of the Sagamore Farm, adjoining the above, containing

FORTY-THREE ACRES OF LAND,

of excellent quality, suitably divided into mowing, tillage, and pasturage, with a fine lot of Fruit Trees on the same, and will be sold as a whole or in lots, as purchasers may desire,—all on liberal terms.

For further particulars inquire of the subscriber, 176 STATE STREET, Portsmouth.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year several hundred persons in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are described upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 d1y

BUSINESS

In buying and selling in these days, is retained only by the most active and energetic. Most of the wants of mankind are not real, but artificial and imaginary. We need ten thousand things, not to support life or to actually add to our happiness. We know to begin with, that they will endanger life or increase our cares and perplexities, but since we have seen them or read of them, we purchase and use them. Hence, if a merchant would induce trade, comes the necessity of exhibiting his wares and merchandise; and hence the necessity of advertising what he would sell.

Get up a great exhibition, like the world's exhibition in London, or a national Fair in New York, and what is the result? The Spaniard or the German goes to London, and sees what he before had no idea of, as the production of a distant land or a manufacture of new style, and straightway he goes home and introduces it into Spain or Germany. So the trader from the western or southern States carries back from New York some pattern of goods or style of fashion, and as soon as seen, it is in demand through all the distant States. Some Kossuth comes along with a peculiar hat, and everybody wants that hat; some Jenny Lind wears, it may be, an ill-shaped comb, and instantly all the comb factories must make the like, for it would not be becoming for a lady to go out without a Jenny Lind comb.

So it is to a greater or less extent with every merchant or trader; he increases or decreases his trade as he exhibits what he has for sale. It is folly for him to sit down, and say—"well, if people want, they will buy; and if they don't they will not!" If people only purchased what they really needed, half the merchants of the world might turn farmers at once, and trade would be reduced to a small compass.

But the sight of the eye and the mental vision are alike effectual in creating wants. Persons cannot travel everywhere, but they can read of everything. The merchant, too, can neither spread his goods in the streets, or cause everybody to pass by and examine them if he did; but he can announce that he has them, and describe them and their uses to all the world. And hence comes advertising, by which a man retains his old customers and obtains new ones; by which one town draws from the traffic of another.

We had a man call and stop his paper awhile ago, because, he said, he could not afford to take it. He was possessed of some property, and we were a little surprised.—Seeing that, he said—"I can afford to pay the simple subscription of four dollars; but I can't pay fifty or a hundred that it really costs me." "How is that?" we asked. "I have a wife and three daughters," he rejoined, "and I think, to speak within bounds, and to say nothing of the loss of time in shopping, that each one of them purchases to the value of $20 per annum more than she would if they never saw the advertisements. I will give you ten dollars a year for your paper, if you will publish the reading matter alone." Now this man's experience is the experience of the world.

The newspaper is the daily directory, pointing every man, woman and child to things beautiful to the sight, pleasant to the ear, and gratifying to the taste; and when the eye runs over the columns, the exclamations burst forth—"O, I must have this—I will see that—how beautiful must those be!" So it happens that a town which has no newspaper loses half its attractions, and the people pass by what is at their door to purchase the same in the city. So, in the town where ever so many papers are issued, the unadvertised store is unpatronized.—That store may have a better assortment of goods than another where the goods are better displayed, more properly arranged, and more widely known; but they will not sell so fast or so well. Look around and see if every day's experience does not prove our words true, and let the traders take our advice to their own advantage and advertise wherever they may expect trade, and keep themselves living and active before the people.—Herald.

DEATH OF A MISER.—The Newark Mercury chronicles the death of Wm. Patterson, a Scotchman eighty years old, who has been known in that vicinity for the last quarter of a century as the "Swamp Miser." He lived and died talking of interest and gain, and during his last illness asked the doctor, who had been called in spite of his objections, what he was going to charge for his visit, saying he would rather spend the money for something else. Neither would he have a clergyman, saying he believed none of their doctrine. His belief was peculiar. After a certain number of years he expects to return to this world a young man, and he had amassed his property with a view to that event, expecting to receive it again with interest when he returns.—Two nephews, it is said, will inherit his large property. The furniture of his room consisted of three chairs and three chests; one of the chairs and one of the chests made his bed, and he lay upon them without covering, seldom undressing himself, and was always seen, standing, sitting or lying, with his hat on his head.

☞ The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Osgood of Springfield, celebrated their golden wedding on Monday evening, in company with twenty or thirty children and grand children, and scores of freinds.

For want of a place of business, on account of the recent fire, are compelled to rush off their remaining stock of CLOTHS, CLOTHING & FURNISHING GOODS, for a short time, at a great sacrifice, at
J. B. ADAMS' AUCTION STORE.
We take great pleasure in announcing to our numerous customers, friends, and the public generally, that it it will be greatly to the advantage of the purchaser to call soon, as we cannot and shall not stay here but a short time, under such great expense and sacrificing sales. We intend to wind up business for the present, until our former store is rebuilt. We wish for all those having claims against our firm to present them soon; and those indebted to us, will confer a favor by coming forward and settling with us immediately.—We are to be found at J. B. ADAMS' STORE,

NEW BOOKS.

AN ESSAY ON MORALS, being an attempt to popularize Ethical Science. Part I. Theory of Morals. First American Edition, with Additions and Corrections by the Author. Boston: Crosby, Nichols & Co. 12 mo. pp. 279.

This is evidently a book for the thinkers; and will set some minds upon a course of thought, quite new to them, though not new to the world.

In his preface the author says:—

In writing this book, I have aimed chiefly at two objects. 1st. I have sought to unite into one homogeneous and self-consistent whole, the purest and most enlarged theories hitherto propounded on ethical science. 2dly. I have sought (and this has been my chief aim) to place for the first time, as the foundation of ethics, the great but neglected truth that the end of creation is not the happiness, but the virtue of rational souls.

Here we pause a moment, to say, that in our view, the end, or design, of creation, is the happiness and virtue, or rather virtue and happiness;—that these two objects are not discordant or incompatible, but harmonious. We cannot conceive that a being, possessed of virtue and knowledge, can fail of happiness. Indeed, the old statement of the case in the Assembly's Catechism is admirable, where it says "the chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever."

Leaving this thought, however, for a moment, without further expansion, we let the author speak for himself.

I believe that this truth will be found to throw most valuable light, not only upon the theory, but upon all the details of practical morals. Nay, more, I believe that we must look to it for such a solution of the "Riddle of the World" as shall satisfy the demands of the intellect, while presenting to the religious sentiment that same God of perfect justice and goodness whose ideal it intuitively conceives and spontaneously adores.

Only with this view of the designs of God can we understand how His moral attributes are consistent with the creation of a race which is indeed "groaning in sin" and "travailing in sorrow;" but by whose freedom to sin and trial of sorrow shall be worked out at last the most blessed end which infinite love could desire. With this clue, we shall also see how (as the virtue of each individual must be produced by himself, and is the share committed to him in the grand end of creation) all duties must necessarily range themselves accordingly—the personal before the social—in a sequence entirely different from that which is conformable with the hypothesis that happiness is "our being's end and aim;" but which is, nevertheless, precisely the sequence in which intuition has always peremptorily demanded that they should be arranged.

We shall see how (as the bestowal of happiness on man must always be postponed by God to the still more merciful aim of conducing to his virtue) the greatest outward woes and trials, so far from inspiring us with doubts of His goodness, must be taken as the strongest evidences of it, and of the glory of that end of virtue to which they are subservient.

We shall see how at this very hour while grief spreads a flood of tears over our land, while tens of thousands of noblest hearts lie cold in their Crimean graves, how God the Good One has permitted that all this woe should come upon his creatures, has left to its tyrant author the freedom he has misused to work it, and has brought out, through sorrows and agonies untold, love, generosity, fortitude, patience and piety, such as without them neither we nor those noble sufferers would ever have known; virtues which have hallowed this world, and which the martyrs shall carry with them through all the worlds to come.

To this, just let us add, that all this virtue, has surely produced happiness, and is still producing it, and all will be right. For be it known that with knowledge and virtue, happiness is inseparably connected, now and forever.

Thus much for an introduction to this valuable book, which is for sale in this city by Mr. J. H. Foster.

HOPE MARSHALL; or Government and its Offices. By Mrs. N. P. Lasselle, author of Annie Grayton, or Life in Washington, &c. Washington: H. Lasselle. 12 mo., pp. 326.

This is a spirited and well written American novel, portraying many of the characters which figure in Court Life at Washington, with a skillful hand and a feeling heart. The authoress, a few years since, gave to the public a volume describing social life in Washington. It was favorably received—and thus she is induced to offer the present volume.

The characters are pictures drawn from observation, not imagination; the stories of claims and claimants are true stories; and the manner of disposing of offices is more fact than fancy.

This book is for sale in Boston by Crosby, Nichols & Co; in this city by J. H. Foster.

HINTS TOWARDS PHYSICAL PERFECTION: or, the Philosophy of Human Beauty; showing how to acquire and retain bodily symmetry, health and vigor, secure long life, and avoid the infirmities and deformities of old age. By D. H. Jacques. New York: Fowler and Wells, publishers, 308 Broadway. Price $1.

This is a work which, if we mistake not, is destined to command almost universal attention, and awaken everywhere a deeper interest in the physical improvement of the race than has been manifested; as it shows how certain and easy this improvement may be made by the use of the perfectly legitimate means there pointed out. It will be found deeply interesting to both sexes (but particularly to women) and to all ages; and we earnestly commend it to all for whom health, strength and beauty has any attractions. Illustrated by twenty plates and a large number of cuts, executed in the highest style of art.

FRANK LESLIE'S FAMILY MAGAZINE AND GAZETTE OF FASHION, for June.

This number is promptly issued, and filled with attractions for all, especially the ladies, as usual.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY, for June.—Oakmith & Co., New York.

The Great Republic is a great Monthly, full of articles of present interest and permanent value. In the number before us, the Raccoon Hunt, and the New York Sewing Girls, are prominent articles.

☞ Littlefield, who is charged with being accessory to the death of Miss Butler of North Adams, Mass., has turned up in Madison, Indiana, where a singing master named Wm. Chase, who married his sister, has been living. About twelve months since, Chase went from Dover, N. H., to Madison to reside, managed to make a great figure around by pretending to great sanctity, got to lead a choir and attended church meetings. At the same time he kept in harmony with another class by playing billiards in a back room at the Madison Hotel, where he boarded. He accumulated debts, purchased furniture, &c., on credit, until about a fortnight since, when when he left for Memphis, leaving his wife behind. Equally as suddenly there came to her assistance her own brother, Charles K. Littlefield, of the North Adams Bank, who had on his tongue a tale about business, &c. He was identified, and it was thought would be arrested at Memphis, whither he went. Littlefield, like his brother-in-law Chase, was very anxious, during his brief stay, to learn all about the schools and churches of the town. The education of the young seems to be their chief care.

GREAT SEIZURE OF LIQUOR.—The Rockland, Me., Free Press says that about seven thousand dollars' worth of spirituous liquors were seized by the authorities of that city last week, of which $2000 worth was found at the Commercial House. About $4000 worth was in whole packages, and was stored by Messrs. Burkee & Cutler for numerous individuals throughout the country.

☞ A singular suicide occurred last week in Waldboro, Maine. Mrs. James Burnes went to the orchard near her house and hanged herself upon a tree, having first put on several additional skirts to assist strangulation by their weight. The probable reason was the hopeless sickness of her husband, whom she did not wish to outlive.

☞ The Aroostook country, Maine, with the prospect of a railroad to pass through it, and bring the settlements within a few hours distance of Bangor, and consequently very near to the Portland and Boston markets is receiving a good share of emigrants of the best character.

GOLD FOR EUROPE.—Steamer Ocean Queen, which left New York on Saturday, took out $1,405,359, and the Kangaroo $750,000 in gold. This, with the shipment from Boston on Wednesday last, makes nearly three and a half millions exported in one week.

SALE OF LA CROSSE RAILROAD.—Milwaukee, May 21.—Mr. Cleveland's injunctions against the sale of the La Crosse Railroad, under the third mortgage, was dissolved by the Judge who granted it on the 18th inst., and to-day at noon the Trustees sold the road according to advertisement, under the act of the Legislature of last winter, for seventy-five per cent, of the amount due, being over one million five hundred thousand dollars.

WOODEN DRAIN TUBES.—S. P. G. of Racine, Wisconsin, says wooden tubes, with performations through the sides, loosely jointed, will answer all purposes of tile, will last as long in places where they are constantly wet, and can be laid for half the expense.

Some persons have been indicted, at Washington, for cheating government in the article of mules. The grand jury must be composed of asses, who are angry that their half-brother should be used as gambling material. The idea of punishing a villanous politician at Washington is rich, though destined to have poor result.—Traveller.

A BRILLIANT NOVEL.
WE SHALL PUBLISH JUNE FIRST,
SEACLIFF;
OR,
THE MYSTERY OF THE WESTERVELTS.
BY J. W. DEFOREST,
Author of "Oriental Acquaintance," "European Acquaintance," etc.
This is a story of American Life, embracing some features of softer and traits of character that are as new as they are striking and natural.—The personages introduced are very few in number; and the interest centres in the family upon whom the hero makes a call, in the first chapter. The plot is remarkable for its ingenious simplicity. The reader's curiosity is aroused at the outset by the appearance of a mystery. Each step in the development of the story seems about to disclose the dreadful secret; but the true solution will not be guessed, even by the most inveterate readers of fiction, until the catastrophe comes. The style of the narration is full of spirit, and the various dramatis personæ are finely sketched and contrasted. "SEACLIFF" will be, without question, the most fascinating novel of the season.
In one handsome volume, duodecimo, 466 pp., beautifully printed. Price $1.25.
The Trade supplied on the usual terms.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
HOME TESTIMONY.
From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.
We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.
From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)
Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."
Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.
Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.
Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to get in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure
LIVER COMPLAINT, INDIGESTION,
COSTIVENESS, DIZZINESS,
HEADACHE, HEARTBURN,
PILES, FLATULENCY,
WEAKNESS, LOSS OF APPETITE.
All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.
This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.
Orders addressed to J. W. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m13

ONLY A FEW WORDS
Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my
GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street,
consisting of CASES—fancy and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP for CASH,—for a short time.
A. GREGORY.
N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Beavtouiturmenos.

R. R. R.
POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find that R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe torture for years, been completely restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.
For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveilance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis Son and Co., 57 Blackstone st.; E. ADDITIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS.—To accommodate our Advertising patrons the better, we have added a little to the length of each column of the Daily Chronicle, which gives us in all upwards of a column more room. This makes the paper about as large as our present power press will well accommodate—and by condensing the advertisements somewhat, we hope to give all a chance to be seen and heard.

The Chronicle also appears in an entire new dress, from the foundry of Phelps & Dalton—all nonpareil in fact, though not all so technically.

These changes have been made only by much labor and expense—but if our patronage increases and continues to improve, as it has during the past year, we shall have no occasion to regret our efforts to render the paper acceptable and useful, but shall strive to add yet greater attractions.

☞ The U. S. ship Portsmouth sailed from this Naval Station on Monday at noon, for the African station. She is a trim and beautiful craft, and presented a fine appearance as she glided down the river and out of the harbor, in the bright sunshine, and flanked on either hand by smiling green fields and sometimes luxuriant foliage.

The Dale, just arrived; and the Constitution and the Santee, recently launched, are lying at the Navy Yard; the new steamer Mohican is in the Dry Dock, taking in machinery, &c.; and the Franklin and Alabama are yet on the stocks in the shiphouses.

"NOT UNTO US."—The Dover Gazette credits to the Portsmouth Chronicle an item which we published from the N. H. Gazette, about "the infamous Hindoo amendment, excluding naturalized citizens from voting for a period of two years," &c. We have yet to see the "American" movement which we consider "infamous" or ill-advised. As to parties, we don't care much about them, what they lose or gain.

Our good friends of the Great Falls Advertiser, and we believe a Dover paper, have "drawn on us rather strongly," for commendation of a lady singer from Portland. We never considered or pronounced her anything more than tolerable.

☞ Sanford's great Ethiopian Troupe give concerts at the Temple this and tomorrow evenings. Sanford himself is decidedly one of the very best performers in this line, and he has a very large and excellent company. They make a sensation wherever they go, and will have large audiences here, as they do everywhere. So go early if you want a good seat.

☞ Attempt was made Wednesday night to rob the Express and Mail on the Erie Express train.

When the train was about ten miles beyond Port Jervis, E. L. Covert, the messenger, stepped into the baggage car, leaving in his car, A. Keck, the Mail Agent, who appears to have relapsed into a doze. A ruffian who had been concealaed in the closet, came out and applied a sponge, saturated in chloroform, to Mr. Keck's nose. This awoke him, and he at once seized the stranger by the throat and demanded his business.—The robber drew a pistol and threatened to kill the Agent, to which the latter decidedly objected, and caught hold of the pistol in such a way that he held the hammer down so that the robber could not use it.—Mr. Keck pitched into the villain for dear life, throwing him on the floor, releasing the pistol from his grasp, and thrashing him so severely that in few moments he begged for his life. Mr. Keck thinking it quite probable that his customer had accomplices on board that might at any moment come to his rescue, pulled the bell rope in the hope that the alarm might bring assistance; the engineer slacked the train, when the man in spite of all Keck's efforts, opened the sliding door of the car, jumped out, and made his escape with a bare and very severely bruised head. After he had gone there was found on the floor which had been the scene of the scuffle, his cap, a slung shot, a broken chloroform bottle, and a sponge well wet with chloroform. In the closet where he had hidden was found his overcoat, the pockets of which contained a brandy bottle, a large piece of India rubber, oil cloth, a piece of oiled silk, and twine, supposed conveniences for tying up and hiding, by temporary burial or otherwise, his booty, had he been fortunate in his desperate enterprise. Altogether this is one of the most audacious attempts at robbery.

One of the boldest and most adroit burglars who was ever in Portsmouth jail, said he always took two or three glasses of brandy before he began an operation, and without it, he found it impossible to do any of his mischief. This mail robber probably primed himself up the same way.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Taken by virtue of an execution in favor of Levi Garland, in Newington, in the County of Rockingham, against R. W Brooks, commorant in Portsmouth in said County, and to be sold at Public Auction to the highest bidder, at the store of J. B. Adams, No. 8 Congress Block on Congress street, in said Portsmouth, on Saturday, the 28th day of May instant, at 10 o'clock A. M., 159 lbs. Street Drills, 6 Steel Hammers, (61 lbs.) the same having been attached on the original writ in this action.

State of New Hampshire.
Rockingham ss, May 18th, 1859.

JOS. B. ADAMS, Deputy Sheriff.

THE ARMIES OF EUROPE.—In Europe, generally, there are twelve soldiers to every thousand inhabitants; in Russia the proportion is as high as fourteen; in England it is only eight in a thousand. Great Britain has fewer soldiers in relation to population than any other European State. The British army costs far more per man than that of any other country; it is on the average, $252.70 per man per annum. In the armies of Continental Europe the annual average cost per man varies from $184.68, in Belgium, to $63.18 in Russia. Each soldier in the army costs annually each inhabitant of England $3.12; France $2.70; Austria $2.37; Russia $1.62; Prus- $1.36. The maintenance of the armies of Europe in time of peace costs the different countries an annual aggregate of $366,000,000, and the costs of the fleets is about $88,000,000—making a total yearly expenditure of $450,000,000. These figures, large as they are, it must not be forgotten only represent what exists in a state of peace. When war occurs fresh expenditures, reckoned by millions, are of course immediately incurred for munitions of war, equipments, the transport of men and horses and provisions. No man can correctly calculate the loss sustained by agriculture and commerce by the withdrawal of so many strong arms from useful labor.—The peaceful armies of Europe amount to no less than 5,795,000 men, and the navies to 219,000 making a total of 6,014,000 men. This number is, in fact, 15 per cent. of the male adult population of Europe withdrawn from the pursuits of industry, and constantly maintained under arms.

☞ Private Advices from Utah indicate further serious trouble there. The differences between the Judiciary and the Executive are about to result in a collision between the U. S. troops under Gen. Johnston, and the Mormon militia under Gen. Wells, 5,000 of the latter having been ordered out by Gov. Cummings to protect the citizens from what he terms the usurpation of authority on the part of the Judges and the military.

☞ Rev. Howard Moody, of Canterbury, is laid aside from his labors by ill health. He has not preached since fast day. He was seized with a partial congestion of the lungs, the result of wearisome and protracted watchings in the sick room of his late wife, and of a severe cold. His pulpit has been supplied by the brethren of the Hopkinton Association.

☞ Edward Elvin, a workman in the gas house in Brooklyn, was cross from the effects of a debauch. In a fit of anger he took his gun and deliberately discharged its contents at his two nephews, who were taking supper. One was but slightly injured, but it is feared that the other is fatally hurt. Elvin was arrested.

☞ It is reported that all American citizens residing at Hermosillo, in the Mexican territory of Sonora, had been ordered to leave the city under penalty of death.

GOOD FOR RHEUMATISM.
GOOD FOR DYSPEPSIA.
GOOD FOR GRAVEL.
GOOD FOR GOUT.
GOOD FOR FEVER & AGUE.
GOOD FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER COMPLAINTS,
and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physics and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balnium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 80 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,
Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their
Celebrated Family Machines,
with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE,
PRICE $50!
Machines from $50 to $125.
HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of
ONE CENT AN HOUR!
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?
TESTIMONIALS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.
FRANK W. MILLER.
PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.
Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE.
Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."
Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."
Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."
Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC PRINTING.—We last week made some comments upon the recent appointment of John Heart, Esq., to the office of Superintendent of Public Printing. It was announced in the Constitution newspaper, that he was formerly editor of the Charleston Mercury. We made no inquiry as to how recent had been his connection with that infamous paper, nor did we suppose it was of any consequence, for the Charleston Mercury has advocated disunion, blood and blazes, ever since we knew of the existence of the paper. We thought any recognition of that concern by a Democratic Administration in bad taste, to say the least, and mildly expressed our notions of such a procedure. But one of the editors of the Patriot says:

"Mr. Heart is known to us personally as a retiring, gentlemanly and sensible man—too conservative in his views for so extreme a paper as the Mercury, which fact may account for his not being now connected with it. * * * The appointment is a merited compliment to a deserving man, and we doubt much if a better selection could have been made."

We are so desirous of believing something favorable to the Administration, that we copy this explanation of the matter with the greatest pleasure. Nor will we mar our enjoyment by copying what the Charleston Mercury also says about the propriety of the appointment, only so far as to say that Lecompton is the only principle, and this appointment about the only act of the Administration which meets the cordial approbation of the Mercury.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRACY.—The central organ of the Kentucky Democracy, the Lexington Statesman, which journal is understood to reflect the views of Vice President Breckinridge, has the following remarks upon the new intervention dogma, which is being contended for by the opposition in Kentucky:

"To look for Congressional interference is to subvert political principles which we may have learned to regard as the fundamental doctrines of the Democratic party, to inaugurate a domestic policy in direct conflict with that theory upon which alone there seems to be a hope for the permanent adjustment of our sectional difficulties, and finally to concede a power which, if exerted to its legitimate extent, would place the extension of slavery within the absolute control of an abolition Congress. Congressional legislation in protection of slavery in the Territories irresistibly carries with it the power to legislate for its exclusion. The duty or right of Congress to protect, cannot be maintained without admitting the power to abolish. If Congress can intervene for one purpose, it can for another. The South cannot assert a principle and expect to reap only its advantages. We must abide to full enforcement."

The Hon. J. W. Stevenson, a Democratic member of the last Congress, is a candidate for re-election, and takes strong and decided ground in opposition to Congressional legislation in behalf of slavery.

MORE RUMORS OF RECONCILIATION.—The rumor that lately assumed tangible shape in the New York Herald of an amicable arrangement about to be made, at Washington, between the President and Senator Douglas, has had a powerful effect upon the country. It has had a wonderfully softening influence on some heretofore pretty hard Democrats, and has caused the Republicans to shake with fear throughout the length and breadth of their organization. There is evidently thought to be some foundation for the rumor. Well, we hope so. That is to say, we hope the President has received new light as touching political affairs in the North and West,—although he has had all the while almost as much light as Saul had at the time of his miraculous conversion,—and that he now is persuaded of the utter folly of keeping up a war on the Democracy of these great sections of the country. Up to this date, we believe, he has not injured Senator Douglas,—he has only weakened himself and endangered the Democratic party. We are generous therefore in hoping that the President has, at last and sincerely, determined to recognize the Democratic party and respect the Democratic sentiment of the country. In this way alone can he in turn have recognition.

We at present withhold any opinion as to what or how much ground there is, if any, to support the hope just indicated. But we know that there will be no sacrifice of principle on the part of Senator Douglas and his friends. On this basis we are prepared for anything that will advance the cause of Democracy and insure the safety of the Union.—Chicago Times.

THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION.—The New York Journal of Commerce, which is not even suspected of being unfriendly to the administration, alludes to Illinois politics as follows:

The National Democratic State Committee of Illinois has issued an address, designed to prove that theirs is the regular Democratic organization in that State, and will be entitled to representation in the Charleston Convention. To persons having even the faintest conception of political and partisan usages, no great amount of language is necessary to explain the state of parties in Illinois.—However right those represented by this committee may have been—and we think they were correct in their support of the President's Lecompton policy—there is no sense in this claim to regularity. The Douglas Convention was the legitimate and regular convention of the party, and the other was irregular and has no semblance of authority except it chooses to assume an independent attitude.

It will be amusing to see the claims of the double delegations from Illinois and Pennsylvania presented to the Charleston Convention. If the Cook party are admitted from the former, upon the same reasoning the Forney party must be received from the latter. They stand on substantially the same basis, and both are irregular according to all party usages.

SOLICITOR FOR SULLIVAN COUNTY.—Levi W. Barton, Esq., of Newport, has been appointed Solicitor of Sullivan County in place of Geo. Tickner, Esq., resigned.

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and by these cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep from falling off; makes it soft, pliant, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 3, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice will put my remarks aside, I feel bound in duty and gratitude to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now as natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, respectfully, yours, HENRY ATKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite a boy. Since I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having tried all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,

No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

The Liver Invigorator.

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS.

Is one of the best PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These GUMS remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying their place with a healthy bile, thus invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of Liver Complaint, effecting a radical cure.

One dose often repeated will cure CHRONIC CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of mercury, after a long sickness.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One bottle taken for DYSPEPSIA, with a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

One dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while SUMMER & BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures CONSTIPATION.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the action of the kidneys.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

One dose is a preventive of NEURALGIA.

One dose, taken in connection with the Invigorator, will cure SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has been used by the females of the natives so easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wonderful medicine were first obtained from Ossin-ne-ah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It will put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe in all cases.

☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases; none other is worthy of confidence. Sent by mail to any parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.

Circulars and references with pamphlet on disease of women and private maladies generally.—Sent free on receipt of stamp—addressed to Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston, Mass.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who have been using their remedies, or have been deterred from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and not a single instance of the number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, and the medicine sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best pill.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some specious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine can be had.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. j2 ly

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and opinions, legal or other advice, rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to the arts. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States since the commencement of the Patent Office, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the full attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

JOHN TAYLOR.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in his office of the large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent in relieving many suffering, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses healing, soothing and Medicinal Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUTY SWELLINGS, and all kindred diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, more or less, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. BECK

LIVELY TIMES IN A WISCONSIN COUNCIL.—A correspondent writing from Shullsburg, Wis., has the following:

During the session of the County Board of Supervisors for this County, at the November term, there were some rich scenes, one of which claims our serious attention.—Some of the lobby members got up a resolution to appropriate one hundred dollars for Roman Catholic purposes, which was reported by one majority. At the evening session of the same day, the Catholic priest came before the Board and remarked: "I suppose the reason why you refuse to grant the appropriation is, that it is to benefit the Catholics; but I am rejoiced that such things cannot always be, for there is a crisis coming, and sooner than people are aware of. Yankeedom has had its full sway, and others are about to rule in this country, and then you, nor any set of base heretics, will not dare to refuse us an appropriation for such purposes." Some of the members of the Board explained their reasons for voting as they did on the question.

The priest then said, pointing to one, "You voted against the appropriation on the grounds of retrenchment; and you," pointing to another, "say you voted for it, but, having been better informed, would, if necessary, vote against it now. I suppose your information consists in knowing that it is for the Catholics, and that you consider reason enough for voting against it. And you, sir," pointing to another, "have given several reasons for voting against it. You I never saw before; neither do I ever wish to see you again, and I shall brand you as a scoundrel."

During his remarks he was several times called to order, but he told them not to interrupt him, as he was a scholar, and would not be dictated to by a set of base heretics.

☞ A witness, a jolly plump old lady, in the Supreme Court at Worcester, Mass., on Thursday, was asked what time a certain train of cars passed her house. She replied that she commenced knitting at 3 o'clock, and had knit twice around the leg of a stocking before the train came along. The next question was, of course, how long it would take to knit twice around. The judge here, in his usual quiet way, suggested that that would depend upon the size of stocking. To this the witness remarked that the stocking was for herself, and that they could exercise their own judgment as to the size, and guess how long it would take to knit twice around.

OLD SCHOOL CHURCHES.—In the General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church, now in session at Indianapolis, the Committee on Church Extension made their fourth annual report. It shows that out of the 2267 churches in communion with the General Assembly, 553 have no houses of worship, 167 report their houses insufficient for present wants, 191 are in debt, 77 have had aid from abroad in building their churches, and 373 cannot build without aid from the church at large. The report shows that the contributions for the church extension have keen steadily increasing.

DRINKING HYDRANTS.—A resolution has been introduced in the Board of Councilmen of New York city, authorizing the placing of five hundred drinking hydrants in the streets and squares of the city, and directs the Croton Board to furnish estimates forthwith of the probable expense of the work. If the movement is carried out, every stranger will bless the originator.—Customers at the cheap and poisonous beer fountains, as well as the numbers of those at other grog shops, will be greatly diminished.

☞ The papers, in affecting superior wisdom in regard to the prominent actors in the present war drama in Europe, occasionally make some very ridiculous blunders. The Journal of Commerce says the French General Baraguay D'Hilliers served under Napoleon in Italy, in '96 and '97, and is now over 90 years of age. The Portland Advertiser corrects the statement thus:

That General D'Hilliers would be 86, if he were living; but he died more than 45 years ago. His son, however, is not as old as his father, and has command of a brigade in the full vigor of a sound middle age.

☞ Louis Murat, a lineal descendant of Joachim Murat, once King of Naples, who arrived in this country in 1849, having considerable means and letters of credit, was found drunk in the streets of San Francisco, and taken to the station house a few weeks since.

☞ A difficulty has arisen in the Glasgow Free Church College, originating in a misunderstanding between Prof. Gibson and some members of his class in Systematic Theology, and the problem of human depravity, which even Scotch Presbyterians has not yet succeeded in solving to the society of a word.

ON THE TOWN.

BY E. E. STODDARD.

Mr. Stoddard's Poem is so humane in its sentiments—so human, rather, for humane is but the diminutive of human—and is, moreover, so full of the genuine spirit of poetry, that we cannot help commending it. Since Hood's "Bridge of Sighs," we have read nothing of the kind which could compare with it. It is a poem dictated,—inspired, rather,—by the best impulses of the soul—impulses that rise above all codes and conventionalities—and assert authoritatively the true majesty of human nature.—N. Y. Saturday Press.

The lamps are lighted, the streets are full,
For, coming and going, like waves of the sea,
Thousands are out to enjoy the beautiful night;
They jostle each other, but shrink from me!
Men hurry by with a stealthy glance,
Women pass with their eyes cast down;
Even the children seem to know
The shameless girl of the town!

Hated and shunned I walk the street,
Hunting—for what? For my prey, 'tis said;
I look at it though in a different light,
For the rightly shame is my child, I breed!
My food, my shelter, the clothes I wear!
Only for this I might starve, or drown;
The world, blind to my misery, shall can I do,
But live and die on the town!

The world is cruel. It may be right
To crush the harlot, but grant it so,
What made her the guilty thing she is?
For you know, I was innocent, you know!
'Twas love! that terrible word tells all!
She loved a man and blindly believed
His vows, his kisses, his crocodile tears;
Of course the fool was undone right;

What had I to gain by a moment's sin,
To weigh in the scale with my innocent years,
My womanly shame, my ruined name,
My father's curses, my mother's tears?
The love of a man! It was something, to give,
Was it worth it? The price was a soul paid down;
Did I get a soul, his soul in exchange?
Behold me here on the town!

"Your guilt was heavy," the world will say,
"And heavy, heavy your doom must be;
For to pity and pardon woman's fall,
Is to set no value on chastity!
You undervalue the virgin's crown,
What is it to man, now? Come, be just:
(Remember, she falls through her love for him,
He, through his selfish lust!)

Tell me what is done to the wretch
Who tempts, and rions in woman's fall?
His father curses, and cries, sir!
His friends forsake? He is scorned of all?
Not be: his judges are men like himself,
Or thoughtless women, who humor their whim;
"Young men—Wild oats"—Better hush it up:"
They soon forget it—in him!

Even his mother, who ought to know
The woman-nature, and how it is won,
Frames a thousand excuses for him,
Because, forsooth, the man is her son!
You have daughters, Madam (the told me so.)
Fair innocent daughters—"Woman, what then?"
Some mother may have a son like yours,
Bid them beware of men!

I saw his coach in the street to-day,
Dashing along on the sunny side,
With a liveried driver on the box;
Sitting beside him her latest pride,
The wife of his bosom took the air:
She was bought in the mart where hearts are sold:
I gave myself away for his love,
She sold herself for his gold!

He lives, they say, in a princely way,
Flattered and feasted. One dark night
Some devil led me to pass his house:
I saw the windows ablaze and heard the music whirled in a maddening round,
I heard the fall of the dancers' feet:
Bitter, bitter, the thoughts I had Standing there in the street!

Back to my gaudy den I went,
Marched to my room in grim despair,
Dried my eyes, painted my cheeks,
And fixed a flower or two in my hair!
Corks were popping, wine was flowing,
I seized a bumper, and tossed it down:
One must do something to kill the time,
And fit self for the town!

I meet his boy in the park sometimes,
And my heart runs over towards the child:
A frank little fellow with fearless eye,
He smiles at me as his father smiled!
I hate the man, but I love the boy:
For I think what my own, had he lived would be:
Perhaps it is he, come back from the dead—
To his father, alas! not me!

But I stand too long in the shadow here,
Let me out in the light again.
Now for insult, blows perhaps,
And, bitter still, my own disdain!
I say my place in the world of men,
Not like the simple women I see:
You may cheat them, men, as much as you please,
You wear no masks with me!

I know ye! Under your honeyed words
These lurks a serpent: your oaths are lies;
There is a lustful fire in your hungry hearts,
I see it flaming up in your eyes;
Cling to them, ladies, and shrink from me,
Or your boldness will soon be gone,
Madam, your husband knows me well;
Mother, I know your son!

But go your ways, and I'll go mine:
Call me opprobious names, if you will:
The time is coming, when you'll have to!
"A harlot!" Yes! But a woman still!
God said of old to a woman like me,
"Go—sin no more!" Have you done?
But you, you mangle His merciful words
To—"Go, and sin till you die!"

Die! the word has a pleasant sound,
The sweetest I've heard this many a year:
It seems to promise an end to pain,
Anyway it will end it—here
Suppose I throw myself in the street?
Before the horses could trample me down,
Some young-hearted friend would catch me up,
And thrust me back on the town!

But look, the river! From where I stand
I see it, I almost hear it flow:
Down on the dark and lonely pier—
It is but a step—I can end my woe!
A plunge, a splash, and all will be o'er,
The death-black waters will drag me down;
God have mercy! But no matter where,
So I am off the town!

Quick, the comedian, one day passing through Broker's Row, Moorfields, was seized upon by a barker of a furniture warehouse, who, without ceremony, pulled him into his shop, and began puffing off his tables and chairs. Quick, being old and infirm, made little resistance, but asked the man if he were master of the shop. "No, sir," said the barker, "but I will fetch him immediately." The man returned with his master, to whom Quick put the question—"Are you master of this shop, sir?" "Yes, sir; what can I do for you?" "Only," replied Quick, "just to hold your man a minute, while I go out!"

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets, and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.:
Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, and to test it fairly myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of other wigs, may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. Yours, truly,

HENRY JENKINS.
Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

VINCENNES, Ala., Feb. 11, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, accompanied, perhaps, with a slight headache, when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine crop of hair growing, which I am using used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

YOURS, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—my hair fell off in handfuls, when I used 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $5 a bottle.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition among the native women easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant was recently obtained from Skenan-do-sah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It is easily put up in convenient bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.

☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases. It is a boon offered to suffering humanity in confidence. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 35 Suffolk Place, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the fallacious parades of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter as shown below.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients can send by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing hands.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all the female complaints. Their action is speedy and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions and worthless preparations advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miscreants who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with liberal and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. 3d diy

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by transmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be secured elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE. Inventors who wish to be as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full acounts of the Patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All inventors who think of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT

FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SAGAMORE HOUSE,

ON FROST'S POINT, RYE, N. H.

At the entrance of Little Harbor, 3½ miles by land, 2 miles by water, from Portsmouth. The House commands a view of Portsmouth, New Castle, Kittery, the Navy Yard, Forts Constitution and McClary, Portsmouth Harbor and the Isles of Shoals. The House is nearly new, and commodious, and has been occupied as a Summer Hotel. The out-buildings consist of a barn, corn house and bowling alley all in good repair. The grounds contain Six Acres, bordering Little Harbor and the sea, and are well stocked with Fruit Trees. The facilities for sailing, fishing and bathing are unequalled, rendering it a desirable place for a private residence, a private boarding house, or a public house.

FOR SALE.

The balance of the Sagamore Farm, adjoining the above, containing

FORTY-THREE ACRES OF LAND,

of excellent quality, suitably divided into mowing, tillage, and pasturage, with a fine lot of Fruit Trees on the same, and will be sold as a whole or in lots, to purchasers any desire,—all on liberal terms.

For further particulars inquire of the subscriber, 116 STATE STREET, Boston, or

OUR BABY.

He is a very, very young one, and in him is fulfilled that saying of Job—"we are but of yesterday and know nothing." He cannot talk—he has never been known to coo—his eyes do not yet work perfectly as a pair, but each on its own hook sometimes, so that we have caught him looking two ways at once, in evident wonderment and distraction—plainly he has not yet settled his new latitude and longitude—he sucks his thumb and thinks there is milk in it, though he don't fairly know milk from water, and actually lived for several days on sweetened water, without a suspicion of the thin and vapid cheat practised upon him—he puts his fingers into his own eye from sheer ignorance of corporeal dynamics, and much as persons trying to cut their own hair before a glass, can't hit the spot, and are almost as likely to shingle their noses as their locks—where he is put, there he lies, he is so little and weak—there is mighty little hair on the top of his head, in the place where the hair ought to grow—nurse is ready to take her oath that he laughs, but the more skeptical of us are convinced that his face spreads and wrinkles smile-like, from purely internal causes, that is to say, from wind—indeed he makes innumerable motions of the face, which in adults would mean something, but in him clearly they mean nothing except that his face is eminently indiarubbery and self-active, going on from one distortion to another, (each one more original and impossible than its predecessor,) a good deal as some folks say the human will operates (or can operate) viz.: from no motive or impulse at all—he hasn't advanced so far yet as to discover that night is the time for sleep; (nurse thinks that is one of his main failings)—and we lack proof (and rest assured, dear finds, we have sought for it) that he could tell his father from any other man to save his life.

Of course, then, he is in an exceedingly primitive and unsuggestive condition. Don't at all correspond with Wm. Wordsworth's magniloquent talk about babies:

"Our birth is but a sleep and a forgetting;
The soul that rises in us, our life's Star,
Has had elsewhere its setting,
And cometh from afar;
Not in entire forgetfulness,
And not in utter nakedness,
But trailing clouds of glory, do we come."

It's all a lie. We have searched for a "cloud of glory" "trailing" to our baby, and it's not there. And he came "in entire forgetfulness" and "utter nakedness"—in fact the description don't agree anywhere. The baby is an extremely nascent concern in body, soul and estate. His body is scarcely more than a tender pulp; his soul is pulp too, for aught we know, through any decisive signs he has made (though we have strong hopes of it.) And as to his temporal estate, a few changes of clothes, a limited bottle and a small benediction daily from the milkman, make the whole sum and glory of it.

And yet our baby is a great affair. We are almost ashamed to own, especially before ignorant and unsympathetic bachelors, that such a feeble and infinitesimal thing is more to us than one more rat in the house; but the truth is that from some cause our new boy provokes us to a more bustling hospitality and a more affectionate nervousness than the arrival of some adult dignitary at our threshold to make a long stay with us, would—we feel guilty and mean this very minute for having compared him to a rat; tender censures assail us inwardly, and we have been asked several times since we made it—"Supposing he should die pretty soon, and before old enough to accept your contrition, because you've spoken of him in the same passage with a rat! how would you feel then?"

The youth (we rise spontaneously to that more exalted term in semi expiation of that the rat passage,) draws us into the room where he is, a good many times in a day, and has tried to do it a few times in the night. It has come to be quite a spicy entertainment for us to look where he is supposed to be asleep, and to find his two blue eyes all open under the blanket—we have flown to the lounge on several occasions to deliver him from the heap of clothes in which we were confident the nurse was smothering him—we have listened to hear him drop from her arms on the floor in the other room—in truth "our fears do make us cowards," and we have to stand guard all night while over the weakling.

Anciently we thought it folly to search for the image of anybody in a young baby's face; but we catch ourselves every day looking for the image and superscription of somebody in our baby's. Once we held that a new baby's head is always "without form and void;" but we have given that up. Once we thought it a little superfluous, and rather straining matters to congratulate a man on his fresh baby; but that dogma has been surrendered, and we are beginning to have sour feeling towards some distant relatives of ours who haven't written a word about our boy. In short, we are caught as well confess, we are a converted man in our general views of babies.

We find our head suddenly turned to more earnest views of education. We have written, already, several articles for the press on home training, Sabbath schools, and the like. We came within a hair of voting one of the schools of the city today. We even got so far in an absent minded moment, as to raise the question, which of the colleges of our acquintance is best for a boy—thought how pleasant it would be for a father and a son to graduate at the same college—resorted to mathematics on a problem how old we shall be when our boy is fitted to enter, &c. &c.

We can't tell it all now. Don't write sensibly more than half an hour at a time now-a-days.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1859.

LETTER FROM CONCORD.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

CONCORD, May 23, 1859.

Concluded.

The Manchester Republican, an able and well conducted paper in that city, speaking of this matter, says—

"We hope our citizens will look into this matter and see whether it is for their interest for this road to be controlled by the Concord Railroad. Ever since the lease of the Manchester and Lawrence road by the Concord road, the whole carrying trade of Manchester has been under the control of men having no interest in common with our own; and their measures have been at times very oppressive to our interests. We hope that now when there is a prospect for opening another avenue between our city and the seaboard, that our capitalists who have grumbled so at the burdensome regulations imposed upon them by the Concord Railroad, will see that the new route is conducted by different men in a different manner. We desire to see the Candia Branch opened, but not if it is to be a new link in the chain of corporation monopoly by which our interests are now bound down. Let this road be built by Manchester capital, controlled by Manchester men, and made subservient to Manchester interests."

So every man of sense would say, let the road be a Portsmouth and Concord road, with a good branch to Manchester, and free from the selfish control of all roads of antagonistic interests. Let it be on good terms with competing roads, but not under their management. Let it be run so as to meet the wants and answer the demands of persons doing business on the line thereof, but not to promote the conflicting interests of competing roads.

There seems to be a general impression here that we are to witness a pretty thorough remodeling of the courts in June, although I am not among the sanguine, as I know the lawyer influence seldom favors such reforms as the interests of the masses demand, and that influence is pretty powerful in the incoming Legislature. When the present arrangements of the courts were created, the higher court was to hold 22 jury terms in a year; but as soon as the number of the judges and their salaries were well settled, the jury terms of that court, as distinct from the lower court, were reduced to 8, so that if the judges of the Common Pleas hold the number of terms formerly assigned them in their court, five judges, with higher salaries than judges in this State ever received before the present ones, will have eight jury terms to hold in a whole year, or, upon an average, one term and three-fifths of a term—say 4 weeks in the 52, and some four weeks given to law terms and law reports. Three judges on that bench are enough, and a deduction of 15 per cent. in their salaries would leave $1500 to the Chief Justice, and $1350 each to the Associate Judges, while they would have all of three-fourths of the year to themselves. The Common Pleas can be spared while a far better court for the people should take its place. All of $6000 can be saved in salaries, and $50,000 in the expenses to counties and to parties in courts. It would be easy to save $25,000 a year in taxes to the people, and a good deal more than that sum to men who are so unfortunate as to go to law, or to be drawn into litigation.

The present Warden of the State Prison will retire from office in June, and there are already twenty competitors for the place which he will vacate.

Others are competing for the offices of Doorkeepers about the Governor and Council, Senate and House of Representatives, for clerkships, and to be Engrossing Clerk, the latter, ordinarily, an expensive concern for the amount of business performed.

We are all anxious to see the message of the Governor elect, hoping he will give State matters his undivided attention, as the position of his party demands more attention to these than to national concerns. He owes it to the best interests of the people whose partiality he has experienced, to throw his personal and his official influence openly and fearlessly against the great evil whose existence, among us, is bordering community with taxes, filling our jails, penitentiaries and asylums with victims, as well as filling the land with weeping and mourning mothers, wives, sisters and daughters, while houses of correction, bridewells and lock-ups are crowded to excess, and drunkards are staggering to their graves in countless multitudes. It is time that men in high places should speak out in tones not to be misunderstood, for all up and down our valleys and along our hillsides, may be heard the weeping voice of suffering humanity, crying "it is time to act."

AN IMPORTANT DECISION. — In the U. S. Circuit Court at New York, on Thursday, the celebrated case between the Goodyears (under whose patent the rubber combs are manufactured) and the gutta percha manufacturers, was decided in favor of Goodyears. The decision is final: will have an important bearing on manufactures of this kind, and will close up many of the gutta percha operations.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD DECISION.—James H. Hotchkin, of Prattsburg, Steuben county, bought a ticket on the Erie Railroad at New York for Rochester. It was marked "Good for six days only." After the expiration of six days, Mr. H. presented the ticket between Bath and Rochester; it was refused, and he was ejected from the cars. He commenced a suit, which was recently tried before Referees designated by the Supreme Court, and they have awarded the plaintiff $150 damages.

A LOSING BUSINESS.—The creditors of the wholesale grocery firm of Dexter, Fay & Co., in Boston, which recently suspended, were called together on the 19th inst., to hear a statement of the condition of affairs. The facts showed a total of indebtedness amounting to $327,000, and assets $67,000. In regard to the cause of failure, it was stated that five years ago an examination showed a balance against the firm of $40,000; and its subsequent attempts to retrieve its position proved only more disastrous.

☞ A French paper says that Paradise Lost has been performed in Vienna with enthusiastic success. On this the Newburyport Herald says, "If the Austrian Emperor could infuse a little of the spirit of Milton's Devil, which is the best character of the poem—into his troops, he would have 'enthusiastic success' on the battle field. If the devil is anything like what Milton describes, it is not so wonderful that one third of heaven's hosts followed his fortunes, as that he did not have the sympaties of two-thirds."

☞ There was a Mass Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, on Tuesday, of persons opposed to the Fugitive Slave Act. It was well attended. Declarations were read and resolutions passed denouncing the fugitive slave act, the Dred Scott decision and the Supreme Court. The meeting declared that the Oberlin rescuers were entitled to their liberty. Messrs. Giddings, Wade, Chase and others spoke.

☞ A vessel sailed from New Orleans, a few days since, with 150 colored persons, emigrating to Hayti. They generally have trades and are of the better class of colored people. They go at the invitation and expense of President Jeffrard of Hayti, and it is believed that a thousand will follow them from New Orleans during the season.

☞ Champion Vaughan, editor of the Leavenworth Times, has fallen under the displeasure of the Fugitive Law, being sued for the recovery of $1,000, the sum provided by that law as the penalty for the loss of a slave, which Champion is accused of aiding to protect from recapture by his alleged owner. The slave is gone.

☞ Punch contains an engraving representing Sardinia in the distance in the shape of a lamb, exposed to the ferocious peckings of the Austrian Eagle. In the foreground are France and Russia, also eagle shaped, in confidential discourse, one proposing to the other—"Dear Brother, Oh let us hasten to protect the poor lamb yonder." The illustration is headed "Birds of a Feather," &c.

☞ An association of Catholics within the parish of St. Mary's, Boston, has been formed for the purpose of establishing Catholic schools for secular instruction, or, to use their own language, as given in a circular, "for the protection of our children in their faith, against the heretical influence of our city public schools."

☞ In Massachusetts the Two Years' Amendment to the Constitution, according to the official count of the votes was adopted by a majority of 5624, in a total vote of 35,882. The Governor has issued a proclamation announcing that the Amendment has become a part of the Constitution.

☞ A company of one hundred emigrants who were murdered between Arkansas and California, at Mountain Meadows, are said to have been victims of the Mormons, who employed the Indians to butcher the emigrants, so that the cattle and stores might fall into the hands of the Mormons.

☞ John McKeen, a steady man of 35, was murdered in his own shop in Burlington, Vt., Saturday night, by three drunken rowdies, one of whom stabbed him thro' the heart.

☞ Howard Abbott, a student at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., has been missing since Friday, and it is thought has committed suicide by drowning.

☞ A detachment of U. S. troops accompanied by 10 or 12 officers left New York, May 23, for Camp Floyd, Utah.

A BRILLIANT NOVEL.

WE SHALL PUBLISH JUNE FIRST,

SEACLIFF;

OR,

THE MYSTERY OF THE WESTERVELTS.

By J. W. DEFOREST,

Author of "Oriental Acquaintance," "European Acquaintance," etc.

This is a story of American Life, embracing some features of society and traits of character that are as new as they are striking and natural.—The personages introduced are very few in number; and the interest centres in the family upon whom the hero makes a call, in the first chapter. The plot is remarkable for its ingenious simplicity. The reader's curiosity is aroused at the outset by the appearance of a mystery. Each step in the development of the story seems about to disclose the dreadful secret; but the true solution will not be guessed, even by the most inveterate readers of fiction, until the catastrophe comes. The style of the narration is full of spirit, and the various dramatis personæ are finely sketched and contrasted.

"SEACLIFF" will be, without question, the most fascinating novel of the season.

In one handsome volume, duodecimo, 466 pp., beautifully printed. Price $1.25.

The Trade supplied on the usual terms.

Copies sent, post-paid, upon receipt of price.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending them to those suffering from any debility of the kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, 58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and though we have heretofore dealt very little in medical preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

"BUY ME AND I'LL DO YOU GOOD."

Now is the time to use the great Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters.

Composed of Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Thoroughwort, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., all so compounded as to act in concert with Nature, and their effect is truly wonderful. They absolutely cure

LIVER COMPLAINT, INDIGESTION, COSTIVENESS, DIZZINESS, HEADACHE, HEARTBURN, PILES, FLATULENCY, WEAKNESS, LOSS OF APPETITE.

All kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood. If taken in large doses, Fever and Ague may be broken up and cured at once.

This has become a standard Medicine, and is decidedly the Best in the World. Try it once, and you will be sure to do so again. The price is cheap—only 25 cents for a pint, and 37½ cents for a large Bottle. You can't get a bottle too quick, for the time is fast approaching when you will have all sorts of bad feelings if you don't take the Root and Herbs and drive them away. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 11 & 12 Marshall St., Boston, wholesale Dealers in Family Medicines of every description. They invite Apothecaries and Merchants generally to examine their stock. m12

ONLY A FEW WORDS

Just to say, that on account of a contemplated new arrangement in business and a professional tour, I am anxious to close off immediately all the STOCK in my

GALLERY, No. 33 Congress Street, consisting of CASES—fancy and and plain, with pictures included, and a large lot of splendid Gilt and French Frames, for Photographs, which will be sold CHEAP FOR CASH, at any time. A. GREGORY.

N. B.—I do not charge any more for good Pictures, than is paid every day for poor things.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtouttfortumenos.

POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident.—We have hundreds in this city, trifling away their time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—that is, under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove its potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B. — For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from second Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, KIDNEYS and BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; E. BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, & DEATHS.

PORTSMOUTH STATISTICS.—We have been looking over the lists, made by Mr. Bennett, the City Clerk, of the Births, Marriages and Deaths in this city for the year ending March 31, 1859.

The births are 212, all but 16 of whom are marked living. Two pairs of twins are recorded. All the children are marked white except 1, where no color is mentioned. One child is a 13th, one a 12th, one 11th, one 10th and one 9th. Of 8's, 7's, &c., a goodly number. 51 are first children. 66 are the children of foreign fathers, and 60 of foreign mothers. 60 of the fathers were born in Portsmouth; and 59 of the mothers.

The whole number of Marriages registered is 92; though, as the Clerk knows of some failures to render returns, there is no doubt there were 100 marriages within the year. Among them there is no color but white. 13 only are marked as second marriages, of either party, none as third, and one as a fourth marriage.

One marriage is recorded where the wife is 16, one 17, and two 18 years of age; many of 19, 20, &c., one at 46, two of 49—none older. One husband is recorded as 19 years of age, 8 as 21, one of 50, and one of 54 years, one of 55—none older.

As the new registration law was passed in June, these records, in many respects, are imperfect—but of those whose birth place is recorded, 13 were born in foreign countries, and 51 were born in Portsmouth.

The whole number of deaths registered is 155; of which number 2 died at sea, and 2 died abroad on business.

Our bill of mortality for 1858 has given the ages of those who died in that year.

In the year of this register, 1 death occurred at 93 years, 1 at 88 years, 1 at 87 years, 1 at 86, 2 at 84, 2 at 83, 2 at 79, 4 at 78, 1 at 77, 1 at 75, 1 at 74, 1 at 71, 2 at 70, 12 between 60 and 70, 2 between 50 and 60, 19 between 40 and 50, 15 between 30 and 40, 9 between 20 and 30, 16 between 10 and 20, under ten years 53. A few ages are not given.

Causes of death—consumption 44, old age 15, fevers 19, dysentery 6, disease of the heart 8, do. of the brain 4, croup 5, &c.

101 of these deceased persons were born in Portsmouth, and 7 were born in foreign lands.

The oldest man who died, at 93, was a black man; the others whites.

☞ There is not much doing on the Piscataqua, just now, in the ship-building line. Tobey & Littlefield have a ship nearly completed, for sale—on which operations are suspended; Marcy & Pettigrew have a ship in course of construction; and Messrs. Neal, Mathes & Brooks, at the old yard of Samuel Badger, are building a neat and staunch schooner, for a company of gentlemen here, for the coasting business between Portsmouth and Boston. These, we believe, are all the vessels on the stocks in private yards here. Uncle Sam's fleet we spoke of yesterday.

☞ Albert Blaisdell, Esq., was on Monday last chosen as one of the Directors of the Bank of New Hampshire, in this city, in place of N. K. Raynes, Esq., resigned.

☞ A correspondent, who takes some interest in the Candia Branch Railroad, says, "the true place to build the Branch is from Martin's Ferry to Rowe's Corner, or near the Corner, a distance of little more than three miles." A look at a good map will show how near the two roads are to each other at these points.

☞ Read the letter of our Concord correspondent. He will keep our readers posted up concerning matters in Concord during the session of the Legislature. We also shall issue a Daily from the Chronicle office, during the session, which we will furnish for 25 cents.

☞ Rev. A. G. Comings, formerly of the Pleasant Street Church in this city, has removed from Freetown, Mass., to Lee in this State, where he ministers to the Union Religious Society, recently formed.

NAVY YARD INVESTIGATION.—An investigating commission, consisting of Com. Storer, Capt. Van Brunt and Lieut. Porter, that has been engaged for some time in investigation of affairs at the navy yards, is now in session at the Portsmouth yard.

FROM WASHINGTON.—Our goverment has been officially informed of the neutral attitude of England and Prussia in the Italian war, and a diplomatic circular will be issued declaring our position to be neutral.

Secretary Toucey has not yet determined to increase the Mediterranean squadron, though it is considered necessary, as the Macedonian and Wabash are the only United States vessels there.

The evidence collected by Commissioner Bowlin and others show the claim on Paraguay represented by Mr. Hopkins to be of a fraudulent character. Mr. H. has been dismissed by the company for whom he acted as agent.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The failure of a large drug house in Boston, having connections in this city and New Orleans, was announced in Wall street yesterday.

The Persia, which sails to-day for Europe, will take out $3,000,000 in specie.

GOOD FOR FEVER & AGUE.
GOOD FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER COMPLAINTS,

and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY.

D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Sciences of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c.

Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balalum maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deeijen (of Bremen,) as residuum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metalic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their Celebrated Family Machines, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale A NEW STYLE MACHINE. PRICE $50: Machines from $50 to $125. HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA. It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR! Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand? TESTIMONIALS. PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859. We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting. FRANK W. MILLER. PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859. Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & PAINE. Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing." Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread." Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used." Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing." C. C. WHITTEMORE, Store No. 7 Daniel St. AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH. HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.,

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours, HENRY ROBBINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable and remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me, not only in restoring also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and find the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,

No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

The Liver Invigorator.

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD.

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS.

Is one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These GUMS remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, and effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and may be prevented, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures CONSTIPENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

One dose often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while STUBBORN BOWEL COMPLAINTS yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition comparatively easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant were recently obtained from Deseaux-de-ah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It is neatly put up in two ounce bottles, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails to do the desired effect in any case, the price will be refunded.—Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.

☞ Remember! This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted in all cases; none other is worthy of confidence. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Resuscitant Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.

Circulars and references with pamphlet on diseases of women and private maladies generally.—Sent free on receipt of stamp—addressed to Eumedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston, Mass.

☞ Wm. Partenheimer, of Hampshire, Mass., has two kinds of German clover growing upon his land, from seed which he imported from Germany. It bears but a slight resemblance to the native clover of this country, but is said to contain more nutriment. One kind is called "the everlasting clover," from the fact that after it is once sown it will never run out, and it is mown in Germany five times every season. It has already attained the hight of 22 inches. The other is a smaller kind, and looks some like tanzy.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer says of Mr. Douglas, that his position is more radical than ever as regards his difference with the administration. He rejects, with emphatic condemnation, the doctrine recently promulgated by the organ, that the people of a territory are prohibited from regulating their own institutions, including slavery, and that they must wait for the enjoyment of that cardinal privilege of freemen until after they become a State.

☞ The shoe business is constantly becoming one of more importance, not alone to Massachusetts, its chief seat, but to New England. Lynn, Haverhill, and other places, may long maintain their pre-eminence, but the rapidity of their advance is influenced somewhat by the number of workmen within their reach. They send their stock to all parts of New England; but manufactories are springing up in other parts to compete for that labor; and New Hampshire and Maine are to have their shoe-towns as well as Massachusetts.

☞ The Court of Common Pleas, which adjourned at Worcester on Saturday, occupied nearly the whole of its term with liquor trials or cases originating in the free use of liquor, fifty of them resulting in conviction or acknowledgment of guilt. Of these, twenty-three were for keeping and selling liquor, and five were under the nuisance act; and more than two-thirds of the expenses of the court are believed to be chargeable to the use of liquor.

AGRICULTURAL.—Mr. Samuel Thorne, of New York, has the finest herd of short-horned cattle in existence. He has sixteen imported cows, which cost from $3500 down to $1500 before they were removed from England; also fourteen heifers, one and two years old, of surpassing size and beauty, which are held at prices ranging from $500 to many times that sum. His calves are valued at $250 to $1000 each.

☞ A Honolulu paper mentions the arrival at Honolulu of the Ship Sea Serpent, from San Francisco, with two hundred celestials homeward bound, "with a good share of the golden spoils of California."—One, who for some time has been a silk merchant in San Francisco, had with him $150,000, the result of his merchantile operations.

☞ It has been decided no farther concerning the summoning of the Charleston Convention than to call a general meeting of the Executive Committee for October next. That body has the power to appoint the time for the assembling of the Convention, and it is believed that they will designate an early day in the month of April.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph says if any planter desires to impoverish his land, quickly and surely, let him plant the sorghum. If he desires to have a crop which will leave his land filled with the most stubborn sort of stubble, and in the worst possible condition for any other crop, let him plant the sorghum.

☞ In a pamphlet just issued by Dr. Seymour of London, on private lunatic asylums and the cause of insanity, the Doctor denounces with emphasis as one of the producing causes, the practice of smoking indulged in by boys and young men.

☞ While Mr. James Hood of Franklin, Mass., was shoeing an ox, the animal kicked and caught one of Mr. Hood's finger's between the cork of the shoe and a post, completely cutting off the finger.

☞ It is rumored that President Buchanan will visit New Bedford some time this summer, and be the guest of Wm. C. N. Swift, Esq. Mr. Swift, we believe, is the gentleman who made the famous live oak contract with the government.

☞ "The Voice of Masonry," printed at Louisville, Kentucky, by Rob Morris, is devoted to the interests of the brethren of the mystic tie, and is highly esteemed by the order.

☞ A correspondent of a Minnesota paper, writing from Pike's Peak, says that the miners are very much discouraged in that region, from being compelled to dig through a solid vein of silver, four feet thick, before they can reach the gold. "Very like a whale."

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from a reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are described upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with him and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The Medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is speedy and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

Ladies desirous to purchase the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KIRBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unmeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

IN BOSTON.
A. LEWANDO pledges himself, from long study and practical experience in his native country and throughout Europe, in the art of Dyeing and Scouring, that he can produce superior fast colors, and his mode of preparing goods for coloring is such that the fabric will retain its former strength and lively virtue, and in no instance assume that dull, decayed look, unavoidably produced by dyers in this country.
Particular attention given to Dyeing and Refinishing, in a NEW AND VERY SUPERIOR STYLE Silks, Satins, Velvet, Merino, Thibets and Cashmere Shawls, Canons and Italian Crapes, Gimps, Fringes, Curtains, Piano and Table Covers, Hosiery, &c. Feathers colored and curled—by a newly discovered process, far surpassing anything yet offered to the public. He is prepared to dye and cleanse every kind of Ladies' and Children's Dresses, Silk, Velvet or Wool, plain or embroidered, without removing the trimmings, or taking to pieces. Spots taken out without fading or changing color. Silks, Silk Dresses and Ribbons watered.

THE PEDLER LAW.

There is no doubt this law will be taken up for consideration and amendment at Concord in June. It is a subject, apparently, of little importance—and yet, as it affects the interests of many sellers, and many more buyers, it is desirable to have it fixed as it ought to be.

The Concord Statesman says of it:

The "Pedler Law" was an inadvertence, and the Legislature will take good care that a topic upon which the Democrats expended a prodigious amount of breath and ink, is removed from the political battle-field.

On this the Union Democrat remarks:

If the Democrats have driven the opposition to the abandonment of one of their iniquities, they have not labored altogether in vain. The Pedler Law, we think, will go by the board.

Let us look carefully at the facts. If the present pedler law "goes by the board," that is, if it is simply repealed, that repeal will revive the former pedler laws, passed by the democratic legislatures, and signed by democratic governors.

These laws, we showed, by copying them, last summer, prohibited people from hiring stores for a short time, and shut out pedlers from other States, exactly as the present law does. These two items have formed the chief ground of complaint against the present law.

This law, however, differs from the old ones in having the license tax for a pedler much higher than before, and making the fines heavier. In respect to the fines, it is better than the old; in respect to the price of licenses, it is not so good.

In one respect the new law has worked very well indeed, viz., that in a single county, this year, more money has come into the treasury from the pedler tax than was received before in the whole State.

Now in making a new law instead of all the old ones, experience shows it would be well to exempt farm produce, of all sorts, and home manufactures, from its action; to license all our home pedlers for a very small sum, say five dollars per annum; and then license the pedler from another State for a larger sum, but moderate, say $10 for a certain county, or $20 for two counties, to be paid in those counties—with the same rules for names on carts, showing licenses, &c., as there are now.

In this way a good and convenient tax, burdensome to no one, might easily be collected, and the great evils of pack pedlers be prevented.

The iniquity of the pedler law must be a very shocking affair to a man who can swallow Judge Taney's opinion, slavery and the slave trade.

Oh, the dreadful iniquity of a tax on pedlers, hawkers and showmen! "Ye that have tears," &c.

BOOK OF NEW ENGLAND.

A new and very valuable book has just come into our hands, which we hasten to introduce to our readers in city and country. It is the History and Description of New England, by Messrs. A. J. Coolidge and J. B. Mansfield.

The volume before us includes Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. It is a large octavo of more than 1000 pages, well printed on good paper, with numerous engravings; and is sold to subscribers at the low price of two dollars.

The plan of the work is excellent, being a full, modern and generally reliable gazetteer, and at the same time giving a concise but pleasant historical sketch of each State, and of every town and place that has any written history of any interest.

This volume is to be followed by another, which will include the three remaining New England States.

Mr. S. Gilbert is engaged in canvassing this city and vicinity, for the subscription and sale of this valuable New England book, which deserves a liberal patronage by this intelligent community.

☞ At the meeting of the North American Tract Society, in Boston, on Monday, resolutions severing entirely the connection with the New York Tract Society were adopted with but few negative votes. A resolution was also adopted with great unanimity in favor of the publication of well written anti-slavery tracts, especially of one or more opposing and condemning the re-opening of the slave trade.

☞ The Universalist Sabbath School Union, was held in the Tremont Temple in Boston on Wednesday afternoon, with a crowded audience.

The Methodist Sunday School Union met at the same time in the great Music Hall, nearly filling it.

The week, and Boston, with the Boston papers, were filled with the anniversaries, which we have hardly room to enumerate, much less to report.

A philosopher, being asked what was the first thing necessary to win the love of a woman, answered, an opportunity.

TEXAS-WARD.—I.

CINCINNATI, May 23, 1859.

Dear Chronicle:—After a trip through about one thousand miles of most beautiful country, your correspondent, on Sunday morning, found himself in the so-called Queen City of the West.

The points of interest to the stranger, on the route by way of Albany and Buffalo, are many and varied. The beautiful habitations and thrifty farms of western Massachusetts, the Erie Canal—seen at many points—with its uncouth looking boats, moving from place to place by the best of motive—a horse; the salt works at Syracuse, the Genesee Falls at Rochester, the cities of Buffalo and Cleveland, and the charming scenery of the Little Miami Valley, ending by leaving you in this smoky, dingy, dusty city.

The crops, even at this early season, show very favorably, leading the producers to expect abundant harvests.

Never was a truer sentence penned than that one which reads, "Before a man undertakes to conduct a railroad train, he should first learn to conduct himself." The folly of employing foreigners to attend to the wants of the American travelling public was seen by us on the Little Miami Road, where a Dutch brakeman so vigilantly guarded a car devoted to ladies and their escorts, that, though there were but four or five persons in the car, all unprotected gentlemen were compelled to ride in a car filled with emigrants not of the cleanest sort, where smoking was continually going on, and there ride one hundred and twenty miles.

I was much disappointed with the general appearance of this city, having expected something much finer from its reputation abroad. Above Sixth street it is mostly densely packed with a foreign population, and the buildings are of a poor class, though this sort of architecture is by no means confined to that portion of the city.

By far the most splendid structure in the city, and the finest of its kind I have ever seen, is Pike's Opera House, on Fourth street, completed a short time since.

The Court House on Main street is an imposing edifice, and, to judge from the tumult which prevails on Sundays, a great many fines are imposed there.

Mr. Longworth, the great pioneer wool-grower, kindly shows his house and grounds, as well as his cellar and the process of bottling champagne, to visitors. He has now in his vaults about 400,000 bottles, and produces at the rate of 100,000 bottles yearly.

The German Lager Bier Gardens are in full blast Sundays; and bands of music, followed by bodies of men and women, promenade through the streets on the northern side of the canal which intersects the city.

Newport, just across the river, receives a great many families into her quiet precincts, whereby they escape the din of Cincinnati. The large recruiting garrison stationed there is situated close to the water, and adds that beauty to the scene for which the government buildings are noted. But very few negroes reside there, though numerous in Cincinnati.

The river is very low at this point, and many steamers are laid up on account of this deficiency.

Besides the dirty streets, filled with dogs and hogs,—the dirty houses, filled with dirty humans,—and the filthy open sewers, filled with odoriferous liquid,—there is a dense cloud of black smoke always impending over the Queen City, from which cause the finest buildings soon come to look dingy.

Good order ought to prevail here, to judge from a few items in the estimates presented to the City Auditor, as required for the month of June, viz:—Police Department $8100, City Marshal $1800, City Prison $1186, Police Court $1023.

The weather is fine, and all sorts of turnouts are taking place—military companies, benevolent associations, Masonic, temperance, missionary and other societies, taking advantage of the opportunity thus offered, are improving the time to make excursions, and so make it very agreeable to the stranger to view their different proceedings.

ION.

☞ The Great and Good, Goodwin's Grand Greasejuice, (there's an unctuous name for you,) is one of the "institutions" of Exeter, of Rockingham County, and of the State of New Hampshire. If "he who causes two blades of grass to grow where but one grew before," is a great benefactor, —then what shall be said of him who causes two "spears" of hair to grow in place of one or of none? And what shall we say of him who makes all the hairs, which before stood up like those of the fretful porcupine, lie smooth and sleek and beautiful, adding grace to the head of the young, and dignity to that of the old?

You can get the article of C. H. Goodwin in Exeter, and of the apothecaries elsewhere.

☞ The latest news from Europe is dated Liverpool, May 14th.

No fighting had yet taken place in Italy. Napoleon had reached Genoa, where he issued a stirring address to his army.

England had formally proclaimed her neutrality.

☞ Despatches have been received from Gov. Cumming, of Utah, to April 28th. Considerable excitement, he says, still existed among the Mormons, and it was with great difficulty he could keep them in subjection. The misunderstanding between Governor Cumming and General Johnston remains in statu quo. Nothing is mentioned about the probability of a collision between the army and citizens, although the governor says the latter are arming for a case of emergency.

☞ At the Cambridge Cattle market May 28, the Post's reporter says:—

Owing to the large number of Cattle this week, and butchers having a large number left over, but few lots had changed hands when we left, and those at a decline of 50 to 75 cts. per cwt., with a prospect of but few more sales, unless at a further decline. Sheep about the same as last week. Calves rather higher. There was a good supply of new milk Cows.

DIED THROUGH IGNORANCE.—The following from our foreign papers, shows how foolishly an enlightened officer can throw away his life:

"Gen. Bruat, who led the first division over Mont Cenis, is a loss. His death at the top of the Alps was simply owing to his not adding to much professional ability a very slight knowledge of the laws regulating animal life. Heated with the work of climbing the heights of glory and marshaling the vanguard, he would gulp down a glass of snow water, and fell as if stricken by a shot. He was 45."

When the celebrated Dunning, afterwards Lord Ashburton, was "stating law" to a jury in court, Lord Mansfield interrupted him by saying, "if that be law, I'll go home and burn my books. "My lord," replied Dunning, "you had better go home and read them."

A certain deacon, called Highley, used to "trade horses" at the Berkshire cattle market. Stired up by the preaching of his minister, he, one Sunday, "after meeting," thus communicated to one Brown:—"You don't spose them little stories—sort o'lies like—that you and I tell in the way o'trade, will be reckoned agin us in the day o'judgment. Sarcumstanced as we are, we can't help it you know. I don't spose it makes no difference in the sight o'the Lord, long's the heart's all right, good brother Brown." And the brother went home comforted.

☞ Smith O'Brien, in his speech in Boston, the other day, told his countrymen that everywhere in America he had found Irishmen prospering. The only exceptions were those laborers who spend for whiskey what would make them independent.

The New York News is of the opinion that Daniel S. Dickinson will be gratefully remembered "when your Seward and all other tricksters are dead and forgotten."—An admiring critic, who reviewed Pollock's Course of Time, when that poem was the rage, declared that the author would be remembered when Byron and Moore were forgotten. "Yes," was the answer, "but not till then."—Prov. Jour.

AERIAL EXCURSION.—On Wednesday last the editor of the Erie Dispatch went on an aerial excursion in a balloon, in company with another gentleman, and both fell into Lake Erie several miles from shore.—They were picked up by a steamboat.

Our government is understood to be making such arrangements, both by sea and by land, as shall enable it to dictate their future to the Mexicans. We are about to "protect" the Juarez government much after the fashion that the Russians protected the Polish government at Poniatowski.

☞ The latest accounts from the Pike's Peak gold region are of the most deplorable condition of things there, and terrible suffering among the inhabitants and emigrants.

It is said that the virtuous men of New York will hereafter wear a badge over the heart, in the form of a "sickle." The wicked will be distinguished from the righteous by wearing a "key" on the left breast.

☞ The Pike's Peak humbug is exploded at last, but not until many people have been ruined by it; yet if a new humbug of the same kind were to be got up to-day, it would be as successful as was that which we have just seen collapse.

☞ The dog law is being carried out in Lowell, eighteen or twenty unlicensed curs having been killed within a few days.—Good!

☞ Rev. Rufus M. Sawyer, late of Winthrop, Me., was installed pastor of the 2d Congregational church at Great Falls, on the 13th inst.

☞ Rev. S. J. Austin, recently dismissed at Mason Village, has engaged to supply the pulpit at East Wilton for the present.

☞ Capt. Crowell, of the brig Roleson, who sent back a fugitive slave from Hyannis, Mass., has been arrested in Boston, for kidnapping or false imprisonment of the slave. The mate, John Orlando, has also been arrested. And a warrant is out against Capt. Bacon, of schooner Elizabeth, who took the slave back.

FROM DENVER CITY.—Leavenworth, May 23.—The overland express has arrived here from Denver City, with dates of the 13th inst. The panic among the emigrants has subsided in a great measure, and a better feeling prevailed. Quartz continued to be discovered, and promised to yield well. Gold dust was offered in limited quantities at Denver City, but their was no coin there to purchase it.

MADAME BISCACCIANTI'S CONCERT.—It is only necessary to announce that Madame Biscaccianti gives her grand farewell concert this evening, and all those who have heard her, or correctly heard of her, who can attend, will be present. She is well known as the favorite singer not of a city, a State or nation only, but of the world. She has sung in all parts of Europe and in all parts of America, and wherever her sweet voice has been heard it has called forth the united praises of the admiring throngs. She was here but a short time since, and we can not therefore say what would be new to the people. We will however give the following from Grace Greenwood, written for the N. Y. Post:

* * * Madame Biscaccianti has been singing over the world—now here, now there—like a sweet sprite of music, a "delicate Ariel," "a wandering voice." She has almost put a girdle of melody round the earth,—she has breathed in the common air of many climes, and sent it forth electrified with life and glorified with soul. Her wonderful voice has assimilated everywhere that subtle song spirit which pervades all life—it has enriched itself with the wild harmonies of Nature. It has given alike to the luxurious bloom and passionate glow of the South, and the brilliant frost work and midnight splendors of the North, their correspondence in the sound. It has emulated the soar of the eagle of the Andes, and echoed the trills of Italian nightingales; it has caught the sad murmur of the Pacific, the full volumed surge of the Amazon, an ocean en voyage—and the sweet gurgle, the low silvery laughter of English brooks.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOME TESTIMONY.

From the Pittsburgh United Presbyterian.

We have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in Dyspepsia, and can speak favorably of its effects, and have no hesitation in commending it to those suffering from any debility of the kind.

From the Pittsburgh Post, August 27, 1858.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.—These Bitters have obtained a wide-spread and well-deserved celebrity. They are an admirable remedy for a great variety of stomach diseases. It is a most valuable tonic, and to all persons afflicted with indigestion, it affords a complete remedy. It is sufficient evidence of its beneficial character to observe the immense quantities of it shipped by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, the proprietors, to all points in the country. (From the Pittsburgh Gazette, Aug. 18, '58.)

Knowledge is gained by experience, and, though we have heretofore dealt very little in medicinal preparations, we are compelled, in justice to the manufacturers, to say that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been the means of curing us of a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and has removed pain in the stomach in a very short time.

Agent for Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER, 3 Congress of State and Pleasant Sts., and No. 12 Market Square. Weeks & Potter, Boston, General Agents for the New England States.

POISONOUS INNOCULATION.—Persons who, by accident or otherwise, become innoculated with any malignant disorder, will find the R. R. R. Remedies prompt, quick and efficient. Persons who have suffered from Chronic Scrofula, Syphilis, or the effects of Mercurial treatment, are informed that RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT will quickly free the body from corrupt humors, whether the same be generated within the system from neglect or ill-treatment, or innoculated through indiscretion or accident. We have hundreds in this city, trifling away the time, and suffering the most severe tortures for years, been suddenly restored to health by R. R. R. Remedies. In all cases of recent date—if taken under one year—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will remove all painful difficulties and obstructions in two or three days. It will, in all Chronic Cases of long standing, prove of potent efficacy within six days. In taking R. R. Resolvent, every patient should take one of Radway's Regulators at night, to keep the Bowels, Liver and Kidneys regular.

For Acute Pains, either Rheumatic, Nervous or Neuralgic, R. R. RELIEF will stop the most severe paroxysms in a few minutes.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GOOD IMPORTED.

This Gin, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and one of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicious flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STONE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS or the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressed sensations which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Morrn, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. CANDIA BRANCH.

Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondent from Concord, undoubtedly has a right to his own opinions, and is to be commended for expressing them so plainly as he does. Yet he is liable to make great mistakes, and I think he does so, in his advice to the Members of the Legislature, to oppose the movements of the great railway corporations towards the ownership of the Candia Branch.

The public ought to know, and especially the Members of the General Court should know, that unless one or two of our great railroad companies build the Candia Branch, it is not likely to be built in your day nor mine.

I hold that the builders of the road should own it, if possible,—and that the Candia Branch, by whomsoever built and owned, must benefit the trade of Portsmouth and of Manchester.

I hold also, that the interest of the road, will ultimately regulate the prices of freight and passage, in the best manner for the public.

I hope, therefore, the members from Portsmouth, and all along the line to Manchester, will throw no obstacles in the way of building the road by the corporations now interested in the enterprise,—for I repeat, it will be built by them, or not built at all in this generation.

I have no interest in the matter, except as a citizen, having no concern in any of the roads. A. B.

FAREWELL TOUR OF BISCACCIANTI.—By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Madame Biscaccianti, previous to her departure from this country, will give a farewell concert in this city, at the Temple, this (Friday) evening. The reception at her last concerts here, and the pleasure expressed by all who heard her then, will ensure a house adequate to her professional ability and reputation. Mr. Dennett, the popular basso; Sig. Biscaccianti, violincellist; and Mr. Evans, pianist, also take part in the programme.

A FALL.—In Kittery, Navy Yard Village, on Wednesday, a large number of carpenters and others were engaged in raising the roof of a new frame building, intended for an armory, bowling alley, and other purposes, near the Navy Yard Bridge. Fifteen of the number stood on loose boards, resting on the floor timbers of the attic, which gave way beneath them, and brought them to the next floor, which in its turn gave way also, making their fall about twenty feet. Strange to say, no one was killed, and only one man, Mr. Wentworth, had a bone broken. Nearly all were more or less injured, two or three somewhat severely, but none dangerously; and we understand the wounded are doing well.

☞ Commodore Storer is not one of the Investigating Committee at the Navy Yard, as was stated in the Ballot, and copied into the Chronicle of Thursday.

The Committee consists of Commodore Gregory, Capt. Van Brunt, Commander Tucker, Commander Poor, and Lieutenant Porter. The Secretary of the Committee is Mr. Gough.

☞ It will be seen that the veritable, original, inimitable Peak Family, Swiss Bell Ringers, give one of their unique entertainments, Saturday night, at the Temple.

☞ Rev. John G. Adams of Worcester, Mass., is to preach at the Universalist Church in this city on the third Sunday in June,—and on the same day at 5 P. M. will preach at Newington, in the old meeting house, where his venerable ancestor preached as the first minister of Newington.

☞ Rev. Mr. Patterson, of this city, is to preach at Rye, (Chesley's Hall,) on the second Sunday in June, at 5 P. M.

☞ In Manchester, at a meeting of the Veterans in regard to going to Concord on Election Day, it was voted to go, provided eighty men would go beside the officers.—A committee was appointed to ascertain and report the number. The required number and more have have agreed to go. So there will be a grand military escort.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD DECISION.—James H. Hotchkin, of Prattsburg, Steuben county, bought a ticket on the Erie Railroad at New York for Rochester. It was maked "Good for six days only." After the expiration of six days, Mr. H. presented the ticket between Bath and Rochester; it was refused, and he was ejected from the cars. He commenced a suit, which was recently tried before Referees designated by the Supreme Court, and they have awarded the plaintiff $150 damages.

☞ The North American Tract Society held its 45th anniversary in Boston on Wednesday evening, when the Tremont Temple was full. It is an active Society.

NOTICE.

This certifies that I have this day given my son MICHAEL LONG his time; he is free to act and trade for himself. I will pay no debts of his contracting, nor claim any of his earnings after this date. MARGARET LONG.

☞ The latest news from California is from San Francisco, May 3, per steamer Moses Taylor from Aspinwall, arrived at New York with 500 passengers and about $2,000,000 in specie.

Business in San Francisco was dreadfully dull,—money 2 1-2 per cent. per month.

The U. S. Frigate Merrimac left Panama on the 7th for Callao.

The village of Metachin, on the line of the railroad, has been totally destroyed by an incendiary fire.

An escort left for Tejon 23d ult., with half a million in money, to pay the troops in Utah. It is said the soldiers in that territory are nearly a year in arrears of pay, and it has leaked out, through a letter from one of these to a comrade in Los Angelos, that as soon as they are paid off they are going to desert.

Mr. Holden, a Douglas Democrat, has been elected Mayor of Stockton.

From the Ballot.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The first Wednesday being the first day of June, the new legislature of the State will convene at Concord on Wednesday next. Short sessions having generally been held since the American Republican party has had control, and having found general favor with the people, it is not probable that the policy will this year be departed from, particularly as there is understood to be little business of an important character to be brought forward. The Judiciary system will probably be overhauled, and still further improved upon, if the representatives of the people can agree upon anything that will be a decided improvement, as would undoubtedly be some measure by which suits involving small amounts may be disposed of without the delay attendant upon their trial in the courts as at present constituted. The democratic papers of the state, from the time of the passage of the present judiciary law, have been attempting to array their party against it, and to increase their party vote by representing it as unjust and expensive; but facts and figures show that it is an improvement upon the system that preceded it, and the attempts of the hunker press to make the contrary appear have proved abortive. All, however, will admit that the system is susceptible of improvement; and if the people's representatives will undertake the work of improvement, with an eye solely to the welfare of their constituents and without regard to political advantage for the one party or the other, we doubt not they will be able to agree upon a remedy for the delay attendant upon the settlement of minor suits in cases where the parties are not inclined to protracted litigation.

We observe that in some parts of the state petitions have been got up for such an alteration in the laws in relation to suffrage as to make a year residence in the state and six months in the town necessary qualifications for a voter; and we have frequently heard the doctrine advanced that the exhibition of a tax receipt should be made a pre-requisite qualification for the exercise of the right of suffrage. But such a reform, as we understand, would render necessary an amendment of the constitution. Such an amendment as the last suggested would unquestionably do much to preserve the purity of the ballot-box, as there are hundreds who vote in this city every year who cannot be found by the tax collector. But as taxes are now assessed in April, the change could not be made without requiring about twelve months' residence in a town before voting, and we do not see how a satisfactory change could be made unless the time of the annual election should be changed from the Spring to the Fall. It is therefore probable that none such will be at present attempted.

THE OLD AND NEW JUDICIARY.—The fact that some of the Republican papers advocate a cheaper and more expeditious mode of indulging in litigation, has been seized upon by the Patriot and other hunker papers as an acknowledgement that the present Judiciary system is not operating as well for the people as that which it displaced in 1855. Nothing could be more unfair, or untrue. We believe, on the contrary, every fair-minded man in the State, conversant with the present, and the old Courts, will agree that in the point of capacity, industry and working ability, the present Court is very decidedly ahead of its predecessor. And this is demonstrable by an appeal to the dockets of the several counties in 1855 and in 1858. In 1855, it appears by the county dockets that the old actions which had been in court more than two terms, numbered 1136. Three years later, the dockets show substantially all the old cases disposed of, and the number of cases which have been in court more than one year reduced to 651; showing that under the administration of the present Judge, the same class of cases has been reduced nearly one half. The following is a statement of cases of one year's standing on the dockets in the several counties, in November 1855, and November 1858.

Strafford,	51	57

Belknap,	62	19
Cheshire,	61	26

	1136	651

This table tells its own story, and shows beyond cavil that whatever the delays of justice under the present courts, they are only about one half as burdensome as under the old. In other words, those who seek redress at law get their cases decided in about half the time taken by the old courts, and are thereby able to save themselves from half the expense of the old.—[Independent Democrat.

Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps. GOOD FOR RHEUMATISM. GOOD FOR DYSPEPSIA. GOOD FOR GRAVEL. GOOD FOR GOUT. GOOD FOR FEVER & AGUE. GOOD FOR KIDNEY AND BLADDER COMPLAINTS, and as a Beverage it has no superior in the world. It is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, &c. &c. Put up in quart and pint bottles, in Cases of one dozen quarts, and two dozen pints, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Country Merchants and Druggists. Look out for counterfeits and imitations, as the whole country is flooded with them. UDOLPHO WOLFE, SOLE MANUFACTURER AND IMPORTER, DEPOT 22 BEAVER STREET, NEW YORK.

TO THE PUBLIC. I beg leave to call the attention of the American Public to the following Certificate from the Government Chemist for the Island of Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, and who is known to the Scientific men of London, Paris, Madrid, Cuba and America to be the first Chemist in the world. UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CHEMICAL TESTIMONY. D. Jose Luis Casaseca, Corresponding Member of the Royal Academies of Madrid and Munich, a Graduate in Science of the Faculty of Paris, formerly Professor of Chemistry, as applied to the Arts, of the Royal Conservatorio of Madrid, and of Physic and Chemistry, as applied to the Industry and Agriculture of the country, in the Royal University of this Island, at present H. M.'s Director of the Institute of Chemical Investigation, &c., &c. Do hereby certify, that at the request of the house of Gottig & Will, of this place, I have made an analytical examination of U. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, with the object of ascertaining if it contained any substance noxious to health, and to inform them as to its true composition and relative quality with the other gins that are offered in the market, and the results of my observations and experiments are as follows:—

Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is a spirituous liquid, of a very agreeable aromatic odor, completely transparent and almost colorless, having only a very slight tint of yellowish gray; its flavor is strong and very agreeable to the palate. It marks 20 degrees in Cartier's alcohol weigher or 52 degrees 5 hundredth in Gay Lussac's alcohometre. By the distillation in a balsium maria, with an apparatus consisting of a glass retort and a recipient surrounded with ice, I have collected in this recipient an alcoholic liquid with a very agreeable aroma completely colorless and transparent, which marked 90 degrees in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, or 70 degrees 5 hundredth on Gay Lussac's alcohometre; and which represented as a whole 57 per cent. of aromatic Schiedam schnapps subject to distillation in the retort. This liquid did not soil the transparency of the distilled water in mixing it with the same, and its agreeable aroma is doubtless due to a very trifling amount of an essential oil inseparable from alcohol.

From the remainder of the distillation which was left in the retort, I have obtained, through evaporation in a vapor bath, a substance of a yellowish brown color, clear, and having a bitter taste, which is not disagreeable, and which afterwards becomes aromatic and leaves the mouth perfumed with that fragrance peculiar to the vanilla. I am inclined to believe that to this bitter and aromatic extractive substance, soluble in water and alcohol, the medicinal properties which are attributed to this gin are due. I have not found in Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps any mineral or organic substance other than the extractive one already named and the aromatic one obtained by distillation. Finally, Udolpho Wolfe's aromatic Schiedam schnapps consists simply of an aromatic alcohol of 20 degrees of graduation in Cartier's alcoholic weigher, and of an extractive bitter aromatic substance, which perhaps, is medicinal; and, on account of its not containing any matter injurious to the health, as well as for its odor and good flavor—a fact which no doubt arises from the choice substances employed in its manufacture, and from the peculiar manner of its distillation, it should in my opinion, be preferred to all the Holland, Belgic and German gins which are found in this Island which it has been my business to examine. These gins as I have often proved it, exhale a disagreeable odor, and have a more or less disagreeable flavor, some of them having left as was the case with the superior gin from the distillery of Mr. Henry Deetjen (of Bremen,) as residum after evaporation by steam, a substance almost insipid and very trifingly aromatic, with flavor of vanilla, but in no wise with the delicious bitter and aromatic flavor of that of Udolpho Wolfe; and others, such as that labelled "Genuine Samaritan," "Extra Superior." Messrs. Tracher have furnished me with a very small quantity of a greenish substance, of harsh metallic taste and very disagreeable, which extractive organic matter was mixed with a salt of copper, with signs of iron, owing perhaps, to a bad system of distillation.

I certify that all that is here stated is the truth and agrees with the experiments I have made with the greatest care, and I authorize the house of Gottig & Will, of this city, to give publicity to this certificate, in Spanish and in foreign languages, in all countries where it may suit their interest to do so. JOSE LUIS CASASECA. HAVANA, JANUARY, 1859.

A BRILLIANT NOVEL. WE SHALL PUBLISH JUNE FIRST, SEACLIFF; OR, THE MYSTERY OF THE WESTERVELTS. By J. W. DEFOREST, Author of "Oriental Acquaintance," "European Acquaintance," etc. This is a story of American Life, embracing some features of society and traits of character that are as new as they are striking and natural.—The personages introduced are very few in number; and the interest centres in the family upon whom the hero makes a call, in the first chapter. The plot is remarkable for its ingenious simplicity. The reader's curiosity is aroused at the outset by the appearance of a mystery. Each step in the development of the story seems about to disclose the dreadful secret; but the true solution will not be guessed, even by the most inveterate readers of fiction, until the catastrophe comes. The style of the narration is full of spirit, and the various dramatis personæ are finely sketched and contrasted. "SEACLIFF" will be, without question, the most fascinating novel of the season. In one handsome volume, duodecimo, 466 pp., beautifully printed. Price $1.25. The Trade supplied on the usual terms. Copies sent, post-paid, upon receipt of price. SEWING MACHINE CO.,

NO. 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their

Celebrated Family Machines,

with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE.

PRICE $50:

Machines from $50 to $125.

HEMMERS, $5 EXTRA.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of

ONE CENT AN HOUR!

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

TESTIMONIALS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

We have seen one of Grover & Baker's $100 Sewing Machines used to do the Sewing of two families, for the past year or more, to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned—without once getting out of order, or requiring the least repair.—We would as soon try to dispense with a Cooking Stove in a family, as to attempt to get along without a Sewing Machine. Money invested in a good Machine pays much more than legal dividend, in actual cash savings—to say nothing of the higher consideration, of comfort and convenience, nay, even luxury, it affords to the ladies of a household. Whatever may be the experience with other Machines, we never knew a Grover & Baker to be discarded or found wanting.

FRANK W. MILLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 12, 1859.

Having tested the merits of the various popular Sewing Machines, in the manufacture of our Capes and Raglans, we unhesitatingly recommend the Grover & Baker, as far superior to all others. ALLEN & FAINE.

MRS. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent, says: "Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year and half, I take pleasure in commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed, Family Sewing."

MRS. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate, says: "I confess myself highly delighted with your Sewing Machine, which has been in my family for many months. It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools or thread."

MRS. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York, says: "I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and find it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch.—The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."

MRS. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of the Brooklyn Star, says: "After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect ease with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headaches, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week it will never fall or become gray; then, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.:

Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking. I am, yours respectfully. HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 8, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn which I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, which, being used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c. S. W. HIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving the benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 461 N. 2d St.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twice the quantity, and in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

The Liver Invigorator.

PREPARED BY DR SANFORD,

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS.

is one of the best PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES before the public.

These GUMS remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, stopping a chill in a fever, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures CONSTIPATION.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

Only one dose immediately relieves COLIC.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

One dose will relieve CHOLERA MORBUS, and prevent CHOLERA. One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural yellow from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst form, while SUMMER & FALL COMPLAINT yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure DROPSY by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is sold by all Druggists everywhere. Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. au31 ly

TO MARRIED LADIES.

The "Indian Emmenagogue" is a new and elegant medicine, designed expressly for females. It is prepared from an Indian plant, which from time immemorial has rendered parturition among the native so easy, and is now for the first time offered to the public. The name and virtues of this wondrous plant was recently obtained from Shenandoah, an Oneida Chief, now residing at Syracuse, N. Y. It regulates the menses to a regular period, with full directions for using, and is warranted to cure any case of female obstruction in twenty-four hours. This may seem incredible, but if it fails in any case, the price will be refunded. Purely vegetable and perfectly safe at all times.

☞ Remember, This is the only medicine of the kind that is warranted to be safe and effectual. Sent by express to all parts of the country. Sold only at the Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston.

Circulars and references with pamphlet on diseases of women and private maladies generally.—Sent free on receipt of stamp—addressed to Remedial Institute, No. 12 Suffolk Place, Boston, Mass.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

Knowing that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicine sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a shorter period of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be assured of getting the genuine, the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. 2d ly

LOTTERIES.

THE LOTTERIES OF

WOOD, EDDY & CO.,

Are chartered by the States of Delaware and Georgia, and have worn commissions appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as though they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Delaware or to Georgia, as the Lotteries of

Or to WOOD, EDDY & CO., Wilmington, Delaware.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal advice and opinion rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IN THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would respectfully, he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, enable him, beyond competition, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MAGNUSON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his regular business, had on THIRTEN rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.
